$10.00 Linen Suits.....

The concert and lawn festival given n the Cheney Hall lawn Tuesday evening attracted a large throng of people and despite threatening weather conditions proved to be a fine success both socially and financially. It is estim-ted that $375 will be cleared over all expenses. This balance will used in the Child Welfste Move

The chief feature of the evening w the delightful concert by the Foot Guard Band. This was er joved by as many people outside the enclosure

The grounds were enclosed with can vas and brilliantly illuminated with electric lights. A platform was erected for the band directly in front of the Cheney Hall por ico. Ice c eam, lemonade, soda water, ice cre im cones, fectionery and home made cakes were sold on the grounds. Over 1000 seats were placed on the lawn.

The Manchester Business Meu's As ociation inaugurated and managed the affair and was ably assisted by the members of the Educational Ciub. Young ladies about town rerved the refreshments. The tables and booths w.re attractively decorated with a pr. fu ion of flowers and Mountain laurel Connecticut's sate firmat. Te fes tivities continu d until 10.20. The cakes remaining after all had been served were sold at anction and bidder were abunden. Not a cake was left after Auctio eer Robert E. Carnet said he fical "third and la t call and sold to John Doe "

The various committees having the m t er in charge workel faithfully and diligently for the we fare of the movemeet in general and their efforts were well rewarded.

Light showers from seven to eigh prevented many from attending. After eight the weather was plea ant and everything connected with th big lawn festival passed off in an

Some Interesting Information N ORDER to live efficiently, we must keep ourselves physically freshested and mentally poised. The struggle for mere possession of objects should not master completely our time and strength. The daily routine of work may be our immediate interest, but it is not the soal, for all work, play, rest and hospitality should combine to make of the home a suitable fortress of strength to the community, standing for wholesome living, clean ideals and unselfish public service."

Manchester 4—Thompsonville 3

The Manchester team played their first Saturday gome on the new grounds last Sa'u: day and defeated the Thompsonville t am 4 to 3. There was a crowd of 600 present. The game was pec'el after the players get a little more caching and training. The Thompsonville team had the lead up to the to win the game.

The visitors secred their, first run in the fourth. G. Ganner was pis ed and went to recond on a sacrifice by Otis. Colligan then hit to left field and G. Ganner scored from second. The text two men were easy outs. In the s xth they added another. After Haverty had been retir d at first G. Ganner was given a life on Edgar's error. A fielder's choice advanced him to third and Colligan made his second hit of the game scoting G. Ganner.

Manchester did all her scoring in the eventh. Two hits, three errors and a pass did the trick. Strange hit to certer field for a safe one. Schendall hit a hot one to Jennings and the latter fumbled the ball, Strange taking second | and Schendal being safe at first. Schieldge waited for four wide ones and the bases were full. Howard hit to second and in his anxiety to make a double Haver y fumbled the ball and two rons scored and Howard reached first. Carney struck out. Robinson hit a nice one to left center and Schieldge and Howard scored.
