FREDERICK W. MILLS AS DEPUTY JUDGE OF TOWN COURT OF MANCHESTER

Has Secured Honor Eight Times From State egislature Without! Any Opposition-Term is For Two Years—Is Closing Out Fourteenth Year At Present-Term Begins First Monday In July.

Fred W. Mills of this place was appointed by the state legislature last week as deputy judge of the town court of Manchester for a term of two years beginning on the first Monday of July, 1909. Mr. Mills is filling out his 14th year as deputy judge and expects to enter upon his eighth term next July. Mr. Mills is a native of Rockville where he was born in 1860. He came to Manchester in 1890 and began business in the Park building on Main street where he opened a novelty and stationery store which he is still conducting. tionery store which he is still conducting. though very much enlarged in size during the 19 years be has been in business. Mr. Mills is a Republican in politics, has been secretary and treasurer of the Business Men's Association since it was founded, is treasurer of the State Business Men's Association, is a member of King David Lodge of Old Fellows, of the Mancuester Conclave of Heptasophs, and of Orford Lodge No. 58, Ancient Order of United Workmen.

FRED W. MILLS

There never has been any competition a for the position of deputy judge of the 45tf town court of Manchester. Mr. Mills has had no difficulty in securing this honor from the legislature. It was simply a matter of having one of the local representatives prelegislature and have it carried through without contest of any sort This certainly makes matters very pleasant for the fficial who can receive these honors in The same conditions prevailed with

The sixteenth graduating exercises of the South Manchester High School took place last evening and attracted an audience that practically filled the large ps mbly hall. The High School oborous and the Girls Giec Clab furnished the vocal music nucler the direction of Miss Peabody, instructor in music. Miss Hazel Trotter, Miss Maud Gardinet and Clarrace Ruddell, members of the High School probestra rendered violin accompaniments, and Miss Gray presided at the plano, all of which added greatly to the delights of the occasion.

The program as published in these columns last week was carried out in a very commendable manner and the efforts of the young people who were honored by being permitted to speak were enthu iss'ically applauded. The several speakers showed that they had given very careful attention to the top ics which they discussed, that they had made considerable research for facts that adding accordingly to the fund of information given these who attended.
