Beckman, pastor of the German Evangelical Lutheran church officiating. Interment was at the East cemetery.

SHOW CASE ARRIVED After many delays the refrigerator show case which Robert Kittel ordered for his meat market on Bissell street has arrived and he and his men worked up until two o'clock this morning setting it up and making necessary changes in the meat market. The case is a word in meat market furniture and will be admired by the trade. It is of quartered oak with plate glass on sides front, ends and top. The back is equipped with beveled edged mirrors and also three sides of the refrigerator which is in the center of the case. Plate glass shelves hold the different cuts of meat and display them in excellent fashion keeping them away from the heat and they are hand held until the customers buy them. The refrigerator in the center keeps the meats in sanitary condition all the time.

MR. KITTEL has doubled his floor space in the front part of the store and will thus be the better enabled to serve his steadily increasing trade. He is offering some special price inducements for Saturday shoppers which appear in another column and persons desiring to save money on their meat purchases will do well to call at Kittel's market tomorrow.

SALVATION ARMY

Adjutant and Mrs. Main Going To Pawtucket, R. I.

The committee in charge of the local corps of the Salvation Army for the past six months have been notified from headquarters that they are to be transferred to Pawtucket, R. I. Ensign and Mrs. Brookman, who are at present in charge of the Pawtucket corps are to come to South Manchester. Adjutant and Mrs. Main will hold public farewell services in the citadel next Sunday afternoon and evening, the exercises beginning at 3 and 7.30 o'clock. On Tuesday evening a farewell service will be held when members of the Army only will be present.

In talking to a representative of The News about his work coming to South Manchester, Adjutant Main gave out some very interesting figures. The Adjutant and Mrs. Main took charge of the local corps July 24, 1910 and for a period of nine months up to last Monday, they have conducted 36 services in the citadel with a total attendance of 33,225. One hundred and thirty three open air meetings have been held at which 8,210 Salvationists have attended. The estimated attendance of the services which have been held at 18,214. It will be recalled by the attendance figures that nearly 90,000 persons have attended the Salvation meetings here during the past nine months. The Sunday School and the young people's services have numbered 112 with an average weekly attendance of 215. There have been 121 converts. Thirty nine new members have been enrolled—13 include the entire Junior Legion. The new cradle roll numbers have been added thirty members to their roll. Adjutant and Mrs. Main have spent 444 hours in visitation. These visits were not confined to members of the Army, but extended to many outside the ranks. The number of homes visited have been 643. Five hundred and thirty-three homes have been prayed in.

The improvements on property and furnishings including hand instruments and a new piano have a total value of $688.55. This sum is in addition to the regular running expenses of the corps. All bills are paid to date, $950 have been paid on the mortgage and there is a balance on hand of $150 towards the payment of the second mortgage. The Young People's Legion have $72.27 on hand. It will be seen by the above that the Adjutant and his wife have been very active in their work which has had a happy and successful result.

Be Joyful
There is not enough joy in this struggling world. So few people have time to be happy. We are too busy, too busy, too busy. We are too busy to be happy. We are too busy to be happy. We are too busy to be happy.

Window Mirrors
In conventional homes one frequently sees a mirror at the side of a window so placed that people in the room may see reflected therein the view up or down the street. In some bygone periods of English street architecture it was customary to hang almost all the windows at least enough to enable the occupants of the houses to look along the streets—Craftsmen.

Chimney Fire
A chimney fire at the residence of James W. Cheney Monday evening about eight o'clock called out the local fire department the alarm being rung in from station No. 44 corner Main and Oak streets. The fire was extinguished without the aid of the firemen to the very great relief of Mr. Cheney and his family.

Collecting Trading Stamps
It is surprising how quickly collectors of S. & H. Trading Stamps can fill their books when purchases in large amounts are made. The Neal, Goff & Inglis Co. Hartford's only department store at distributors trading stamps. As this store features the most reliable home furnishings—furniture, rugs, carpets, linens, draperies and wall papers stamp collectors can do much to secure the necessary permission from the fire warden. The purpose of the law is to prevent to far as may be possible the wasteful destruction of property by grass and brush fires started carelessly and then neglected. It is usually a very small matter in the beginning but one never knows where it will end. The existing conditions make all the difference in the world. Windy days should be avoided for starting brush or grass fires. When such fires are started they should be carefully watched. Before starting them be sure to get permission from the fire warden.

