CONFESSION OF A SALOON VICTIM

Give the Young Men of Manchester a Square Deal.

At fourteen years of age I took my first glass of beer in a saloon at the invitation of a saloon keeper who said, "you are big enough to drink beer."

At twenty years of age I became an habitual daily, moderate drinker. At twenty-six years of age I became drunkard. From 26 to 35 years of age I lost 24 jobs of work from drunkenness.

The youngster detects the inconsistency between preaching and practice. In my high school days I drank beer while studying the effect of alcohol on the human body.

NEW TAILORING FIRM Elsewhere in our columns today will be found the advertisement of the Boston Tailoring House, which is located in the Russell block, on Main street, near the bank.

Services will be conducted at the Center Congregational church next Sunday by the pastor, Rev. Dr. George W. Reynolds, as follows:

CARD OF THANKS We hereby extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the many friends and kind neighbors who assisted and comforted us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father.

SAVE LAND TO CHURCH Cheney Bros. have donated a strip of land to the Pentecostal church, which is located at the rear of the church building and is 70 x 60 feet.

DIRECT PRIMARY

GIVEN SECOND TRYOUT HERE WITH SATI FACTORY RESULTS AND WITHOUT CONFUSION

Matter of Counting Ballots Greatly Facilitated by Putting More Counters at Work and Not Counting Votes in Cases Where There Were No Candidates for Nominations on Republican Ballot.

The direct primary for the nomination of town officers in the Republican and Democratic parties was held at the town hall last Tuesday, the polls opening at 9 a. m. and closing at 8 p. m.

When the counting of the ballots began and was carried to a finish at 11:30 p. m. The Republican party did not take part in the direct primary, as they did not cast ten per cent of the total vote at the election last year.

There were 1066 Republican ballots counted, out of which number some 26 were rejected by Moderator Charles H. Hathaway for sundry reasons where they were cast in violation of law.

Last year at the first tryout of the new form of the town ballot there were but 18 rejected, out of 870 Republican ballots cast.

Some of the errors in voting last Tuesday at the direct primary were placing the X on the outside of the name; placing the X outside of the square indicated upon the ballot; voting for more candidates for a particular office than the law allowed; crossing out the name of a candidate instead of leaving the square blank; that is to say without putting in the X. Democratic ballots in Republican ballot box. In cases of this kind the entire ballot was cast aside and the vote was lost entirely.

In some of the cases indicated above the loss to the voter was only for the particular candidate or candidates to whom the error or errors applied.

Some of the errors of placing the Democratic ballots in the Republican ballot box came about where men were formerly registered for the Democratic caucus, and when they transferred their allegiance to the Republican party and had their names placed upon the Republican registry lists, their names were not eliminated from the Democratic lists, and consequently appeared upon both simultaneously.

There were but 50 Democratic ballots cast and as a result it took but a short time to determine the result. Last year the Democrats cast 68 ballots. The moderator announced the result of the Democratic balloting at 8:45.

The Republicans had 12 men counting the ballots this year. Last year they had but 8 and it took until 4:30 a. m. before the result was officially declared.

Samuel E. Dart and E. J. Holl, the candidates for the vacancy on the board of selectmen because of the refusal of Selectman Clarence G. Watkins to serve his term further in that capacity at the present time, ran a pretty race and it was nip and tuck as to which would be the winner. It took the actual count to determine this fact. At the final footing up it was discovered that Mr. Dart had 46 more votes than Mr. Holl.

Moderator Charles H. Hathaway decided that it was not necessary for the Republican counters to count the votes for candidates where there were no contests on the Republican ballots for the respective nomination, but instead of that procedure he would declare all such candidates nominated and so make his official return to the proper sources. This was done in order to save time and to facilitate counting. As a result of this procedure the counters finished their labors at 11:30 and the result was announced by the moderator as follows: those marked "X" being declared nominated, in cases where there were contests on the Republican ticket the number of votes cast for each candidate is given.

