Texas Cattle King

One of the pleasing features of the T-xasCattle King, which as pears at the Grand Central theat r on Mooday, April 1st, is the fact that while every detail in costume, scenery and stry has been closely draws from life the usual bad man and desperado has been eliminated. The Texas Cattle King at a story, became one of the besself ers early after publication and the dramatization of the book is a marvelous achievement in the fact that the plot is an lacking to contrasting characteristics. one achievement in the fact that the plot is so lacking in contrasting characters the good and bad. This is a pretty love story of the Lone Star State and while the i lay abounds in thrilling situa ion and langhable incidents the gun fighter has no place, which fact alone has made the drama a success. The play tells a story of the far We to the velley of the Rio Grande, in a natural and plessing way and the characters are those big hearted men who look you square in the eye and who made history in the cattle country wien the West was young. From coast to coast the critics have egreed that this is the one Western play that has stood the test of time on meritaloue. Special is are introduced and the cowboy band gives concer's twice dally.

Lower Priced Sewing Machines Made by the New Home Company

In addition to the fine machine which bears its name the New Home Company makes some trustworthy lower priced sewing machines.

The metal parts are not case hardened as on the New Home, the finish and detail work are not so fine, nevertheless the construction equals that found in many so called high grade machines.

The "Ruby" Hand Lift $15.00

Is a wonder for the price. It has the automatic tension bobbin winder and all attachments and is put up in a substantial four drawer oak case. The head of this machine is brought into position by first raising the table top and then lifting the head. The same machine with the automatic or one motion lift is $16 50

The New Ideal at $18.50

The New Ideal is the best medium priced sewing machine in the world. Part for part, feature for feature, it will compare with many machines sold for from $25 to $35. This is the machine we have sold so extensively to local dressmakeas. We refer you to any one of them for recommendation. The New Ideal Hand Lift sells for $22 50 The New Ideal automatic lift sells for $25 Any of these machines guaranteed against any defects in material or workmanship. Expert instruction is given with every new machine. Pay for it by the week or month as you prefer.

Seven bright young girls, each in a new gown and all in the highest spirits, boarded a street car in Philadelphia. The announced intention of all was to transfer at a certain junction, and to this end the girl in the red the expedition, got seven transfers. But the other six changed their minds before they got to the transfer point and declared themselves in favor of a shopping tour. Only the girl with the red hat stuck to the original plan and changed cars at the junction mentioned. To the conductor who came to take her fare she handed the bunch of transfers-the original seven. The conductor looked at her, and on each side of her, and all around her. She was oblivious. Then he asked: "Where are the others?"

The girl looked startled and conused for an instant, and then she said, with cold dignity: "Those are all the "Undosabad," destroyed by a Berlin engineer, and claimed to be the first transportable covered swimming bath which affords a practical substitute for the usual expensive buildings. The swimming basin is inexpensive and may be easily transported to any convenient location. The water supply may be obtained from a lake, river, springs, or from the town water works, as the use of the filtra minimizes the amount of fresh water necessary and so reduces the number of germs that the water is purer than when freshly introduced. The bath is sheltered by a canvas roof and furnished with a motor so that the air and water can be warmed and the temperature regulated. The motor's surplus power can also be utilized in generating waves of three feet or less in height, thus destroying all germs that remain, and add to the attraction by simulating the ocean.

Artificial Wood. Louis Carre, in England, has in vented a process for the artificial pro-duction of wood from straw or dried grass. It is proposed to use the wood, not only in the manufacture of matches, for which purpose it is said to be cheaper than natural wood. The straw is passed through crushing rolls and then through cylindrical cutters, which divide it into strips. Afterward, supplied with an adhesive, the strips, enclosed on top and bottom with layers of paper, are passed between other rolls, and through linked moulds in the form of a chain, where they are subjected to pressure and heat, from which they issue in the form of round splints, which are then cut into the proper length for matches.-Scientific

The first to be considered was the question of a school garden, to be worked by the pupils of the Open Air School. Miss Compton of Philadelphis, who has had experience in that line, was present and expressed the idea that it would be of value to these pupils both piy-irally and educationally. A plot of land would be a signed to the pupil and it would be a signed to the pupil and it would be a signed to the pupil and it would be held responsible for the proper return of the profits from it. THE BEGINNING

The story of the rise and growth of the firm of Wise, Smith & Co. soundlike a remance. Here in a co servative New England city young men started in a very small way in a little store with twelve feet front and a depth of about fifty-five feet. Within four years these quarters were too small and the firm sequired a larger s'ore in the cent r of the then Cheney building. This was in the early spring of 1890. In 1897 they moved agross to the west side of Main street to occupy a single building, constructed for them on the Stedman pr perty, the old Melodeon building being torn down to through ut the floor make room for Hattford's first modern fourteen years that Wise. WON CHAMPIONSHIP Local High School Team De