Schiebel-Morley
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Marys Episcopal church last Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mabel Lillian Morley of Maple street became the bride of Frank Schiebel, son of Frank and Mrs. Schiebel of Adams street. The bride was given away by her brother, John W. Morley and Miss Edith Morley was bridesmaid. Conrad Schiebel, brother of the groom was best man. Thomas D. Faulkner, Thomas Morley, Joseph Boyer, Jr. and Alexander Johnson acted as ushers. The bride wore a gown of cream satin and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses and the bridegroom was attired in a gown of blue silk and carried pick of flowers. A reception was given at the bride's home, after which the couple left on a wedding trip. They will reside at 41 Maple street. The contracting parties are well known young people as was attested by the large number of wedding gifts which they were presented.

Fire District Taxes
J. Watson Goolie began collecting the taxes for the South Manchester Fire District last Tuesday afternoon at the office of E. E. Carney in the House & Hale block. He will be there for this purpose tomorrow evening from seven until nine o'clock. He also holds sessions each afternoon occupying Monday days from two to five o'clock. The rate is one and one-half mills on the dollar on the list of 1910. The tax must be paid before June first and after legal notice will be added on and after that date. UNUSUAL SUCCESS HAD FURNISHED ROOMS.

Bazar Given By Scandia Lodge Was A Hammer
The committee in charge of the arrangements for the big bazaar given at the Armory opera house last night by Scandia Lodge No. 23, Order of W. was as successful as they could have been. The exact net figures are regarding this big event, but they are now reasonably sure that they will be able to place in the treasury of the lodge as a result of this effort the pleasing sum of one thousand dollars in real money over and above all expenses.

When it is recalled that this sum was realized in a bazaar having only five nights run it will be freely granted that the patronage accorded by the public was large and generous. It certainly was most gratifying to all concerned to note the liberal response made by the public in general. The Armory was crowded to practically capacity each evening. The entertainments were highly pleasing and received well merited applause, and the good natured catering was liberal throughout the entire event. Those who received special favors were the close acquaintances.

LISTEN Think it Over
If you can save from $1.00 to $1.50 and secure as good shoes as you can in the regular way, isn't it up to you to at least try one pair of our sample shoes?

IF MONEY IS NO OBJECT
then this argument fails, but few people care to pay more than is really necessary.

We buy direct and carry the leading manufacturers goods, but they are goods made up for other dealers who have failed to take them. This does not mean that they are last year's goods. Orders for shoes are taken in the fall for the following spring and summer stock. Between the placing of the order and the spring delivery the goods are made up, but there are failures and changes which occur leaving the goods made up on the manufacturers hands. Styles change every season so that they cannot carry them over to another season and dispose of them at a un-desirable in large lots. The shoes are not the worse for the change of customers, it is the manufacturers that are the losers, you are the gainers. THINK IT OVER.

Title & Rich Bid For Your Trade in the Honest Way

If you like the straightforward legitimate way of doing business, THEN WE ASK for your patronage. We want such men that do not judge everybody alike. We want broadminded men that know all sorts of men to make this world. We don't want the men that can afford or do experiment with all sorts of fake sales or fly by night firms. We cannot afford to trifle with your intelligence nor would we if we could. We don't want men to buy here but once and never again. We are a permanent institution and we want you for a permanent customer. We have ten thousand permanent customers on our dividend list, we know not one of these ten thousand would go elsewhere and experiment. We satisfy rather than experiment. You know as well as we do that many clothing firms have come and gone in the past. You know that a legitimate concern doing a legitimate business is bound to grow and prosper. We started here without a permanent customer, today we have ten thousand and growing every day. Two large modern sale floors in place of one. This is the strongest evidence to show the confidence the people have in us.

LAWSUITS ARE ON

Fourteen Property Owners Against the Selectmen

The trials of the fourteen Manchester real estate owners against the selection of this town were taken up before Judge William H. Williams in the superior court Tuesday afternoon. The length of the trial depends a good deal on the view Judge Williams takes of the case, but if they are tried on the plans laid out they are likely to occupy the attention of the judge for a month.

Warren-Detroit Track Record

The American track records for five and ten miles have just been officially awarded to the Warren-Detroit car. The Park Garage of Bristol, Conn., local agents for the Warren-Detroit in this place have received a copy of the record sheet sent out by the contest board of the American Automobile Association, making the record official. The records by which the distinction was gained were established at the recent race meet at Jacksonville, Fla.