The Democrats nominated the same persons for town clerk, town treasurer, agent town deposit fund and directors public library as the Republicans.

The candidates and nominations were as follows: REPUBLICAN

Town Clerk, n Sanford M. Benton, Selectman, n William E. Alford

n Horace B. Cheney 688 n Samuel E. Dart 573, Edward J. Holl 583, n Arthur B. Keeney 719, n John M. Williams 626. Collector of Taxes, n

Old Dutch Coffee

Have you tried our Old Dutch Coffee? It is the Best Coffee Ever Sold in the Town of Manchester for 20c a Pound.

It takes the place of the regular 35c Coffee on your table.

This coffee has been sold for the last 30 years under the trade mark of the "Old Dutch Coffee."

We have the sole agency for the sale of Old Dutch Coffee in this town.

We took the agency for Old Dutch Coffee some time ago and are surprised ourselves at the amount of the product we have disposed of.

It seems to meet the popular fancy, to suit in point of taste and quality and flavor as well as in price. It satisfies in all these important particulars. Could you ask for more? Those who have tried it are delighted with it. May we add you, gentle reader, to our already large list of satisfied patrons in the use of Old Dutch Coffee? If so the pleasure and profit will be largely yours.

THE NORTH POLE

Has Nothing Whatsoever to Do With Cook and Dance By Military Band.

It may be well understood at the outset that the discovery and location of the North Pole has nothing whatever to do with the coming dance to be given at Cheney Hall by the Military Band of Manchester Tuesday evening, October 19th. The boys are not going to settle the controversy which is waxing warm and warmer day by day between Arctic Explorers Cook and Peary, who first sailed the Stars and Stripes to the North Pole in a question which they propose to leave to the scientists for official confirmation and final settlement.

What the Military Band of Manchester do wish to inform the public about at this time is that they are intended to provide an evening of rare music at Cheney Hall on the day and date first named above. Furthermore, they desire that all inhabitants hereabouts be fully advised as to this great fact, and that they be constrained to come out in force to the festivities. It will be found that there will be fun enough to go around, that there will be no preference shown to any; whether they favor the Cook or the Peary side of the controversy that will be treated alike, that the glad band will cheerfully be extended to everybody, and that the larger and merrier the assemblage the better hand boys will enjoy it.

Do not be afraid of overcrowding. There will be ample room and a most hearty welcome will be cheerfully extended. The following committee have the arrangements in charge: Robert J. Smith, chairman; Elsie Wintan, secretary; James Harrison, William Aspinall and George B. Bell.

COTTER—JACKSON

Miss Annie Ames Cotter, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Cotter of Myrtle street and William J. Jackson of Rockville were married with a nuptial high in 81 at the St. James church in this place by Rev. W. J. McGeehan, the pastor. The day morning, in the presence of one of the largest gatherings assembles in St. James church on an occasion of this sort in many a year. Miss May Collins of Willimantic, a cousin of the bride was bridesmaid and Patrick Jackson, brother of the groom was best man. The bride was becomingly arrayed in a blue serge princess gown trimmed with white silk and looked very charming indeed. She also wore a large black picture hat trimmed with black willow ostrich plumes and carried a rosary but no flowers. The bridesmaid's costume was a dress of rose, empire. She too appeared in a black picture hat similar to that of the bride. The solemnity of the nuptial high mass was Jeremiah Daley of Waterbury and Edward F. Taylor of this place.

Guests were present from Rockville, Stafford Springs, Hartford, Waterbury, Willimantic, Torrington, South and North Manchester. A wedding feast was served at the home of the bride's mother, where the bridal couple received the bride's congratulations of all. During the afternoon the bride and groom left their happy home for Portland, Oregon, where they intend to make their future home.

Mr. Jackson has held a position of trust in the carpenter works at Rockville, where he is highly respected. He has secured a flattering offer for a similar position in Oregon, with very much larger opportunities for advancement. This looked good to him and he has accepted. His wife will begin his new duties there at the close of the honeymoon.

