Why Traveling Men Shun The Dry Town

THE traveling man is th advance guard of better business. He is the good fellow who practices true temperance by drinking healthful, mild beer

He is the man who, pri vileged to drink his beer openly, never abuses that privilege, and who gets out and gladly boosts a town or quietly knocks it; who brings business to the live town and keeps it away rom the place where investment and expansion are discouraged. He shuns the dry and backward town that has nothing to offer but the "blind pig" and the "speak-easy." In so doing, he voices the sentiment of all other progressive business men. —Advertisement.

Can God Be Tempted With Evil?

To imagine that God wills war is to imagine that God wills war is to ascribe to Him the authorship and eon sequent responsibility of all the unutterable suffering, misery, and horrors of modern Satanic warfare. How blinds are they to God's true character and plan, that maintain He wills to make four-fifths of the great human family drink bitter dregs from the cup of sor row and misery resulting directly from in the Salvation Army, Hi!