Postal Savings Banks

In view of the fact that a branch of the United States Postal Savings Bank system is one of the modern conveniences which the bustling borough of Bristol is about to acquire the following interesting information regarding the operation of these institutions is furnished by the Bristol Press and is so timely that we reproduce it hereafter for the benefit of our readers:

Postmaster George A. Warner has received much information regarding the Postal Savings system, showing the number of depositors, the amount, and other interesting data. Out of the forty-eight postal savings banks which have been in operation since January 3 of the present year.

The statement issued on March 31, 1911 shows the following interesting facts: total number of open accounts, 4,697; total amount of deposits, $201,961; average balance per depositor, $46.89; deposits made during the month, $2,451.90; one redemption, $1,829.25.

That the system is growing to favor and having a healthy growth is shown by the increase of depositors from 3,064 to 4,397 during the month of March. During the same month the deposits showed an increase over the previous month of $68,093.

SENATE MAJORITY FIGHTS GOVERNOR

Takes Up Gauntlet on Highway Commissioner.

Will Stand by Macdonald.

Governor Baldwin's Appointment of W. H. Cadwall of New Britain Un- satisfactory to Republican Senate Caucus--Other Matters of Recent Days--Senate Approves New Labor Commission and House Refuses Insurance Investigation.

[Special Correspondence.] Hartford, Conn., April 27.—The fight between Governor Baldwin and the Connecticut senate is on in earnest. After feuding with him and finally passing the nomination of Burton Macdonald of New Haven for insurance commissioner and spending far less time on the matter before unanimously approving of the nomination of Patrick H. Connelley of Danbury to be commissioner of labor statistics the senate accepted the nomination today when the governor sent in the name of William H. Cadwall of New Britain to succeed James H. Macdonald as highway commissioner.

House Refuses to Investigate. Mr. Chandler of Rocky Hill made the principal speech against an investigation and Mr. Phillips of Mansfield the principal speech for it. Both Messrs. Taft and Thomas spoke briefly against the investigation. Mr. Hall of Willington and Mr. Fen of Waterbury spoke against it at some length. When the matter at length came to a vote the house registered itself against an investigation by a vote of 125 to 20, and thus settled the investigation.

The house also settled the New Haven city court judgeship, which had been pending since the day before by the refusal of the senate to reverse itself and accept Howard C. Webb in place of Judge Matherson. The matter came back to the house on disagreeing action, and Judge Banks reported for the conference committee that it had found it impossible to agree on any name, and moved that the house insist on its previous action in favor of Webb, which it did. It is now said, however, that there will be an adjustment of the matter and some name not yet mentioned will be reported by the Judiciary committee for the judgeship.

Senate Confirms Connelley. In the senate an executive session on Wednesday confirmed the appointment of Patrick H. Connelley to be commissioner of labor statistics for the next four years to follow. It had been expected that there would be trouble over it, but the vote in the executive session was unanimous.

In view of Governor Baldwin's suggestion that this office and that of the state auditor be merged, the senate in its inaugural message, it is regarded as significant of his idea of the proper way to do this that he has appointed the commissioner of labor statistics for the full four year term and has not even yet appointed a successor to State Factory Inspector McLean.

New Fireworks Law. In the senate on Thursday last week the Judiciary committee reported an interesting bill respecting the sale of fireworks in Connecticut, which is practically a copy of the New Hampshire law. It provides that a record of the name, address and occupation of the person to whom a sale is made shall be kept by the dealer selling the dynamite, with the maker's name and the factory number of the gun. This record to be at the command of the police at any time. The measure was tabled for the calendar and printing and will come up this week for action.

House Makes New Shad Law. The house had a very busy day with the shad bill, which was the order of the day at 11:30. As reported by the committee on fish and game this bill called for the closing of the tributaries of the Connecticut river to shad fishing from a line drawn across the river between Middletown and Portland south to the mouth of the river, but last week Representative Reynolds of East Haddam put in an amendment which closed all the tributaries of the river. Mr. Huntington of Windsor, who has been ill, represents a considerable constituency of shad fishermen on the Farmington river and was greatly opposed to this amendment, and the house has been waiting for his return to dispose of the matter.

