Everyone knew that this game would be a corking good one and they were certainly not disappointed in their opinions. In spite of the fine skating which would naturally call people away, about 450 came to the Armory last Tuesday night to see this exciting game between Middletown and G. Duffer Martin and Joe Madden stuck like glue to their men and played the game as if they just had to win it. Joe made a number of "hard luck" shots during the game, that is the ball almost always went into the basket but hounded out again. Johnson helped out wonderfully because all shots that did not quite go through the basket har would make good by stepping up and poking them in. But Crockett was the poking them in. wonderful successes on the legitimate tage His first effort in vaudeville is a remarkable sketch. Beauty Is Only Skin Deep and this act heads the bill at Polis theater, Hartford, next week, pening with the Monday matinee and continuing twice daily throughout the week. That Mr. Brady would naturally give this sketch a wonderful presentation is but natural because of his experience in show business. That he has given it such a presentation is the unanimous verdict of all the critics who have witnessed the production. It is far more elaborate than anything that has yet been seen in this line and the company that is seen in the act is chosen from the legitimate field insuring a faultless production. The Olympic Trio will be seen in a sensational acrobatic act that introduces many new stunts in this line. Sam Barton is a tramp move is a barrel of laughter. Leona Stevens, a winsome singing comedienne makes a dandy stage appearance and will be seen in a singing and piane act, this trio being one of the cleverest in vaudeville. Cantwell and Walker will undoubtedly prove among the big hits of the bill in their singing and talking skit, The Gay White Way. Mr. Cantwell was formerly a member of the famous team of McKay and Cant. Northern Lights. Seats on sale Sat. ly entertainers appear. well and is well remembered by Poli patrons.
