

THE BEST OF ALL

Breakfast foods, is bread. Bread is higher in nutritive material than any of the so-called breakfast foods and it is much cheaper.

Besides bread may be served in just as many tempting ways.

Nothing is better or easier to digest than milk and bread, or bread toasted to a golden brown and spread with butter-or bread fried in egg batter.

In fact, there's nothing that can take the place of bread at any meal and there are many things that bread can take the place of.

Goetz's bread is the best, lightest and most wholesome of all foods.

Polly's Christmas Stocking

By BERTHA M. MASTERS

POLLY DANE sat up in bed and blinked her sleepy eyes. The stockings were very quiet, except for the snapping of the ends in the stove.

It was Christmas eve and it seemed to Polly that she had been asleep for hours, yet only looming evening times.

She looked at the stockings and thought about Lancelotti's stockings.

She thought of the stockings she had bought for her mother and father.

She thought of the stockings she had bought for her little brother.

She thought of the stockings she had bought for her little sister.

SINCE TAKING PERUNA

I can say my bowels are much more regular. My heart is stronger. My appetite is much better. My throat is much better.

Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, 20 Myrtle St., Beverly, Mass., writes: "I have taken four bottles of Peruna, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrh of the head and throat. I recommend Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh. I do not think I ever felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can do. I do not think too much praise can be said for Peruna."

Those who object to fluid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

Mack Sends Providence Fighter To Canvas In Third Round

The first boxing exhibition given by the Orford A. C. in the Armory last evening was a bit disappointing to the management and the fight fans in as much as the two star bout ended in the third round, but while the fighters were in the ring there was plenty of action.

In the main go between Frankie Mack of New York and Johnny Moore of Providence the fans saw some real fighting for two rounds and in the third the Providence boy never had a chance although he showed considerable gameness.

The two most talked of fighters in the third round were Mack and Moore. Mack was the favorite and he landed the first blow in the third round, but in this they were disappointed.

At the second round the two started in to beat each other up and Mack had a little better success in the second round. Towards the end of the second round Moore was showing signs of distress.

In the third Mack followed up the advantage he had gained in the second round by sending out S. O. S. signals. It was too late however. The fight fans then started to bet each other the go would not last the round out and other figures in a four round fight calculations of a three round affair were nearer correct as events proved.

Moore was receiving a severe beating from Mack, the latter swinging his stiff punches to the head, which fairly rocked the Providence man. A clip to the jaw sent Moore down, but he was not out and took the count of nine before getting on his feet. In the next exchange Moore stopped one of Mack's straight jabs with his face and he was felled for the second time.

He was hit to his feet and was back like a whirlwind. He swung wildly and landed three or four times, until Mack sent him to the canvas for the third time. He rose to his feet as before Yonnart was counting, but he was very weak. On the next encounter Mack drove home the dreamland special. Moore draped himself out on the mat and someone said "he's gone" and he was.