He spoke at great length today, defending the right of his people to fish the smaller streams for shad, which he said are no more likely to spawn in the tributaries than in the main river. He insisted that he wanted fair play between the shad and shad fishermen on the Farmington river and against this. There were more speeches for the amendment, but they were all in vain. It was finally defeated by the close vote of 53 to 81. Two or three different times during the discussion members moved to indefinitely postpone, and Mr. Hutchinson of Essex finally got this to a vote, and it was defeated.

Doesn't Go Into Effect at Once. Judge Hitchcock of New Haven offered an amendment which would cut out the operation of the measure immediately on its passage because the season for shad opens the 1st of May and it would be unfair to put a law into operation without some sort of notice to those affected by it. This was passed, and then the measure was passed as it came from the committee, shutting off the tributaries south of Portland.

In the senate today Senator Parker of Bristol was made the second member of the committee which is to investigate the state departments and commissions with a view to ascertaining whether or not they duplicate each other's work and expenses and might not, some of them, better be abolished. This committee has been delayed in getting at its work, but will do so at once.

It was last week Wednesday that the matter of the insurance investigation found the house, which seems to be the conservative body of the present general assembly, reversing the senate and refusing to substitute the minority report for the majority report and have an investigation. On Tuesday, Mr. Taft of Farmington, chairman of the committee on the part of the house, and Mr. Thomas of Waterbury, who signed the minority report, presented the proposition to the support for an investigation, but that was all. On Wednesday the subject came up as soon as the body came to order.

Miss Mary Woods of West street will sail from New York City tomorrow for Ireland where she goes to spend the summer. It is about eleven years since she visited the Old Sod.

Miss Katharine Young of Hartford has been visiting with Miss Lillian C. Young of the Green this week.

Mrs. James Brennan and her mother, Mrs. Thomas Keating have moved from Burnside to their old home at the corner of Main and Forest streets.

Miss Margaret White of Charter Oak spent last Saturday after a stay of eight weeks in that institution. While there she had her appendix removed. She was discharged on the afternoon of today in the South Manchester High School this spring and resumed her studies there last Monday morning. She is ambitious to catch up with her class and keep right up with her studies. Her many friends are cheered to see that she has recovered so stoutly and are congratulating and cheering her on her return to school.

Window shades in all grades and colors at lowest prices. Manchester Wall Paper Store, 51 Spruce street.

Notice
W. J. Flood has removed his residence from the corner of Main and Charter Oak streets to the Farr block on Main street opposite the St. James church.

Building Some
Contractor Arthur Mercer is putting up the frame for the ten-room double tenement on Cottage street which he is constructing for Angelo Boso of Birch street. The foundation and cellar were finished Wednesday.

Mr. Mercer has almost completed the six-roomed cottage which he has in course of construction for himself at 25 State Hill. He intends to have his family spend a portion of the summer months there. Mr. Mercer has also completed the erection of a six-roomed cottage at Watch Hill for Mr. Sheldon James Trotter. Mr. Trotter adds family have been spending their summer vacations at Watch Hill for some seasons past but have heretofore always had a cottage or roomed at one of the hotels. This summer and hereafter they will occupy their own cottage whenever they choose to stay at that charming and restful summer resort.

One of Theodore Bjorkman's children is suffering with scarlet fever and the premises are quarantined. There are three children in the family all of whom are held by quarantine just now.

The little son of William Dalton Jr. of High street is suffering with diphtheria and the premises are quarantined.

Friends who visited Mrs. Alma Birch of South Main street at the Hartford hospital yesterday found her in a very cheery mood and apparently advancing to a return of her usual good health. She had a tumor removed Good Friday.

Rev. Augustus G. Olson of Passaic, N. J. was the guest of Representative Aaron Johnson last Monday night. He is attending the Swedish Lutheran Conference at Portland. Mr. Olson was pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church here sixteen years ago and was succeeded by Rev. W. F. Anderson, who is now preparing to leave town.

John H. Biswell of Gardner street has been sorely distressed with articular rheumatism for some weeks past and has been unable to get out of bed. The attack seemed to be all over his body at first but this week has been principally active in his hands. He has suffered intensely from the visitation. He had recall to a Hartford specialist to drive away the unwelcome and painful complication. It is somewhat relieved at present. His little son, Sherwood F., five years old, has suffered very much with inflammatory rheumatism for some time past but is a trifle easier at present.