The bride was employed as a clerk in the Boston Store here for a number of years past. She was very popular and had many devoted friends in this place. Names and pretty to behold were the wedding presents she received.

WOULD YOU VOTE?

Selectmen and Town Clerk Will Make Voters Tomorrow

We desire once more to call the attention of those of our readers who desire to become voters of the Town of Manchester that the selectmen and town clerk will hold a session at the Hall of Records tomorrow, Saturday, September 25 from 9 a. m. until 7 p. m. for the purpose of making voters. All those whose qualifications mature on or before that date should present themselves before the proper authorities, as indicated above and be admitted to the voters' oath.

All persons whose names are citizens and desiring to become voters here at this time should bring their naturalization papers with them so that the officers may inspect them and satisfy themselves that the law has been complied with. By taking this precaution considerable inconvenience may be averted, and the work of making voters may be expedited accordingly. Remember that by missing this chance you cannot be made a voter until after the town election. This may prove to be quite annoying to you. It may come about that you would like to have your voice in the affairs of the town at the election next year, but failing in being made a voter tomorrow, will defer you from this privilege. You will not only fail of voting at the next year's town meeting, but will also prevent yourself from participating in the next district primary. As matters stand in this town with its great preponderance of Republican voters, the ability to vote at the direct primary actually outweighs the privilege of voting at the town meeting. This is important, and the fact of having it pointed out here, should determine all to whom this message applies to. "Do it now."

The Proper Course

Information of Priceless Value to Every Manchester Citizen

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement will add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of Manchester citizens who have been permanently cured?

Mr. A. E. Johnson, 1 Allen Place, Manchester, Conn., says: "I had the unfortunate habit of drinking beer and I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be the best medicine I have ever used for my kidneys."

Mr. W. E. Johnson, 1 Allen Place, Manchester, Conn., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for many years and I feel a much better man than I did when I first began to use them. They have cured my kidneys and I feel much better than I did when I first began to use them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Doan, Medina, N. Y.

THE UNVEILING

The statue of the Soldier Boy of Andoverville has taken its place among Hartford's patriotic monuments and ornaments. In the minds of all the comrades and citizens who saw it unveiled yesterday were loving and sorrowful thoughts of the noble giver. Such an assemblage without Colonel Frank Cheney in it brought home anew to us all the sense of our loss. As always on these occasions, the best eloquence of the spoken word failed before the silent eloquence of gray hair, army blue, and the copper button. It is well—terribly well—with every gallant American boy who died in battle, hospital, or prison, in those years so far away now, for his flag and his country.

"Himself, through the clarion calling To the van, called not in vain. Justice for us evermore, Justice after us before." And he who battles on his side, God, though he were ten times slain, Crown him victor glorified."—Conant, Saturday.

HUDSON—FULTON STAMP

One of the Most Beautiful Ever issued in Washington

In order to insure the Hudson-Fulton celebration stamp being on file as at all post offices desiring it on September 25, the date of the opening of the celebration of the centennial in New York, the post office department decided to begin the shipment to various offices on September 20. The edition is limited to 50,000,000 and therefore may be in great demand by stamp collectors. It is issued by one of the most beautiful stamp ever issued by the department.

ANOTHER DRUG STORE

Alvin E. Peterson has leased the north store in the new Avron Johnson brick block on Main street and is planning to open a drug store there as early as possible. In all probability he may be doing business here by the first of November. Mr. Peterson was formerly employed in the Wickes & Quinn drug store in the Ferris block, but at present is operating a drug store of his own in Glastonbury. It will be remembered that he recently married Miss Marie Ferris, daughter of Edwin T. Ferris. Mr. Peterson is well and favorably known in this place and doubtless will do a satisfactory business.

