Musical Carnival

A musical carnival was given at the Salvation Army citadel last Tuesday evening in order to gather money to help pay for the big circular brass horn recently purchased by the band BARGAINS IN REAL ESTATE at a cost of $200. A varied musical program was pleasingly rendered and the citadel was well filled with an enthusiastic gathering. The Salvation Army brass band is very popular in South Manchester and when it annonnees a musical festival of any sort always has the kindly ear of the public backed up by their open purses. The history of all such Salvation Army carnivals here is that they are social, musical and financial successes.

Then there are many other style suits, English models with patch and plain pockets.

YOU CAN BE DRESSED IN THE HEIGHT OF FASHION For $10.00 $12.50 or $15.00 Not in a boasting spirit is this statement made. The goods are here to back up every word of this important advertisment. You'll pick a winner if your good luck brings you here Saturday for your Summer Suit.

Next Saturday, the Saturday before Decoration Day, one big special clothing day here. Special preparations are made to deliver better values and better selections. We had better luck this season. Thanks to the weather man. You will save money here sure.

The cool, rainy weather so far this season is a drawback to all clothing manufacturers. We had an unlimited choice in New York city this week of the finest Men's and Young Men's Suits and Top Coats, the best of everything, styles and quality. You have your unlimited choice this week at $10.00 $12.50 and $15.00.