Frank A. Isbell moved from West Center street into his newly purchased home on East Center street Wednesday.

Mr. Isbell is occupying the first floor and Stewart Dillon the upper story of what was formerly the John H. Nye residence. The house is owned jointly by Messrs. Isbell, Dillon and Albert T. Dewey. It is a large, modern, well constructed home, is in a desirable location, has plenty of open lawn space, ample sunshine and all in all should make a delightful dwelling place for these two young couples.

Miss Anna Bjorkman of School street was taken to the Hartford Hospital Wednesday afternoon to be treated for a trifling case of fever. She is in a critical condition. Miss Bjorkman came over from Sweden last year and was employed in the silk mills here. She is a sister of Theodore Bjorkman of High street.

The Connecticut Sheep Breeders Association will hold their annual field meeting and sheep shearing contest at the farm of P. G. Tripp in Ellington Thursday, May 11. Besses will leave the Rockville Home at 10.00 and 11.00 o'clock a. m. Dinner strictly on the basket plan. Coffee will be furnished by the host. All interested in sheep raising are invited to attend. Ample room under cover if stormy.

Mrs. Ella B. Kendrick, superintendent of franchise for Hartford county before the W. C. T. U. at a meeting held at the South M. E. church last Tuesday afternoon. Her subject was The work of educating young people from among our foreign speaking people to act as missionaries to their own nationality.

Harold G. Davis a contract agent for the Southern New England Telephone Co. is in town working in the interest of the telephone company. The company is making an extra effort to increase the list of telephone subscribers in this place and Mr. Davis has charge of the work. Mr. Davis will be well remembered as the physical instructor of the gymnastic class of the South Manchester Frodo-school. He is a well known athlete, being a member of the Y. M. C. A. of Hartford.

The funeral of Miss Johanna Woodhouse, daughter of James H. and Mrs. F. S. Woodhouse of Spruce street took place Monday morning, a solemn requiem high mass for the repose of her soul being sung at the St. James church. A goodly gathering of friends and relatives assembled to attend the solemn obsequies. Burial was at the St. James cemetery. The following persons served as bearers: James Keating, Charles McCann, Daniel Fitzpatrick, William Barrett, Maurice Quish and John McCann.

EDUCATIONAL CLUB

Hold Annual Meeting, Hear Reports, Elect Officers, etc.

At the annual business meeting of the Educational Club held on May 3rd in the High School studio the following officers were elected to serve one year: Group 1: president, Miss Hannah Garland; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. L. St. C. Burr; treasurer, Mrs. Herbert Hoase.

To serve two years, Group 2: 1st vice-president, Miss Marjory Cheney; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. F. A. Verplanck; secretary, Mrs. A. L. Kenyon.

After this year group 1 will be replaced by officers who will serve two years so that hereafter at least half of the executive committee, which is composed of these two groups, shall have had one year's experience.

The directors of the Outdoor School is to be put in the hands of a new committee of three beside the president who shall be a member ex-officio. Two members of this committee were elected yesterday — Mrs. H. O. Bower to serve one year and to be succeeded by a member to serve two years; and Mrs. E. L. G. Hobenthal to serve two years. The third member of the Outdoor School Board is to be chosen by the executive committee at their first meeting. The board will choose one of its members as treasurer.

The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted, besides the reports of Mrs. W. H. Tucker, treasurer of the Outdoor School; Miss Reynolds, school nurse; and Miss Tarrant, teacher of the Outdoor School.

A special vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Tucker for the large amount of work which she has carefully performed as treasurer of the Outdoor School.

Private Dance
The Young People's Catholic Club held a private dance at Cheney hall Tuesday evening which was attended by 70 couples. The Tuxedo orchestra furnished music in an acceptable manner. All around dances were the order of the evening. At intermission lights refreshments were served. An unusually enjoyable social time is reported by young people who were favored with invitations to attend and who entered into the sociability of the occasion with rare zest. The Young People's Catholic Club is planning to hold a private dance at the Kindergarten room in the High School District building Wednesday evening, May 17.

The regular meetings of this body are held at the Kindergarten. The club is becoming popular and is interesting a goodly number of our Catholic young men and young women. It is organized purely for sociality and the members are successful in carrying out their mission.

