Parsons Theater

Perhaps the most important dramatic event of the entire season in Hartford is the presentation at Parsons theater tonight and tomorrow night of Belmont's famous play, The Women.

TEACHERS PAID

The principal reason of calling last Friday evening's meeting was to approve the bills of the teachers salaries for the month so that the teachers might have their pay to $50.

THREE PETITIONS

Three petitions were received by the board asking that certain questions be acted upon at the coming special town meeting which will be held next month.

THE MERRY COURTNEY

The Merry Courtney, after its long run at the Lyceum theater, New York, will be given an early looking at Parsons theater with the original cast, ensemble and production intact.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The South Manchester Athletic Association has hired the building on North Main street near City hall.

CONVENEANCE OF TROUBLE PATRONS

The board unanimously voted to instruct the Commission company to adopt its former system of stopping cars at the Center so that passengers in motorcars will not have to walk.