HEATING AND PLUMBING

Louis J. Grezel of Pearl street has decided to embark in the plumbing and heating business and has opened a workshop at 30 Pearl street. Mr. Grezel is a practical workman and has had eight years' experience in Hartford. He is a licensed plumber. He has been employed on some of the largest heating and plumbing contracts in the city of Hartford in recent years and feels fully confident that he can meet the requirements of the trade in this place. He will be pleased to furnish estimates to any one in need of heating or plumbing work and will guarantee all of his work. He has a telephone installed in his shop yesterday, his number is 113-4.

An invitation has been received by Captain Philip Cheney, Company G, First Infantry, C. E. G., for the members of his company to visit the United States Military Department and Townsman which will be held at Albany, N. Y., during the week commencing October 25th.

Woman

WIDOWS OF PRESIDENTS

Homes of Mrs. Garfield, Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Harrison.

Features in this Column: The Lawson Snow Bride Iowa Girl's Arithmetic Wait For Wives In Cuba

Miss Dorothy Lawson, youngest daughter but one of Thomas W. Lawson of Boston, is to be the snow bride of the family. One of her sisters, Miss Marion, was the June bride when she was led to the altar, where she met James Fuller Lord of Chicago, who became her husband. The youngest bride was Miss Gladys, who was married to Eben Haines Stanwood in October, 1905. The engagement of Miss Dorothy was announced by her father at Dreamwood, the Lawson home.

The widows referred to are Mrs. James A. Garfield, Mrs. Grover Cleveland and Mrs. Benjamin Harrison. One was mistress of the White House when her husband was assassinated. Another was married in the White House. The third became the wife of an ex-president.

Pat Long after his retirement from public life, although she had been a member of the presidential family during the term of the president who later became her husband. She was a member of the family before he was president.

Mrs. Garfield is now living in Passaic, N. J. Her home before her marriage and after her husband's assassination was for several years at Mentor, O. She has been a widow twenty-seven years. Now, as when she was the "first lady," she is a homely body and fond of reading and sewing. One of her sons was a member of President Roosevelt's cabinet.

Mrs. Cleveland has a unique distinction. Having become mistress of the White House as a bride, she remained during the administration of her husband, retired with him for four years and then went back for four years more to the scenes of her early triumphs.

By reason of her beauty and gracious personality she was, with no disparagement to her predecessors or successors, the most popular of the many notable women who have adorned the White House. In her private life she was a wife and mother and later as the widow of an illustrious man Mrs. Cleveland has received the most respectful consideration that the country could bestow. The Cleveland home is at Princeton, N. J. Although Mrs. Cleveland and her children spend their summer in the New England home.

Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, second wife of the president who succeeded President Cleveland after the latter's death, was acting mistress of the White House a part of the time that Mr. Harrison was president. She was the niece of Mrs. Harrison, whose health required her to relinquish some of the duties of her position. These duties she discharged with tact and efficiency. Mrs. Harrison died in the White House in the last part of Mr. Harrison's term, and Mrs. Dimick assumed the functions of mistress until the end of the term. Four years after she was married in New York city to ex-President Harrison. They lived in the Harrison home in Indianapolis until the ex-president's death. Mrs. Harrison, with her young daughter, spends a part of her time in the Indianapolis home and a part at Toronto, N. Y., where she retains much of her beauty, and all who meet her are charmed by her marked gentility.

SALLIE RUREY

First Woman Probate Judge.

Mrs. Mary E. Cooper of Mitchell county, Kan., is probate judge of her county and is. It is believed, the first woman in this country to occupy such a position. The office was held by her husband, who died soon after his election. Governor Hoch (he was governor at the time) appointed the widow to succeed. Some of the best heads thought it was a bad precedent, and so it has proved for the men, but she has proven herself a Kansas citizen at any time in the history of the state.

Successful Lawyer-Farmer

Miss Grace Richardson of New Britain, is, with distinction at the bar in Cuba, several cases having been argued by her before the supreme court of that island. In health forced here by illness, she has returned to her home in New Britain, where she has a farm of 1,000 acres, which she operates with her husband.

