The regular dividends to be credited by the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company in 1915 to premium paying Life and Endowment policies will be increased very substantially over those payable on similar policies in 1914. This is the third increase in the Mutual Benefit's dividend scale during the past six years. In addition, three Special Dividends, aggregating $2,403,000, have been declared since 1909.

The several increases in the Mutual Benefit's dividend scale and the declaration of special dividends have followed the establishment of contingency reserves computed upon a mathematical basis, and which, in the light of past experience, are amply sufficient to protect the Mutual Benefit against those contingencies to which all life insurance companies are

The board of selectmen in special session at the Hall of Records last evening, after a conference with Charity Superintendent John S. Ris'ey, voted to pay Mr. Risley an extra compensation of $200 per year. This extra money is for the delivery of groceries. money is for the delivery of groceries and other necessities to the town dependents. The board at its session last week voted to have the supplies delivered and it was brought out at that time that Mr. Risley would seek for 1909 was $16,098.61; 1910, $12,308.94
