Notices have been sent to property owners living on West Center and Oicots streets and on the streets adjoining thereto by the Board of Selectmen advising them of this hearing. Petitions have been presented to the Selectmen asking them to u e their influence is the matter of securing the re-location of the trolley tracks along West Center and Olgott streets.

It is understood that The Connecticut Company are quite agreeable to this change in the interest of pub ic safety and convenience. It is also quite likely that they sill take necessary measures to lay doub'e tracks when the time arrives for making the change. At the present time double tracks are in use! between Burnside and Hartford and it certainly would be a matter of much public safety and convenience and ratiofaction if the road was double-tracked all the way through from South Mancheeter. Persons living along West Center and Olcott streets and the streets adjacent thereto will do well to attend the meeting next Monday evening and present any views they may have concerning this proposed public

Linne Lodge

The fourth anniversary concert and ball to be given by Linne Lodge No. 72 Knights of Pythiae was fittingly observed at Cheney Hall Wednesday evening. The intense cold kept many away who intended to go, but all pres-est had an enjoyable time. Music was furnished by Johnson & Weiman's orchestra and Prof. C. Foley prompted. The feature of the evening was the very pretty drill given by the Kings Goard of William McKinley Lodge K. of P. of Hartford. There were sixteen men besides the officer of the guard and for a half hour they executed a number of pretty movements and groupings and formations that were enthusiastically applauded by the audlence. The initials K, of P, and the Maltese Cross were nicely formed. A special trolley car carried the guests to Hartford after the tall.