THE UNVEILING

The statue of the Soldier Boy of Andoverville has taken its place among Hartford's patriotic monuments and ornaments. In the minds of all the comrades and citizens who saw it unveiled yesterday were loving and sorrowful thoughts of the noble giver. Such an assemblage without Colonel Frank Cheney in it brought home anew to us all the sense of our loss. As always on these occasions, the best eloquence of the spoken word failed before the silent eloquence of gray hair, army blue, and the copper button. It is well—terribly well—with every gallant American boy who died in battle, hospital, or prison, in those years so far away now, for his flag and his country.

"Himself, through the clarion calling To the van, called not in vain. Justice for us evermore, Justice after us before." And he who battles on his side, God, though he were ten times slain, Crown him victor glorified."—Conant, Saturday.

A. D. H. FAIR The big fair to be given by the Elbertians at the Army of the week of October 5th to 9th is the principal topic in the social field hereabouts at the present time. The event is being looked forward to with much interest by the young people of the town and their expectations for a week of rare enjoyments are sure to be realized. The arrangements are in the hands of capable and experienced purveyors of public amusement, and nothing will be left undone that will lead to the pleasure of their patrons. Details of the stage entertainment will appear in these columns next week.

CALL OF COMPANIONS.

Invitation to Public to Unite With Them in Merry Making at Cheesey Hall. Mary Lester Circle Companions of the Forest of America are hereby extending a cordial invitation to the public of South Manchester and vicinity to attend the dance which they are to give at Cheesey Hall Thursday evening, October 14th. The Forest Orchestra will furnish music and Prof. C. Foley will prompt. Tickets at 25 cents each will be placed on sale at once.

Under the by-laws each member of the Circle is required to pay for at least one ticket. Many will dispose of a goodly number to their friends, and all will be urged by the committee to do all they can to make the dance a financial success. Financially no less than socially. The following committee have the arrangements in charge: Mrs. Ellen Bockus, Miss Sadie Weir, Mrs. Rose Baumgartner, Miss Josephine Keating, Mrs. Ida Keating, Mrs. Florence Hildreth, Miss Gertrude Bockus, Miss Minnie Loveland, Miss Elizabeth Metcalf.

FOR COLUMBUS DAY. Knights of Columbus Planning for Big Parade. Cambled Council Knights of Columbus have decided to turn out in a body at the big parade of October 12. That date will mark the first official recognition of Columbus day by the state, inasmuch as the legislature has this year made it a legal holiday in the State of Connecticut. The Knights of Columbus are not slow in seeing the fitness of helping to celebrate the feast day of the man whose name the order is named, and to that end their members from all parts of the state will assemble on the famous green at the Yale campus and form in line for the big parade. Some distinctive apparel will be worn by each council of the Knights on this occasion, which promises to be one of the largest demonstrations ever held in Connecticut by the K. of C.

NO LICENSE RALLIES. The No-License Committee have engaged T. H. Raymond one of the leading business men of Cambridge, Mass., to address the people of Manchester on the subject of No-License next Sunday, September 26th. Mr. Raymond will speak at the North Methodist Church at 10:45; at the Center Park at 3 P. M. (if it rains, in the Town Hall) and at the Army of the week of Sunday evening at 7:45; at which R. N. Stanley of Highland Park will preside. The Salvation Army Band will hold their street meeting at 7 o'clock Sunday evening, at which E. L. G. Hohenberg will speak. At the conclusion of this meeting the band will march to the Army and furnish music for the no-license rally to be held there at 7:45.

Mr. Raymond conducts a real estate business in Cambridge, the largest one of its character in that city. He is treasurer of the Mass. No-License League, and was for years chairman and secretary of the Citizens No-License Committee of Cambridge. He is an eloquent speaker, and worthy of a good hearing.

