A. G. H. BALL

Merry Event to Take Place at Cheney Hall Next Thursday Evening.

The local division of the Hibernians will give their thirty-third annual ball at Cheney hall next Thursday evening, March 17th, St. Patrick's Day. Hanna's orchestra of seven pieces will furnish music for the concert and dancing. Prof. C. Foley will direct the dancing. As this is the regular Mid-East festival of the Hibernians and as most of our young people have been observing the dance boycott since last began, it is quite within the probability that a large and joyous gathering will assemble at Cheney hall next Thursday evening to help the Hibernians celebrate the feast day of Ireland's patron saint. The color scheme will be of Emerald green, with a satisfactory admixture of the Red, White and Blue of our dear old Stars and Stripes. The stage will be suitably decorated with the bunnies of the Emerald Isle and the flag of the United States of America. The night will be spent in the jolly tunes of Ireland and the spirit of patriotism will blend with the warmth of Irish good cheer which will permeate the gathering. The occasion bids fair to be a jolly one indeed.

Cash admitting gentlemen with lady seats fifty cents each; and those admitting lady without seats are twenty-five cents each. The following music will be rendered for the concert and dances:

- CONCERT
- Star Spangled Banner
 - Irish Airs
 - Chorus

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TO-NIGHT.

Alhambra and G Teams To Settle Superiority at the Armory.

What promises to be the biggest thing in back ball circles has ever been pulled off in this town will take place at the Armory tonight when the Alhambra team of Hartford and the G team of this place will battle for the amateur championship of Connecticut. Each team has won two victories and tonight's game will be the rubber. Both teams are well matched and if you have any basket ball blood in your veins you won't miss this game. It will also be the last game on the local surface this season. Man-gers Nestor and Curry met in Hartford Tuesday and the following articles of agreement were signed governing tonight's game.

Herford March 13, 1910. Be it known that the undersigned, as agents of the Alhambra and G back ball teams, have arranged for a game of basketball between said teams to be played at the Willis Street Armory, Manchester, Conn., on the evening of March 18, 1910, under the following rules and conditions:

The lineup, including substitutes, for the G team shall be as follows: Horan, Olin, captain, Scofield, Martin, Curry, Smythe, Ferris and Carroll. The referee's call shall be Dick Dillon and his decisions shall be final.

The winning team shall receive 60 per cent of the net receipts of the losing team taking 40 per cent of the net receipts. No spectators shall be allowed to stand or sit inside of the playing lines during the game.

The team breaking any of the above conditions shall forfeit the game to its opponents.

T. C. Nestor, Manager of Alhambra team. John J. Curry, Manager of G team. Witness: W. D. Freer.

W. C. TUCKER SOLD OUT. William C. Tucker sold his interest in the Orford Hotel to the late Michael J. Moriarty, formerly of Manchester, but lately of Hartford and Mr. Moriarty is now in possession of the hotel. For some time past Mr. Moriarty has been negotiating for the sale of his interest in the hotel, and some few weeks ago was of the opinion that he had practically sold out. Complications of a kind of a nature, however, which kept out of all chance of making the transfer at that time.

Mr. Tucker has recently secured a renewal of the five years lease of the hotel from the Fenwick estate, by which the property is owned. This is one of the valuable assets of the purchase. The liquor license for the hotel will have to be transferred to Mr. Moriarty. This is another of the valuable assets of the purchase.

For a number of years Mr. Moriarty was employed with the J. T. Robertson company over in N. H. in the manufacture of coal and, etc. About two years ago he left their employ and subsequently bought a saloon on Market street. He rented his home on Market street, Manchester, to two tenants who now occupy it, and he himself moved to Hartford, where he still lives. He recently sold his interest in the Market street saloon, Hartford, and now is about to go higher up in the business. Mr. Moriarty has had no hotel experience and certainly has an ambitious outlook on his hands. He has an excellent staff at hand, with a well established business, and he is well known in this community. He goes on the theory, "Nothing ventured, nothing won."

