AST year saw Lincoln's triumph. O'er his tomb The century plant of fame burst into bloom, And all the earth was filled with its perfume.

T was most meet that in that selfsame year The skies above his land should wholly clear And the last clouds of section disappear.

FOR that was his own dream. He sought to write But one word---"Union." On the future's height It now is written in eternal light.

ATHATEVER stress of madness or of crime Shall rack the world, that covenant sublime Is now secure through all the storms of time.

A ND one who sits today in Lincoln's seat Has made the bonds of union more complete, Has made the name of union yet more sweet.

THE new time over all the land is born; Over the cotton's snow and silken corn The north and south clasp hands and face the morn.

O'ER blue and gray strewflowers with love's perfume And for a wreath to strew on Lincoln's tomb Weave the word "Union" out of fragrant bloom.

NOW grandpa tells a story to the child upon his About the great big war that helped to make the And while she dreams of future days (they'll come so soon, so fast!) The veteran of '61 is dreaming of the past.

You who have had to clear the table before you could write-You would have hadyour papers, bills and correspondence scattered over your home -You who really need a writing desk-Know of the Cadillac Desk-Table-a handsome table and riting desk combined.

You can use the Cadillac Desk-Table just as you use an ordinary table—for your books, your work-for a lamp or drop light.

And when you want to write all you need to do is to pull out the desk as you pull out a drawer -without disturbing the things on the table in

Then you have a desk-solid, unshakablefor the desk is braced--and untipable--for the table is counter-balanced.