RECEPTION TO NEW PASTOR. The members of the Swedish Congregational church will give a reception tomorrow evening to their new pastor, Rev. Thore E. Norberg. A musical and social program will be presented, refreshments served, and all present will be introduced to the new pastor. Rev. Mr. Norberg halls from Hawthorne, N. J.

OPENING DAY TOMORROW. The Milton Tailoring Company of 83 Main street, Hartford, give notice in our advertising columns today that tomorrow will be opening day with them and they extend a cordial invitation to all readers of The News to call and see them.

WILL GIVE PRIZE WALTZ. The Military Band of Manchester wish to make known to the public through the columns of The News that they intend to give their annual prize waltz this season the same as for the past several years, simple notice of which will be made in these columns.

OBITUARY.

Carl Albert, the one-year old son of Charles and Mrs. Krull of 12 West street died last Friday after an illness of two weeks and was buried Sunday afternoon in the East cemetery. Funeral services were conducted at the residence by Rev. Otto Rattberg, pastor of the German Lutheran Concordia church. A goodly number of friends and neighbors assembled at the funeral to console the grief-stricken parents, who are sorely distressed because of the unexpected taking away of their only son. The illness followed with cholera morbus and was followed by epical trouble and congestion of the brain. Mr. and Mrs. Krull have four daughters, the oldest being 11 years.

Mrs. Lina Danielson of Eldridge street died of consumption at the Hartford hospital Tuesday morning after an illness of three weeks. She was 61 years old and died yesterday afternoon, the body being brought from the hospital to the East cemetery by Undertaker Ernest Mosen of Hartford. Rev. Manning B. Bennett, pastor of the St. Marys Episcopal church, officiated at the graves. Mrs. Danielson was a native of the North of Ireland, was 30 years old, was known as Miss Esther Little, daughter of James and Jennie Little, and lived in this community for a goodly number of years. She is survived by a husband and two daughters, the Misses Olivia and Clara. The younger, Miss Clara, is about 14 years. Mrs. Danielson had been at the Hartford hospital since May 28th.

Mrs. James Hasset of Birch street died of a complication of diseases early last week. Her funeral took place Tuesday morning, a requiem high mass for the repose of her soul being sung in the St. James church. Burial was at the St. James cemetery. Mrs. Hasset was a native of County Kerry, Ireland, was 90 years old and resided in this place for a third of a century. She was well and favorably known. She leaves a husband and five children, as follows: Thomas, James and Nellie Hasset, and Mrs. James Leane and Edward Wagner.

James Bartlett James Bartlett of 23 Walnut street died suddenly Wednesday afternoon at the advanced age of 83 years. He was calm, peaceful and free from suffering. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. Services will be held at the residence at 2 o'clock, Rev. Manning B. Bennett, pastor of the St. Marys Episcopal church, officiating. Burial will be at the East cemetery. He leaves one son, Beethoven J. Bartlett of Pine street, and two daughters, Mrs. William Aspinall, with whom he lived and Mrs. Annie Russell.

PUBLIC HEARING. A public hearing is being held this afternoon by the selectmen upon the question of whether the saloons of this town shall be closed at 10 o'clock each evening on and after October first, in compliance with the new law passed by the present legislature, or whether permission shall be granted by the selectmen to keep the saloons open until 11 o'clock at night, as at present. It is understood that the saloon keepers will have an attorney to plead their case. The No-License committee will strenuously oppose the extension of time, interesting discussions are expected.

DOES IT PAY? Does it pay to license a traffic which jogs the demand for the helpful things of life, which increases their cost and diminishes the ability to pay for them? Does it pay to license a traffic which makes men less skillful, less steady, less reliable; which lessens endurance, lessens self respect, and the respect of others; lessens confidence, lessens credit, lessens the demand for food, clothing, shelter and tools with which to work? Does it pay to license a traffic which breeds idlers, paupers, criminals, lunatics and epileptics and casts them upon society to be supported by decent, honest, industrious people? Does it pay to license a traffic which increases taxes, necessitates a costly police and criminal contest? Does it pay to support the families of saloon keepers and bar tenders and pay their rent, taxes and insurance, and buy luxuries for them in order to get a few pennies of revenue and license fees of many dollars which they slick from the "pockets of industry"?—Advt.

