Architect Isaac Allen Jr. of Hartford who drew the plans was present and explained them in so far as he had worked them out. The plans as called for are similar to those which Mr Allen drew up for the special committee which investigated the almshouse question last fall. Mr. Al'en had not prepared an estimate of the heating and lighting of the building. After discussing the matter thoroughly the board voted to leave the matter in the hands of the sp cial almshouse com-mitte consisting of Messrs. Cheney, How and Cook. The committee will have the specifications completed and then will advertise for bids on same, It is hoped to have the building ready for occupancy next fall but they may not be able to get the work started in time to finish until later.

DOES AWAY WITH THE CORSET Experiment of French Modiste That Is in the Nature of a Sartorial

Revolution.

A very famous French modiste has started a revolution of a sartorial order by making gowns which are to be worn without any kind of a corset. "But," exclaims the well-dressed woman, "it is an impossibility to wear such a gown! The figure will appear loose and untidy, the gowns will not fit, and the appearance will be ruined by such a preposterous fashion."

Nothing of the sort. The gowns are veritable gems of beauty in which the models look more chic than in the styles which need a corset. Now, how

Lost Opening Game

The South Manchester High School opened the season at Glastonbury last Saturday afternoon and were defeated by the high school team of that place by a score of 4 to 2. Finnigan of the local team struck out twenty of the Glastonbury players, still his team was unable to win. The farmer boys were stronger with the willow than the silk weavers, getting six safe hits to South Manchesters four. The game was not as free from errors as some contests are and Captain Schieldge's players contributed the major share to the total nisplays. The South Manchester team appeared in their new uniforms and it is probable that the suits were a little stiff with the first try on. Better things are expected however when the team gets its stride The batteries were Finnigan and Johnson for South Manchester and Holmes and Cooley for

Wool Blankets 33 1-3 off

You may think it a funny time to talk about blankets, but you are at all wise you will buy them now. This is the cleaning up time for the manufacturer. We secured fifty pairs of seconds at 1-3 off. For two years now we have been able to get a few pairs of these blankets each year. They are double blankets 'but are cut in two and bound. All full 11-4 size, Where a half was damaged in making it had to be cut off and latter all these odd halves are matched up and sold as we now show them. We never yet have had enough of them and they won't last long this time.

We bought an entire sample line of the famous Nashua Mfg. Co.'s cotton blankets. They send out samples of every number they make. As there isn't over two pairs of a number they are no use to the wholesaler, so we bought one line at a price that equalled the bare cost of making. We saved over twenty-five per cent. We can save you over twenty-five per cent if you buy now.

Over 150 blankets in this lot and 50 pairs from our own stock. There are so many different kinds it would be impossible to enumerate them here; suffice it to say that the regular prices range from 45c to $4. Our sale prices will be from 35c to

You can run a NEW HOME SEW) NG MACHINE after a few moments instruction as well as we and it will be doing you good service twenty five years from now. No other sewing machine is so easily cared for. No other will last so long. The reasons are easy to understand. First: There is no force or movement so direct acting, so accurate, or so simple and free from friction as a "gear winding force." The New Home is driven by two simple gears. No other sewing machine is made so simply. Second: All New Homes are made with a genuine double feed. This insures an even, straight seam and gives greater feeding surface which will carry all kinds of material without puckering or pushing the goods. No other machine has this feature. Third: All