SOUTH METHODIST CHURCH. Mrs. Maytie Case (Crowell), the organist at a director at the South Methodist church has arranged a musical program for the 8 o'clock evening service on the Lenten season. The doors will be opened at 7:15 and the service will begin at 7:30. The work is being by a chorus of fifty voices with soloists, Miss M. M. O'Brien and C. J. Barry, which is a very beautiful musical setting of the scenes which mark the last few days of the Saviour's life on earth. Mrs. Anna L. Kibler Mason and Mrs. Fredrick Hastings of Boston and Mrs. Florence C. Oby Cooke and Mrs. Carolyn N. G. of Hartford will assist in the rendition of the music. These soloists are well and popularly known here and are assured of a crowded audience. The public of this community are coming to learn the value of the rare music which is made of the coming of these talented artists. Mrs. Crowell is conferring a distinct favor on the public of this community in bringing this musical feast within their reach.

CARLOAD OF HORSES HERE.

Richard Taylor returned from Indiana last Friday where he had been purchasing a carload of horses. These reached here Monday night. There were eighteen of them. Robert Watts was their keeper on the way. Taylor's Green horse farm has been headquarters for horsemen since the consignment arrived. As a matter of fact horsemen were besieging the farm for several days prior to the arrival of the horses, eager to ascertain when the animals would be here.

Notwithstanding the fact that the auto is doing so much work that here and there was a pair of horses, and that the tractor engine is also being used, the arrival of the horses, eager to ascertain when the animals would be here.

FAST DAY PROCLAMATION

STATE OF CONNECTICUT

By His Excellency, Frank B. Weeks
Governor

In accordance with the custom of generations, I hereby appoint Friday, the twenty-fifth day of March next, as a day of fasting and prayer, and I recommend that the people of this state on that day, lay aside the common employment, and in the homes and places of public worship confess their sins, there entreating Almighty God His forgiveness, that His favor may be continued and faith in His merciful guidance may be preserved.

Given under my hand and the seal of the state, this fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ten, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-fourth.

Frank B. Weeks
By His Excellency's command:
Matthew H. Rogers, Secretary.

SOME OBSERVATIONS

ARTICLE 29—THE REMEDY

In a word in spite of the court's home of Article 15. The town courts should have the criminal jurisdiction of justice and police courts and police courts of the present criminal Court of Common Pleas, and exclusive jurisdiction to $500. Just as now the State takes up criminal cases on its behalf upon request of poor or any suitors take up tort and even contract cases were, otherwise, rights would be violated. Many a man is bitterly oppressed, only, however, in a contract way, because without funds to protect himself. Such a one should be able to go to the courts, tell his story and have a state lawyer appointed to take charge and see that each party suffer nothing. The protection of rights is the very life blood of democracy and so jealous of rights will real democracies become that they will protect their citizens even against civil wrong as a matter of self preservation. This was a part of the philosophy of Herbert Spencer. Fraud ought to be punishable by fine and imprisonment, so we could reach the case known to every lawyer of men deliberately swindling women and children and those financially and otherwise unable to protect themselves after the fraud.

We are come now at last to the luxury of constructive statesmanship. The statesman must advocate the possible and practical and first things nearest. The first thing is to get the people into the middle, to restore them to the sovereignty, that everything will follow of necessity. Right here we are confronted with the organized plunder band, the cohesive power of public plunder, the system, the best and the jungle. Its special privilege of manufacture, landlords, earthies, public service corporations, a highly organized flying wedge against disorganized, individual and scatter firing farmers, laboring men, clerks, professional men and reformers. In the beginning it evidently must be a catch as catch can contest. Every year men are disclosing themselves, are showing up and proving themselves true patriots, and it is fairly up to the people to take up these men and put them to the front, and when enough of them have been so far forward they will turn about and put the people in the saddle by giving them a mission by petition, recall, the initiative and referendum, preferential voting, etc. These things are stirring, pumail, mane and tail, or points of attachment by which the dear people once in the saddle, can keep themselves there. Of course, if the people insist upon tumbling off all the time and forever like a bag of wool, then there is nothing for it but to let special privileges have their way, and destroy our country as it has its predecessor back to the dawn of history. In the light of present day science, history and religion, we ought to do better than that.

Let Germans top off the political heads of German office holders who, in legislative halls or other where, betray them and democracy; let Irishmen, Yankees, Hebrews and Italians treat similarly their respective countrymen gone wrong. Let neither race nor religion save the men who are lowering morals and raising vice; let the foreign born and their children banish race and religion from the ballot box and take their stand on moral and intellectual fitness alone.

