among the voters of this town a copy of a measure that is now before the State Legislature which purports to be amendment to our town charter. It will be recalled that a special town meeting was held several weeks ago to consider the report of a special committee raised for the purpose of preparing such proposed changes in the town charter as were sought by some officials and citizens of the town. The various proposals were then discussed and changed to conform to the expressed will of the majority of voters then asembled. The committee subsequently prepared a draft of the proposed chauges and submitted it to the Legislature through the Committee on Cities and Boroughs who in turn have reported to the House that the bill ought to pass. The amendment now before the House is presented to the voters of this town for their consideration. A special town meeting is to be called soon to vote by secret ballot upon the adoption or rejection of this proposed amendment, It is to voted be upon section by section and the fate of the several sections will be determined separately by a "yes" or "no" vote before the changed measure can be returned to the Legislature for further action.

The most important features of th proposed amendment are intended to confer upon the boards of relectmen of this town all the powers now possessed by the common council of cities under Section 2610 of the general statutes, which is printed in full, as follows: Section 2610 of the General Statutes provides as follows

Powers of Common The Common Council of each provide for the examination of all plans and specifications of projoced buildings; provide for the inspection of all buildings in process of erection; make general rules regarding the materials to be used in building and the manner of using the same; prohibit the erection of any building not in conformity with such rules or the plans and specifications of which shall not have been examined and approved in accordance with such ordinances; and provide for the appointment of an inspector of buildings. which we are it will be noted in reading the printshowing in this ed bopy sent voters, Section 18, that The Town of Manchester may adopt Live Store there the provisions of Chapter 241 of the Public Acts at any town meeting dally is reflected a warned and held for that purpose." It may be said briefly in explantion great deal of the of Chapter 241 that it is known as "The Tenement House Act" and is a very lengthy document covering more than season's happieight pages of the book. It defines a tenement house as being one used jointly and at the same time by three or more families and has to do by three or more families and his to do with rules and regulations governing the construction of same. It names the dimensions of rooms, the height of ceilings, the number and size of windowr, the ventilation of tollets, the size of halls, the construction of cellars, the size of lots, the size of courts, frontal or enclosed, the size of yards front

It also provides for the inspection of all such buildings in course of con-It will be a real all such buildings in course of con-struction by building and plumbing inspectors, boards of health etc., in-dicates the materials that must be used to buildings and insists upon the securing of a building permit before any construction may be started.
