This property has been finely developed with wide, well graded streets. There are only about 70 of these lots to be offered on this tract but all very large, none less than 50 feet frontage and some 60 and 70 feet front. The soil is of the best. While the present owner realizes that these lots would bring a greater price if held a short time, but owing to his being obliged to leave town for other business he has placed them in our hands to sell at public auction without reserve, thus giving the public the greatest opportunity ever offered in South Manchester to secure choice elevated lots, as this property possesses peculiar natural advantages in the way of elevation, drainings, etc., not to be found elsewhere in this

Queen Mary's Turn.

Thus end the coronation and enthronization of the king. The ceremony for the queen is not so elaborate. Queen Mary is anointed by the archhishon, four pecresses meanwhile holding over her a rich pall of cloth of gold. The ring is put upon her finger and the crown upon her head, after which all the peeresses present put on their coronets. The presentation of the scepter and the ivory rod with the dove follows, and the queen takes her seat upon her throne, bowing reverently as she passes the throne of her husband. # Ralston Lasts Are Foot Moulded

The ordinary shoe last on which al other shoes (except Ralstons) are made is absolutely flat across the bottom. They would do very nicely if your feet were also flat across the bottom-but they're NOT

In the Ralston last every curve. every hollow of your foot bottom is duplicated. What is the result? Ralstons fit perfectly the first time you put them on. Unlike other shoes they require no breaking in,fI you're skeptical come in and say "Prove it." We'll welcome the opportunity.