THIS IS INTERESTING. The Boston Tailoring House whose place of business is located in the Russell block on Main street near the postoffice, will be open tomorrow. The columns of The News that they are prepared to do at short notice and in an satisfactory manner dyeing, cleaning, pressing and repairing. They hereby cordially invite all readers of The News to call upon them and give them a trial when in need of any service of the kind indicated above.

THE TURTLE'S HEAD. Chopped Off, It Retains Life for a Number of Hours. On the counter, in a porcelain dish, stood the severed head of a large turtle. "That is rather gruesome," said a man who was buying oysters. The oyster opener glanced at the head carelessly. "It is a bet," said he. "I bet Gus Schmidt that the head would keep alive twenty-four hours. It's nearly twenty-five now since I chopped it off. Gus is late. But I win anyhow." "Where's my money? Pay me my money!" a deep voice shouted at this moment, and a short man swaggered in.

A CAREFUL MAN.

When It Came to Money He Had to Put on the Brakes. The passengers in an accommodation train which was "winding" its way through New Hampshire were interested and amused by an elderly couple who sat in the middle of the car. They talked as if there were no one else in the car. Therefore, having heard most of their private plans, no one was surprised to have the old man take the assembled company fully into his confidence. At one station he rose and addressed the passengers in general.

"Can anybody change a five dollar bill for two tens and a one or five ones?" he inquired. "I can," said a brisk woman, and the traveler was quickly made. "Where could anybody change this one dollar bill for four quarters or tens and fives?" asked the old man. "I can give you two fifties," said a man from the rear seat. "Unless somebody else can do better."

"It appeared that nobody could or at least nobody offered, so as the train drew into the next station the old man turned to the possessor of the two fifty cent 'Thank you," he said as he took the bill. "I'm obliged, though I'd have liked the quarters best. You see, Martha has set her mind to stop off at 'Nashy' whilst I go on up to my brother's with the eggs and truck. And, though she don't plan nor mean to be a spendthrift woman, when she's let run amongst a lot of stores she'll run through 50 cents in an hour easy, and I kind of have to put a curb on her."—Youth's Companion.

Greely Dodged Lincoln. President Lincoln, having been often and severely arraigned in the New York Tribune for what Mr. Greeley considered his slowness in prosecuting the war, had said: "If he (Greeley) objects to my policy, I shall be glad to let him state to me his views frankly and fully. I shall adopt the best I can. If I cannot, I will let least tell him why. He and I should stand together."

"If I were to go," said Greeley when the words were repeated to him, "he would simply twist me around his fingers, and he always does." "Lincoln's smile would writhe me in half a minute," he said on another occasion when again urged to see the president and have a talk with him. "He is a wonderful man—wonderful! I never can harbor a thought against him except when I keep away from him."

The Experienced Swine. The crowd around the postoffice stove, after examining the possibilities of politics, local and national, had been discussing the alleged lack of the truth telling instinct in Old Man Simpson. Uncle Ezra came in, and Jim Peters said: "What do you think about it, Uncle Ezra—would you call Old Man Simpson a liar?" "Well," answered Uncle Ezra slowly as he thoughtfully studied the ceiling. "I wouldn't go so far as to call the old man a liar, but I know it to be a fact that when feedin' time comes to get any response he has to have somebody else call his hog fur him."—Woman's Home Companion.

Purely Professional. "You say he's a professional man?" "Yes, sir, he is. Cyrene hangs out a sign 'Back in an Hour and a Half' there the year through."—Washington Star.

