Some of the box people in America have refused to drink liquor. Abraham Lincoln was many years an active member of a temperance society, and never drank intoxicants. Many governors of American states are and have been total abstainers. There is a large temperance organization among the members of the Congress at Wash-

Most of the American churches do not even use wine at their Eucharist service and insist that the dergyman and layman shall take no iquor. The American public schools all teach the children that drinks containing alcohol are injurious to every part of the body. For the sake of these children we must do all we can to encourage them to forever let liquor alone.

It is always safe not to drink liquor. Why not agree to let liquor alone. Why not agree to make it easier for the other fellow who wants to let it alone by oting the Licensed Saloon out of town? OF C. TO HOLD BOA NEXT WEEK
