Historical Study In Hairdressing--An Interesting Exhibition of Fashions in Hairdressing

The manner in which women have dressed their hair in many countries and periods from the time of the ancient Greeks and Romans down to the present day is shown in an interesting and instructive exhibition in one of our show windows this week. The importance which the coiffure holds in present fashions makes, this an event of timely interest which appeals forcibly to all women, and all should make it a point to see this exhibition. (Cloak Floor.) WISE, SMITH & CO. SPECIAL HAIR GOODS OFFERINGS DURING THE EXHIBITION

A farm paper raises the interesting query, "Can a farmer raise mules and his church membership?" depends on what church he belongs to. It is easy if he is an Episcopalian, but if he is a hard shell Baptist it is a little doubtful. We had a Methodist neighbor who tickled the curriculum of a mule in a moment of playfulness and had both of his eyeteeth riveted to his collar button in reward, and when he came to the next day he rose to his feet, repeated the third chapter of Nebuchadnezzar backward, then swore a streak which blistered the lining out of a new steel range.