A 3-PIECE PARLOR SUITE

makes a small room attractive. There is nothing stiff or conventional about the 3-piece suite. The comfortable chair and rocker and the inviting tete-a-tete have no resemblance to the old hard-backed black walnut and hair cloth affairs. The "loose cushion style" makes an especially attractive suite. People who like to look at good furniture will be interested in our show windows this week.

Our present stock includes 3-piece suites at $19.50, $39., $45., $49., $55. $60. and $65.

CONQUERING HEROES WADELL-RUDDELL

The Center Flute Band gave a parade about town last Saturday evening and proudly bore the beautiful sash and gold banner which they won in the recent contest at Thompsonville. The banner is suitably inscribed in gold including the contest and the name of The Center Flute Band is flanked thereon marking them as the conquering heroes and victors of the occasion. They were given a reception at Orange hall after the parade including a collection. They were the guests of Washington Lyral Orange Lodge. A beautiful sash was served and beautifully adorned. When the fragrance of the Hawthornes filled the banquet hall Joseph Little acting as toastmaster called upon and R. Cheney and the Misses Annie W. and Louise Cheney. There are four dwellings in all as Edward Cadman owned two houses. Benjamin and Edward Cadman have leased their house and will continue to reside there for the present. John Cadman has recently moved to Hartford.

Work of macadamizing Oakland street is going on and will soon be completed.

ORDER OF OWLS

Preliminary Meeting Held Here Wednesday Evening. Charter Open. A preliminary meeting was held in Foresters Hall Wednesday evening, having for its purpose the organizing in this place of a Nest of Owls. The preliminary officers chosen at a preliminary meeting held on October 1st last Wednesday. Attorney Samuel C. Kone and Organizer Harry W. Jones and his brother George Jones all of Hartford were present and gave necessary instruction regarding the Order of Owls in detail. Vocal and instrumental music was furnished by George Wright of Hartford and a very pleasant social session on end. Another preliminary meeting will be held in Foresters Hall Wednesday evening, October 13th. It is expected that a Nest of Owls will be formally instituted in this place Wednesday evening, October 27th. It is quite likely that when the formal institution of the local Nest takes place the charter will be closed and persons desiring to then enter will have to pay $10.75 initiation fee instead of $5.75 as at present while the charter is open. It will therefore be seen that persons having any intention of joining the Order of Owls at this time will be wise. If they get in out of the way now. There is money in it. If you are a Wise Owl come reader you do not need any more suggestions along that line.

NEW SUITS

THE NICEST LINE WE'VE EVER SHOWN. To attempt to describe them would require more skill in that direction than we can command—THEY ARE THE CREAM OF FASHION AND WORKMANSHIP. Every garment was personally selected by us from hundreds of other styles which we deemed not so good. The personal interest in our business combined with economy in expense enables you to buy here suits of matchless styles and quality for at least 40% LESS than you would have to pay elsewhere. Come and see the NEW STYLE. COMPARE PRICES AND QUALITY.

NEW INFANTS' WEAR

THE BEST IN THE LAND. We show this Fall the nicest line of Infant's Coats, Dresses and Caps made, even though our prices may be considerably lower than large expense stores have to charge for them. SPECIAL DISPLAY THIS WEEK.

Old Dutch Coffee

Have you tried our Old Dutch Coffee? It is the Best Coffee Ever Sold in the Town of Manchester for 20c a Pound. It takes the place of the regular 35c Coffee on your table.

This coffee has been sold for the last 30 years under the trade mark of the "Old Dutch Coffee." We have the sole agency for the sale of Old Dutch Coffee in this town.

We took the agency for Old Dutch Coffee some time ago and are surprised ourselves at the amount of the product we have disposed of. It seems to meet the popular fancy, to suit in point of taste and quality and flavor as well as in price. It satisfies in all these important particulars. Could you ask for more? Those who have tried it are delighted with it. May we add you, gentle reader, to our already large list of satisfied patrons in the use of Old Dutch Coffee? If so the pleasure and profit will be largely yours.
