The Startling Vision That Saved the Life of Lady Vernon, The following dream story is told in "The Story of My Life," by Augustus I. C. Hare. The story was told to Mr. Hare in Rome in 1870:

Lady Vernon dreamed that she saw the butler, with a knife in one hand and a candle in the other, crossing the entrance hall, and she awoke with a great start. After awhile she composed herself to sleep again, and she dreamed-she dreamed that she saw the butler, with a knife in one hand and a candle in the other, on the middie of the staircase, and she awoke with a great shock.
