Joseph had the brain of the true military tactician and again and again freed his followers from tight places and governmental strategies that would have overwhelmed any other tribe. Joseph's martial skill won praise from no less a soldier than

General Sheridan himself. Sheridan wrote of that famous campaign that it was "one of the most extraordinary Indian wars of which there is any record. The Indiana throughout displayed a courage and skill that elicited universal praise." General Gibbon was the first United States leader to feel the force of this "almost scientific skill." Richard J. Wall, son of Dennis S. and Mrs. Wall of Cottage street, died from complication of diseases early Wedneeday morning. The funeral took place this morning, a requiem high mass for the repose of his soul being sung at the St. James church. The body was interred in the vault at the St. James

Richard Wall wava native of South Manchester, was nearly 20 years old and was the second in a family of five; two boys and three girls, as follows: Robert, who is 21; Evs. 14; Alice, 12; Agnes 7. The young man was a member of the local division of Hibernians, and the organization turned out in a body at the funeral.

He learned the blacksmith trade at the forge of his father, and under his fatner's tuition, and was an excellent m-chanic. He had been ailing for the past five months, and was unable to work during that period. Notwithstanding the fact of his protracted illness, the end came suddenly, and was brought about by heart weak less, toretaer with other troubles.

Out With The Goods.

That's the order throughout this store. Result: The Best Bargains of the Season. This being our first season, we're going to begin right by making a "Clean Sweep" and allowing no undue accumulation of merchandise. And so we make it an object for people to buy the following goods now. It will pay you to buy them for next season. The prices are small. The savings are big. The goods are new and first-class.