Hughes proved himself in insurance. Folk with no idea, Halley with Standard Oil, Pinchot with resource conservation, Landis with Standard Oil, Lineley with the Bear. Others are Henry D. Barry, Sprickles, Major Gayner, Tom Johnson, Garvin, Judge Maguire, Whitlock, L. Follett, Harman, Cummings, Stubbis of Kansas, Everett Colby Fagan, Gardner, Fowler, our Woodruff, Judge Baldwin, Dean Rogers, Senator Stiles Jackson, Mr. Chandler of Rocky Hill, the last two months withstanding the tail and first way they go at the U. S. matter (see Article 11), and hundreds and thousands of others. The people have picked up most of them and made Hughes, for instance, Governor, and Hughes has turned about and is trying to secure for the people the direct primary, May-wampy, insurgency, independence, scratching, civic associations, good government clubs, any and every way in this preliminary battle with the enemy.

If only we could enlist the American Federation of Labor and the Trainers and Farmers Alliance, the preliminary engagement would be won.

TOWN'S FUNDS

Importance and Necessity of Safeguarding Against Dishonest Officials

At the recent meeting of the Board of Selectmen in this place Chairman Charles R. Cheney called the attention of the board to the great importance of safeguarding town funds, and emphasized the necessity of registration and certification of town loans and bonds in order to ensure a greater degree of safety to persons who advanced funds for town use and also as a check upon the opportunities now existing of looting town treasuries. In this relation Chairman Cheney read the following clipping from a Boston, Mass. newspaper:

"With town and bank stealings approaching $2,000,000 uncovered within her borders in six months, Massachusetts, in common with other Eastern states, is beginning to sit up and wonder whether her boasted safeguards around the people's money are straw or steel. Signs indicate, however, that the forging of stronger legal padlocks for banks and public treasuries is likely to be one result of this newly awakened interest.

"Coming as it did hard on the heels of the $25,000 looting of the Southbridge Savings Bank, the discovery of the alleged embezzlement of $100,000 or more from the National City Bank of Cambridge by a five-week book-keeper has tended to intensify an already strong demand for the creation of conditions that shall make a repetition of these unhappy affairs impossible! This demand seems likely to be made articulate at the present session of the State Legislature.

"The suspension of National Bank Examiner Pepper, who examined the accounts of Cambridge bank only last December, has led to a suspicion that perhaps the government's system of examination may not be altogether infallible.

"Annual or semi-annual examinations by some outside accountant, besides the usual state probe, having employees from having personal accounts in their own institutions, registration and certification of town loans, and higher bonds for tax collectors and town treasurers are among remedies suggested. Cambridge, Framingham, Southbridge, Wrentham and Beverly are the places that recently in this state have felt most severely the dishonesty of bank and town officials.

Joseph C. Benson of 12 Summer street and Margaret Fulton of No. 1 Charter Oak place are to be married next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride, who resides with Samuel and Mrs. Fival. Rev. Maning B. Bennett will perform the ceremony. Invitations to the wedding have been issued this week.

MORE MOVING PICTURES

EXPECTED THAT HOUSE AND HALL TEMPORARY STORES ON OAK STREET WILL BE LEASED FOR THIS PURPOSE.

R. F. Branick and Joseph Cushing of this place to see what the managers of the temporary store for this purpose. There are a number of details relative to complying with the insurance regulations and with the orders laid down by the State Police for the management of moving picture houses that have to be arranged before the lease can be perfected. It is thought that these details will be adjusted today and that the lease will be closed.

The two stores taken jointly have a floor surface of seventy feet fronting on Oak street and extending one hundred and ten feet south. The partitions will be removed and this made into one large room of 100x135 feet in the clear. Owing to the construction of the building it would not be practical to have a raised floor in the new moving picture house. The floor will be under the regulations made by the State Police it becomes necessary to have an asbestos cloth or enclosure for the moving picture machine. There is also an extinguisher required to be attached to the front of the machine which operates automatically and in case of the film catching fire drops down in front covering the machine in such a manner as to extinguish the flames thereby making it absolutely safe for the operator. It is public for the owners of the building for the managers of the building to take care of the necessary arrangements for the absolute safety of the public.

Their purpose is to operate a moving picture and illustrated show entertainment at the present time with out vaudeville. They intend to charge ten cents. They plan to have performances nightly and to give them at least one week for the present. Should circumstances warrant any change in these plans they will be made as the managers desire to give the public whatever they are willing to pay for in that line.

