Food poisoning according to the ablest physicians and health experts, is the cause of nine-tenths of the diseases that handicap the human race. The walls of the small intestines are lined with millions of small veins which take up nourishment from the digested food. From these veins this nourishment is poured as a part of the blood into the heart and distributes though the arteries to every part of the body.

Keep your stomach healthy by eating more Goetz's bread instead of so much meat and other heavy foods. You get all the nourishment the body requires without loading and clogging the system with indigestible and poisonous food.

A charming small hat of velvet is illustrated here. The narrow turned up brim terminates in points in front and on these are adjusted feather fancies. Versatile Children Some people complain that children nowadays are taught too many things -that they act a smattering of ever so many subjects and learn none of them properly-that they are made jacks of all trades and masters of none. To get on well in the world one must learn one thing and learn it thoroughly, but grubbing up money is not ev erything. One wants to make the most of life as one goes through it, and the way to do that is to have as many wide and varied interests as possible. It is well to teach children something of books and pictures, music, nature, and women than to be only rich. One of the simplest means of effecting a saving of gas is to plan to cook that require a long, slow fire, such as baked beans, brown bread or rice pud-