The victory of South Manchester over New Britain marks a new spoch in the annals of athletics in the high school, and great is the joy now that the aplouship is safe and a second cup will be sported with the rest of the has ploughed through the league and have held the lead and have considered themselves safe, but Manchester gradnally came up and when the locals beat them two weeks ago both trams were tied for first. Thea the Wesleyan gymnasium was selected as the place for the dec'ding game and here before numbers from New Britain and Man chester besides neighboring towns and the college body the locals won out

The game was latensely exciting from start to finish and both teams had been so thoroughly trained weeks in advance that everyone was uncertain There were times when even the most sanguine Manchesterits became despondent but thers was always the strong come back that was a doubtchaser. Harry Schofield attended and put his boys through a little practice before the game. His expert training could be appreciated throughout to the locals worked together like a clock. They were there in every point of the game. Their passing was excellent and nothing need be said of guarding. But the New Britains seemed to be nervous and fumbled a great deal. They couldn't get the ball near the basket so tried a great many long shots which brought nothing

The individual work of the locals as well as the team work deserves praise. Crockett with his wonderful eye was a good point getter and had even Reynolds beat on tossing the fouls. As usual Finnigan was there with his long shots. Madden and Ma t'n played a fine guarding game and Johnson the big center held his own with the New Britain skyscraper.

Edwards of the Connecticut institute again refereed and his wonderful fairnees and conrage were noted during the whole game. The game opened fast but nothing happened until a foul was called on New Britain and Crockett made good on it. Reynolds made the first point for his team with a foul but Crockett dropped two fouls into the basket to make up. Tuthiil by a pretty long shot made the first and last field goal for his side during that half and after that Manchester had everything its own way. Madden by s clever twist from the left, shot a hasket and Crockett followed this up by another. Finnigan was next to score on a long pass from Madden. After some playing Crockett shot a goal on the dead run and Martin from the center of the floor dropped a basket. A foul by Madden finished the half 14-3.

It was during the first of the second half that there was the least doubt of the victory, Hancock took Walsh's place and the New Britain t am certainly made a spurt. Reynolds started it by a foul and followed it up with a field and another foul goal. Then Hancock got the ball and gave his team two more points. But a field goal from Cowles finished the scoring for New Britain for the evening. Johnson next executed a nice side throw and a foul by Madden made another point to the good. Two field goals by Finnigan and Crockett put the home team safe. It was now that Finnigan got into trouble with two New Britain players. Feeling had been running high during the whole game and even the referee had to silence some of the bystanders with something stronger than words. A New Britain player struck Finnigan who turned and gave him a clip in the jaw. When another came up he served him with a second. After some disussion the playing went on. A foul by Crockett and one of Finnigan's famous long tosses ended the game with a score of 24-11. The lineup:

THE HALL OF FAME. EMMA HART WILLARD-

Born Berlin, Conn., Feb. 23, 1787, and died Troy. N. Y., April 15, 1870. Began her career as village teacher in 1803 and later became bend of a girls' academy at Middlebury, Vt. Married Dr. John Willard. Opened in her bome a boarding school for girls and broadened the curriculum. Laid before the New York legislature a plan for improving female education and established a seminary at Waterford. She then founded the Troy Female seminary. In 1838 Mrs. Willard went to Europe and helped to start a girls' school at Athens, Greece. ***********

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY

The beneficial effect of a cold bath is all in the reaction. Whenever reaction is feeble-that is. when a pleasant feeling of warmth after a bath does not come quickly enough—one should proceed somewhat as follows: If the bath is to be taken in the morning rise a half hour ear-Her and recover the bed so that the warmth of the body is retained in it. Take your bath then, kish towel and return as quickly the greater majority of cases the return to the warm bed will in-

Losing Librarian

William B. Easton of Chicago came East to attend the funeral of his ann . the late Miss Eliza Cobb of the Fier Library. He expects to leave here next Monday and take his mother with bim, Mrs. Mary J. Easton, the well known and highly efficient librarian. Mr . Easton has been in charge of the Free Library on Wells street since it was firstopered in 1871. She was at that time a school tescher here The library was open to the public Saturday afternrons and evenings in the early days but for many je rs has been open daily. Mrs Easton will be sadly missed by the book loving public whom she has served so faithfully all these years.

Colonial Dance

Don't forget the Colonial Dance to be given at Cheney Hall next Thur day evening by the Ladies Auxiliary to the A. O. H. A joyous event is antic ipsted. Quaint costumes of the olden times will be brought out of their hiding places and placed on display at that event. Join the genial gathering and enjoy the fun