Besides putting in an ornamental entrance and constructing a stage the building will have to be ceiling and side walls put in order to add to the appearance of the building. The ceiling and side walls will be painted white. Messrs. Branick and Cushing are endeavoring to secure George M. Barber the contractor, to do the work and if he can do it they will try to have it started next week. They are eager to get the thing going as early as possible.

Messrs. Branick & Cushing are the present owners of "The Public Market" on East Cedar street, have been in business here for some time, are well known and deservedly popular.

CLOSE CALL FOR LIFE

While at work in a garage on West 50th street, New York City some two weeks ago, Alexander Robb came near losing his life by jumping from the fire of the building because of a fire which was raging below, driving all the occupants to such places as safely as circumstances offered. Mr. Robb was employed on the fifth floor at the time of the fire and as there were no means of escape by going below he leaped from the window of the fifth story and caught on an iron shutter on the floor below. He held there as long as he could expecting relief from the firemen but the flames advanced so rapidly that it became necessary for him to drop a distance of between fifty and sixty feet. It so chanced that when he fell there was a concrete well, twelve or fourteen feet below the surface of the court and into this he crashed breaking his right leg and bruising his body generally. He lay there unconscious and would have died but that some person chanced to see him fall and came to the rescue. A rope was fastened around his body and he was brought forth and taken to the St. Vincent's hospital on 60th Street. A fireman, under all the conditions to escape with his life. He is a married man having a wife and two children.

Two Forest Fire Warden John S. Riley has an important notice in his advertising columns today directing attention to the statutes relating to the kindling of woodland and brush fires and putting on the fire penalties attached thereto. Persons having occasion to start such fires may obtain the necessary legal permission for same from either Mr. Riley or any of his deputies whose names appear in the list. Violation of the law in this particular will be found on reading the legal notice is punishable by a fine of not more than $500, or an imprisonment of six months or both. It will therefore be seen that this is a very important matter and one which requires the careful attention of all persons concerned. It will not do to pass this warning over lightly and, forgetting all about it, go on as heretofore and start forest fires that may bring costly results and destroy much valuable property. It is the purpose of State Forest Fire Warden Samuel N. Spring to avert recurrences of these small forest fires in so far as possible. People generally are called upon to give the closest attention and to comply with the law in this respect.

AT THEM AGAIN.

Attorney John R. Foley of Summer street has brought suit against the Connecticut Company in behalf of Annie Lobman, who claims that $100 in damages for injuries sustained by the accident. For a long time Mrs. Lobman was unable to care for herself owing to this accident and during this period her daughter ministered to her wants.

Attorney Foley seems to be making a specialty of cases against the Connecticut Company. He is only in his teens as a budding young lawyer but this is his second bill to be taken out of the great public service corporation already.

Easter will be here shortly. Don't lose sight of the splendid values in stylish wearing apparel for men, women and child to be had at Wise, Smith & Co.'s, Hartford.—121

NO OLD TIME BASEBALL HOPE

The Connecticut Baseball Association, of which Mayor Daniel Dunn of Wilbur is president, is making no effort to revive old time inter-city baseball by uniting the forces in Wilbur, Rockville, Manchester and Bristol. It is understood that Rockville is to be the league. There doesn't appear to be any likelihood of Manchester taking part in a baseball league this year. The days when Mayor Dunn used to come down at the head of his forces from Wilbur and cheer his boys on in the contest with the scruffy Manchester boys have passed. Local interest has subsided and there doesn't seem to be any disposition in this place to renew the contest. It is a matter of history that when the Manchester boys played at Wilbur they were a very unimpressive body by a large and enthusiastic body of supporters from this place. It has also been observed that when the Wilbur boys played the Manchester boys were the very best of the city and the game was particularly small. Manchester people however, love a vicious and well balanced game of baseball never mind who the contestants might be and always turn out in force to witness the sport. The game in which the attendance was reciprocated were those between Manchester and Rockville. Rockville people were always willing to back up and encourage their team by attending the games and giving their players every possible aid and encouragement. Whenever there was a contest here with the Manchester boys, the game of baseball was very well attended and the game was particularly small. Quaker RANGES

