there are several styles that look well with it. The handsomest is the Roman striped girdle showing brilliant colors. This is made of ribbon about eight inches wide, finished with a loop and short ends at the front.

A crushed girdle of brocaded ribbon in the rich colors of the season, fastened with a black velvet buckle at the left side, is very pretty. It has no ends, but is finished with an overlapping ruffle.

All good books reward that kind of reading though the greatest usually do.

It is, at any rate, a kind of reading too much out of fashion nowadays, mainly because there is so much to read that it is difficult to let the mass go and concentrate on one author, one book, one page, one word. A fine old classical professor, used to grow indignant at proposals to teach boys to read Greek like English; it would be A girdle made of black satin ribbon more to the point, he said, if we could shows a value greater than the laid in folds about the waist and fin-ished with a single long tab, makes a We can hardly expect them to for quiet finish. Getting Even With Hubby. A young married couple of Baltimore recently had a dispute concerning the biscuit served for breakfast. The husband offered certain tart observations touching his wife's culinary ability, referring, of course, to the "kind that mother used to make." This sally moved the wife to action, with the result that the next morning she set before the complaining husband a plate of hot biacuits alleged to be the real thing.

"Now you've hit it!" exclaimed he Now you've hit it!" exclaimed he after disposing of one biscuit. "These biscuits are exactly like the sort my mother used to make. How did you happen to hit upon the recipe?" Food poisoning according to the ablest physicians and health experts, is the cause of nine-tenths of the diseases that handicap the human race. The walls of the small intestines are lined with millions of small veins which take up nourishment from the digested food. From these veins this nourishment is poured as a part of the blood into the heart and distributes though the arteries to every part of the body.

Keep your stomach healthy by eating more Goetz's bread instead of so much meat and other heavy foods. You get all the nourishment the body requires without loading and clogging the system with indigestible and poisonous food.

I used to welcome warm July
With all its gladoess and its glosy;
I used to hoist my banner high
And read again the thrilling story;
I used to think the world was no'er
So fair or free from digmal days
As to July and, often ere
This I have yielded it my praise.

Twee in a glad July that we
First waded in the sex together.
Forgetting in our youthful glee
How much depended on the weather.
The clouds were high, the scene water to the sexual we piled up castles on the sands and set in peaceful nooks at night, ignoring care and holding hands.

Twee in July that she and I
Found fair wild roses in the hedges.
And from a bountiful sipply
Exchanged a lot of sacred piedges:
Enriched with undiluted joy.
We did not fear and never guessed
That hard conditions might destroy
The gladness which we then possesses

At present of its former splendor;
Within my breast there is no place
Left for emotions that are tender;
Around us gleeful children play.
Our prestly cottage brightening.
But in July we have to pay
