School Events

By Gordon H. Thornton '17

The clocks in the Franklin School have recently been arranged to correspond with the clocks in the High School. This gives the mechanical drawing boys only four minutes to go from one building to the other. If a boy on arriving at the drawing room finds the door closed he must return at once to the office and give a satisfactory explanation. This new schedule is not very popular with the boys for, by the old way ample time was given the fellows to enjoy a little party because of the fact that they would be late for the drawing. It is now a grand scheme to break a few minutes which they did break a few, $15.00 worth in round numbers, for which they will have to settle. They also learned a lesson, for it is a point of much discussion whether "Senior Day" will ever again be observed by the South Manchester High School.

The first meeting of Boethia to be held this year took place today. The program which was in charge of Miss Olson was as follows: Hawaiian Waltzes, Player Piano; School Spirit, Winslow Richmond; Boethia, Gordon Thornton; Victoria selection, Debating Society; Ronald Ferguson; Advisory Board, Mary McMenamy; Wedding Dance, Player Piano.

The speakers and their subjects at the first senior exercises held this year were: Mary Anderson, James Whitcomb Riley; Jessie Appleby, Newspapers; Hazel Berry Military Training in Wyoming.

Miss O'Gorman is a graduate of the South Manchester High School and is also a graduate of the Anderson School of Gymnastics in New Haven. She served as instructor in dancing and calisthenics for one term at the Mt. St. Josephs Academy on Farmington street, Hartford. Miss O'Gorman is an enthusiast in this sort of work and is very efficient in her calling.

The South Methodist base ball team, champions of the Sunday School League and the Hallowes, will play the rubber at Mt. Noto tomorrow afternoon beginning at 2:30. Each team has won a game in the series and the contest tomorrow will determine the supremacy of the contestants. Finnegan, McKay and Schaub will be in the points for the Methodists, and Custer, Laune and Custer for the Hudsons.

Miss Annie Cairns '17, will not return to school until some time in October. The athletic association plans to hold a moving picture benefit October 30th at the Park theater. How many tickets do you want?

Manager Dalen already has over half the basket ball schedule made out. However there will not be as many games on the list this year as there was last. It is hoped that a winning team will be formed this year and thereby bring back the days of 1910-11 when the old guard was sweeping the state and bringing home the bacon. There is no reason why this is not possible with such good material as is in the school today.

The school paper will be out next week. On Manchester Main Street Mary Ann Friedland Susanna met Full surprise a person can Exclaim Mary with regret.

WILL MOVE BUILDINGS ACROSS MAPLE STREET

WM. RUBINOW PURCHASES MORE LAND FROM ELDRIDGE ESTATE

Will Clear Ground For Proposed More Business Block At Main and Maple Streets—Substantial Addition to Town Grand List By Next Year.

William Rubinow has purchased a piece of land from the Eldridge estate, located on the south side of Maple street east of the dry brook and nearly opposite the property which he recently acquired from the same estate at the junction of Main and Maple streets.

The plot is of irregular formation having a frontage of 67 feet on Maple street, 174 feet on the west line, 172 feet on the east line and 80 feet on the south line.

It is his purpose to move the tenement house containing apartments, feed store and shoemaker shop to the west side across Maple street. The large sheet on the north side of Maple street, which is a part of his recent purchase, will also be transferred to a new location across the street.

Mr. Rubinow has secured permission from the town engineering department to move the building across Maple street. He intends to start the work within two weeks.

This will leave him all the land on the north side of Maple street at the junction of Main, which has a frontage of 47 feet on Main street, by 169 on Maple.

It is his purpose in due course of time to erect a suitable business block on the site where the present building stands and also covering the open space between the present building and Main street.

At present the building at work at the present time developing plans for the proposed new business block which is to be erected adjoining the bank building on the south side. This building will be suitable rank with its surroundings and will be a substantial addition to the business edifice on Main street.

The location is an excellent one, being right next to the bank within three blocks of the postoffice and furthermore, right in the heart of the business section.

Mr. Rubinow is certainly to be commended upon the very progress of the spirit which he is manifesting and also upon the rapid commercial strides which he is making in this community. Starting with a very small beginning he has made a steady and rapidly advancing to the very front rank of the successful business men of this community. He will make a substantial and creditable addition to the trade interests of South Manchester, by the erection of a building to cost approximately $50,000, and thus increase the grand list of the town accordingly.