CONNECTICUT FAIRLY GOOD

Arthur Mercer the contractor and builder on Huntington street returned last week from a trip to Saratoga. He found snow piled up seven feet high in the streets of Saratoga when he left. Arriving at Albany, N. Y. he found two feet of snow and ice being removed from the streets of that city. Intelligence received from Buffalo, N. Y. brings the information that during the winter there had more than seven feet of snow in that city. It will therefore be seen by these presents that other people had some winter weather to contend with as well as ourselves. We are naturally prone to find fault with weather conditions in good Connecticut, but we do not have to travel very far in a northerly direction to find climatic occurrences compared with which ours may be looked upon as very mild disturbances indeed. With all its fine old Connecticut it is loved still.

Galber E. Willis of East Center street has built a garage some 10x20 feet at the rear of his residence. Mr. Willis does the heavy trucking for Ouse Brothers Highland Park paper mill and finds an auto a very useful vehicle in his business as he has to do much driving about town.

Home Course In Domestic Science

IX.—Attractive Table Arrangements.

By EDITH G. CHARLTON, In Charge of Domestic Economy, Iowa State College.

Copyright 1910, by American Press Association.

NEXT in importance to the proper cooking of food is the way it is served and the order in which the table is laid. The attractive appearance of well cooked food appeals strongly to the appetite and prepares the digestive organs for their work. Probably every person has experienced the feeling of being suddenly hungry when some especially attractive viand has been displayed before him. Equally true is it that almost every one has known hunger to vanish at sight of a table laid with solid lines and colors and food carefully arranged on serving dishes. The homely hash has no magnetic effect and generally fails to inspire memories of unforgettable meals, yet I have known a paltry dinner to win a success as great as has ever been bestowed on a porter house steak. True, the hash was served piping hot on a pretty pattern. It was served on a silver-plated table with polished edge and garnished with sprigs of parsley. Its flavor, too, was just as pleasing and tempting as its appearance. It may take a moment or two longer to garnish the dish of meat or vegetables, but it certainly pays for the trouble. Rather than neglect it I would suggest committing one or two dishes from the menu. Referring to menus brings to mind the fact that in some homes, those in the country especially, there is a tendency to serve too many foods of the same kind at the same meal.

For instance, I have many times seen three kinds of cooked fruit, three or four kinds of vegetables and at least two kinds of pickles or desserts served at an ordinary dinner. This means unnecessary work, unnecessary expense and so much time spent in preparation that very likely there was none left for dining. A knowledge of food and food values should teach the housekeeper that one food of each of the above mentioned kinds is sufficient at one time for any family. In many homes, too, it is the custom to put all the food on the table at once and have the various dishes pass

Setting the Table.

The keynote of good taste is simplicity, and nowhere is it displayed to better advantage than in laying a table for a meal, be it an everyday family dinner or a party of special guests. It is not my intention to outline a set of rules for the hostess who plans to entertain on an elaborate scale, but I will give a few hints which will be of service to all women who preside over homes where the training of young people in charge will see to it that no pretensions are permitted in the manner of setting the table. The first is more extensive, or long, as preferred, is to be first covered with a silken cloth, a pad of absorbent cloth or double faced cotton flannel. The first is more extensive, but is better because of its protection to the table and because it is easier to remove and change than the other. OPENING OF BIG STORES

HALE'S AND HOUSE'S HAD NIGHT OF WAY LAST MONDAY EVENING

Manchester Never Before Seen Such An Outpouring of Humanity To Witness Opening of Stores in This Town

The big merchandising event here this week was the grand opening last Monday evening of the large new stores of J. W. Hale & Co. and C. E. House & Son.

Hunter's orchestra furnished music in Hale's store and the Porters' orchestra in House's. The stores were brightly illuminated and everything was in order.

Great numbers of souvenirs were distributed free, variations being a feature of the occasion to Hale's and House's.

Large display windows of both stores were attractively decorated.

Hale's store has now assumed the proportions of a city department store.

Many of the lines of goods are totally under-price glass.

The lighting of the store is a great feature and it is practically as well illuminated by night as by day.

A special department of toilet preparations is one of the many new and attractive features of the big store.

Mosaic entrances have been placed at both stores, with the names of the firms inscribed in same.

Some of the striking features of the new store of C. E. House & Son are 50 feet of plate glass windows on the south side of main entrance.
