Week's Holiday. If you want to obtain complete res and recuperation equal to a week's vacation in minimum time sleep the clock around twice is the advice of a physician who holds a high place in medical circles in England. "To spend twenty-four hours in bed." he said to a friend, "instead of rushing away for a few hours' change of scene when you are run down physically and mentally, is worth a week's holiday. The night before, having gone to a theater to take the mind off worries and having supped wisely and well, in-structions should be given that the morning calling shall be omitted.

"Then sleep. On waking turn over and sleep again. On waking again ring for some hot milk. Drink it and sleep again and keep on sleeping. Have nothing in the intervals more substantial than soup. Do not read. Keep the eyes shut constantly. Have a warm turn out a large number of prescriptions per hour, or a druggist who has sleep again for the night. Nothing calms the nerves more than resting the eyes."-New York Herald.

Remember the Baker. At the court of assises in Venice when sentence of death is about to be passed a man clothed in a long black robe enters the court and, advancing to the bench, bows profoundly to the judges, saying, "Remember the baker?" Then he bows again and retires. Here is the explanation of the custom: Three centuries ago a baker was executed at Venice for a crime of which he was not guilty. When his innocence was fully proved the judges who condemned him invested a sum of money, the interest on which serves to keep a lamp perpetually lighted in the palace of the doges, this being siled the "lamp of expiation." In addition, their fatal mistake has for 800 yeafs been held up as a warning to their successors on the bench when they are about to inflict the extreme penalty of the law. The Box Tortoise. Though the tortoise is slow of foot, it is quick to make the best of all its available modes of defense. The box
