While driving his automobile on Central Row in Hartford early last evening Herman Schultz, the contractor and builder of Ridge street this place, struck Miss Clara Fleischer, a fourteen year old girl and she sustained serious injuries. Mr. Schultz rendered all the assistance he could, and the girl was later taken to the Hartford hospital. Mr. Schultz was placed under arrest and later was released under a bond of $500 furnished by a Hartford

At the time of the accident Mr Schultz was proceeding west on Central Row, after turning from American Row, where he had to stop his machine to allow a team to rass bfm. In the auto with him was his wife and two children, and Mrs. Henry C. Beckman, Mr. Schultz saw the girl start across the street and sounded his horn. He steered his machine so that it would pass the girl in the rear. When the girl heard the norn and saw the machine coming instead of continuing across the street she started back and Mr. Schultz could not stop h's auto in time to avoid a collision. The little girl came from New York and was on a visit with her mother. Mr. Schultz was in the Hartford police court this morning and his case was adjourned
