I glanced back, screamed and feli into the water face downward. What would have happened badn't a party of circus people come up just then I do not know. The tatooed man pulled me out by the heels and laid me on the grass, under the very trunk of the patient old elephant-the cause of my fright-who stood calmly by, blinking his astonishment at all the excitement. My nose was scratched and scraped by pebbles. My hair was soaked and filled with sand. Oh, I knew without looking at myself that I was a ludicrous sight! Of The Manufacturers Sample Shoe Co.

The Fourth of July will find us right in the midst of our efforts to give the public the best bargains in footwear they have been privileged to secure since the advance in price of everything has made men wonderin the study of economics-if it would not be well to return to the customs of the good old barefoot days. You wont have to consider that now for we have solved the question of low prices, and Monday is the Fourth. New shoes will make that youngster feel independent. In coming to Hartford don't forget the place, Only Two Doors West of the Trolley Housekeepers who know the value of Old Fashoned Tinware will be pleased to learn hereby that we are now conducting a special sale of these very useful and serviceable kitchen utensils. We have a window full of them on display. Step in and look at them carefully. Then step inside and handle the tinware. You will see at once how good it is. No argument will be necessary to convince you of its worth. You only need to see and handle the utensils to be satisfied that they are the best you ever saw. They will not rust. They are indeed old fashioned. They are the kind that mother used and they are all right in every way. Besides the prices are very modest. Come in.

My advice to Americans, young and old, is to be patriotic all the time. Yell for your country and think of George Washington every time a firecracker goes off. Invite your friends to share with you in moderation whatever you have and, without being boisterous, remind every foreigner you see that America can lick his country, whichever it is. This drives the foreigners to naturalization, which is only right. and it keeps the sacred flame of patriotism alive. As a matter of fact, this is the only country on earth, for if China is bigger it makes no difference. It takes all the good in a hundred Chinamen to make a bad American, anyhow, and, besides, they don't know what to cat. The Russian nation is big, but it i a mixed up crowd. I'm told they sleep on stoves, and there isn't a day in an; week that we couldn't lick Russia. The other nations don't count. Ite land is too small, and, besides, Ireland is a part of America. The Germans and the French can speak foreign languages, but fighting is not in their line and never has been. In all history you cannot find even a good middleweight among the French, What is more, they fight with their feet, and, as poor old Toppy Maguire used to say, a men that will fight with his feet will think with them.-John L.
