CLASS DAY EXERCISES AT HIGH SCHOOL TODAY

PLANTING OF CLASS IVY FIRST CEREMONIAL OF KIND FOR LOCAL SCHOOL

Class of Sixteen Blazes New Trails Likely To Be Followed By Its Successors—Established Precedent of Making Trip To Washington

The class day exercises of the class of 1916 of the South Manchester high school took place this afternoon at the assembly hall a portion of the exercises being held in the assembly hall and a portion at the tennis courts at the rear of the school. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the class.

The class of 1916 has made a record for achievement in which they set the pace for other classes. Early this spring the class made a trip to Washington, D. C., the first time in the history of the school that any class ever made the trip.

An interesting section of the exercises this afternoon was the planting of a class ivy, the first to be planted by any senior class of the school and a custom that bids fair to be continued by other senior classes. The program carried out was as follows:

PART I

MOOSE CARNIVAL ATTRACTS CROWDS

INTEREST IN VARIED ATTRACTIONS LARGELY AUGMENTED THIS WEEK

The Moose Carnival, which was continued from last week, owing to the unfavorable weather, has been attracting large crowds nightly to the Main street baseball grounds. Better weather has favored the attractions this week and as a result many people who were unable to visit the carnival last week have had an opportunity to do so in greater numbers than they have had in previous weeks.

The Moose lodge will add considerably more to its fund because of the carnival and the lodge has been given a big advertisement because of its progressiveness in bringing this big attraction to the city. Of the many attractions offered by the Moose lodge, the largest magnet of them all is the motorcycle race which will be held at the newly constructed track here tonight. Large numbers every night, and hundreds of persons have witnessed the racing of the motorcycles on several different occasions. One trip to the automobile appearing to whet the appetite for another view of this attraction. The Ferris wheel is also a big drawing card. In the merry-go-round, a big show is being put on. The prize wrestling and boxing are featured, attract large crowds every night. Some of the local boxers and wrestlers have appeared on the show and have had several matches with the show and have made good. The tennis show, the Oriental dancers have all shared in the big business since this week. The many concessions, candy booths, dog booths, teddy bear booths and others report big business this week. The carnival will be brought to a close tomorrow night and it is expected that there will be a large gathering present at that time when the town will say adieu to the carnival. The Otis L. Adams Greater Exposition Show, the amusement company which furnishes all the attractions at the carnival, will play in New Britain all of next week and from there the next stop will be at Bristol.

The members of the Moose committee report that the Adams show are good people to do business with. They keep their promises, pay their bills, and are very liberal in their dealings. There are about one hundred persons attached to the attractions and these people have left considerable money in town during their two week stay. They maintain their standards were large. The local Moose lodge has also received a generous portion of the proceeds of the undertaking and were not called upon to share any of the risks from stormy weather or other causes. They were guaranteed a liberal amount of money for having the show brought here.

It is quite probable that the Moose carnival, which is having its first showing this week, will be a permanent annual feature with the Moose. The lodge has pleased hundreds of people with its enterprise in bringing these amusements to this town and there appears to be no good reason why they should not become a regular Moose feature.

No. 2. This style exhibits a crowding together of some of the lines, more or less confusion of thought, and the occasional letters of words perfectly constructed and sometimes the words added and the lower letters low, it indicates an excellent reasoning faculty.

No. 3. When the letters of the small letters are large and thick, it indicates a large and strong personality and a tendency to break in carrying out an idea. True, the very small, low letters indicate a low power of application, but they vary as the angle of the pen strokes, the size of the pen nib, the pressure on the pen, the speed of the pen, etc.

No. 4. Even though this pressure is very heavy and pretty equally distributed, it nevertheless indicates a certain power of application and a tendency to act upon first impressions, to jump to conclusions and to be very sure of one's own opinion.

No. 5. The vertical line always indicates that mind will govern in preference to emotions, provided that the writing is not too loose or too close.

No. 6. This vertical type always indicates that mind will govern in preference to emotions, provided that the writing is not too loose or too close.

No. 7. You can see that in this the writer is upright from an angle, but the breaks between the lower corners, the wide-spread sweep of the pen strokes, the wide-spread sweep of the pen strokes, the wide-spread sweep of the pen strokes, etc.

No. 8. Good judgment is found where the words and lines are well spaced, the pressure uniform, capitals and small letters formed proportionately and in the same straight line. There are a number of points in this type which wherever appearing betray a high ability to consider beforehand and not to be hasty in any of the things which are written.

R. F. D. CHANGES DUE JULY FIRST. Route No. 2 Abolished and Partly Covered By No. 1 of South Manchester and Remainder Carriers. Postmaster Thomas J. Quish of the South Manchester postoffice is officially informed by the fourth assistant postmaster general, division of rural mail, that the changes in the rural routes from that office, as arranged to take effect originally May 1, will go into effect on July 1 next.

Under the original plan it was proposed to abolish R. F. D. No. 1 and substitute for it R. F. D. No. 2, retaining the latter R. F. D. No. 1. The carrier of the proposed new route would leave the office and proceed directly to West street and Hartford road to take delivery at the house of Thomas McCarthy, going west as far as McKee street, east as far as Dudley street to Lyness, to Center to Cooper from there following on the lines of old R. F. D. No. 2 until Highland Park was reached.