Received Commission
Judge Alexander Arrott has received his commission of reappointment from Governor Simon E. Baldwin as judge of the town court of Manchester for a period of two years from the first Monday in July, 1911. When Judge Arrott first took his seat as judge of the local court his term was Monday and the date July 15th, but was observed as the legal holiday for July Fourth. Last year the first anniversary celebration of the event occurred on Monday, July Fourth and this year the opening of his second term will start on Monday, July third. Judge Arrott's first commission was signed by Frank D. Weeks, acting governor after the death of Governor George L. Lilley. This is the first appointment of a Manchester town court judge to be signed by a democratic Governor.

So. M. E. Church
Next Sunday will be communion Sunday at the South M. E. Church. In the evening the Young People's Chorus will be heard and there will be a short sermon by the pastor Rev. Sherman E. Ellis.

Friday May 12 will be "Methodist Day" at the great exposition of the world in Boston, Mass. and many from this and surrounding towns are planning to attend. On Saturday May 13 "Hartford Day" will be observed and Ex-Vice-President Fairbanks will be one of the speakers.

Sanderson—Erwin
Robert Sanderson of Highland Park and Miss Mildred Erwin of Hartford were married Wednesday evening by Rev. W. F. Taylor at the parsonage of the North Methodist church. John Sanderson and Miss Mary Howard were the official witnesses. The bridal couple have started housekeeping on Gardner street. The groom is in the employ of B. B. Carrier at the Highland Park grocery store.

Salvation Army
Adjutant and Mrs. Brockman, the newly appointed officers in command of the local corps Salvation Army arrived in town yesterday. They were given a right royal reception at the city hall last evening. The Salvation Army brass band marched from the city hall down Main street to the post office and then counter-marched to the city hall where the public reception to the new officers was held. The city hall was crowded with members of the Army and others to greet the new commandants and bid them a hearty welcome to South Manchester. They arrived in the bloom of the year and soon South Manchester will be clad in its most beautiful raiment.

ARMORY OPERA HOUSE

The Jollities Will Appear in the Townmakers Tonight

"Job's Senior Stubbs" the old English toy-maker invented a mechanical doll and by means of electricity brought the doll to life. Just how it was done and what happened after it was done is told in an exceedingly entertaining manner by The Jollities, a company of clever entertainers in The Townmakers, an original musical absurdity written by Charles Felton Pidgin.

The Townmakers was written as a book first and a musical absurdity afterwards by Charles Felton Pidgin author of Quinzy Adams Sawyer the great New England play and book. It is a clean, wholesome entertainment which everyone should not fail to see. Tickets on sale at Magnells. Admission 25c, 30c, 50c.

Milk and Cream
The special joint committee raised by the Legislature to investigate the conditions of milk and distribution of the necessities of life made a partial report to the Legislature yesterday. This special report is limited at this time to the consideration of this subject. In so far as it relates to milk and cream, the committee recommends the passage of a bill which they sent in with their report regarding this subject. They presented a list of 40 recommendations to be observed by owners of cows, keepers of dairies and distributors of milk and cream. The tendency of these recommendations is to throw more safeguards about the milk and cream which she has carefully performed as treasurer of the Outdoor School.

For Double Tracks
The Board of selectmen are this day inspecting the street lines on West Center and Olcott streets with a view to learning just where the property owners claim their street line to be. This is the preliminary work in the matter of preparing for the making of a sixty-foot highway out as far as Main street for the purpose of enabling The Connecticut Company to double track their line from the Center to Burnside. The property owners are cooperating with the Board of Selectmen in this matter. When this preliminary work shall have been completed a map of the streets will be prepared and stakes will be driven showing just where the sixty-foot highway will be laid. Following this action a hearing will be held and an effort will be made to amicably adjust any differences that may appear or any irregularities that may arise.

Preparing To Leave
Rev. W. P. Anderson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church on Church street is packing his household goods preparatory to leaving town. He expects to start for Stronghurst, Illinois in two weeks and assume the duties of his new pastorate in that place. His charge in July, 1911, is a rhotomere at Tufts College, Boston, Mass. and will continue her studies there. It will be recalled that she was dangerously ill with a malignant type of scarlet fever last Christmas and that she was unable to resume her studies for almost two months. In spite of that fact she has worked so hard and so effectively since her return that she has caught up with her class and now hopes to be able to go to college in the fall.