It will be recalled that three months ago The News made announcement of the fact that a bond for a deed for the sale of that property was recorded on the land records of this town by M. J. Lynch of Chittopee, Mass., who was the owner of the property at that time.

The selling price was shown to be $11,000 to Mr. Lynch. Should Cheney Brothers and it necessary to build more mills on Pine street this piece of land will be of very great value to them. If they should desire to utilize the land for construction of dwellings for their operatives a considerable number of tenements could be erected thereon and Division street could be continued to Pine.

It will be recalled that a few years ago they did this with a strip of land which they owned between Cedar, Cooper, Pleasant and High streets where they erected a group of substantial tenements which are in eager demand and are constantly occupied.

The need of more dwellings for mill operatives in that vicinity is keenly felt and Cheney Brothers will have an opportunity of making the land which is now unproductive yield good returns either as a mill site or as sites for dwellings for operatives employed in the silk mills.

Henlock Street Walks. William Nell, the contractor, has been awarded the contract to build a four-foot sidewalk on both sides of Henlock street for the entire distance of the street. The walks are being laid out to the property line and two feet from the curb. It is the intention of the property owners to have grass plots between the walks and a curb and when this is done the street will present a very attractive appearance.

The property owners are paying for the entire cost of the improvements, and the work is being done under town supervision. The property owners on Henlock street are showing a very laudable public spirit in improving the highway fronting their property and their example can be followed with benefit by other property owners about town.

All committees met last night and from reports rendered the arrangements are complete and the people of Manchester will be presented to them one of the best bazaars held in this vicinity for some time.

Word was received that the superintending committee had arranged for a most successful and enjoyable evening.

Rastus Brown will give the would-be pitchers a chance to try their arms before they try to play in the world's series and as an inducement he will present cigars to those who succeed in hitting his cocoa.

The refreshment committee have made provision so that no one need go hungry and have also arranged to have a very charming waitress.

The entertainment for the opening night consists of a minstrel show by "The Woodmen's Own Minstrel Troupe" and if you have the blues come down and laugh them away, as the jokes are sure to split.

Monday night will be free to all. If you are looking for any of your friends, you will find them on the board walk, as every one will attend the bazaar, "the Savin Rock of Manchester."

Naming the Aegean Sea. The Aegean sea is remarkable among the seas of the world for the obscurity which the origin of its name is involved. Even the ancients could not give a certain answer on the point. A popular view was that it was named after Aegeus, the father of Theseus, who threw himself into it when his son forgot to hoist the white sail upon his return from Crete as a signal that he had slain the Minotaur. But others derived the name from Aegea, a queen of the Amazons, who also perished in this sea; others from the town of Aegea, in Euboea (Greece), and a fourth theory traced it to the waters of the straits which the islands of the archipelago were fancifully thought to resemble.

Who is to Blame? It is a very conservative thing to say that there are four women to every man in the United States. Many people are wont to lay the blame for this upon the churches. Quite a number of them might say that it is upon the men. Some faintly blame the women for it. It is not possible that the responsibility rests upon our social structure—Bernard L. Bell in Atlantic.

Master of School. "What makes you go in through the kitchen?" "I don't know your servants very well," replied Mr. O'Brien. "Some way, the front hall seems kind of formal and distant. Around at the kitchen steps they've got an old doormat with 'Welcome in'—W. Washington Star.

Sometimes. "While—What is it called when two people are in the same room at the same time—mental telepathy?" "Glimmering," other times just plain embarrassment.—Judge.

School Events

By Gordon H. Thornton '17

The editorial staff of the "Socianis Events" has just completed the judging of the prize stories that were submitted by the members of the high school who cared to compete. It was found necessary to offer a prize of $1.00 to the two upper classes and one of the same amount to the two lower classes.

Bliss Mitchell '17 captured the $1.00 offered the upper classes with "William's Will," while Margaret Cheney '19 won the other prize with "Thief! Thief!" an exciting story. Both stories will be published in the "Socianis Events" and should be read by all. If you have not already subscribed for the school paper you can easily do so by getting in touch with any of the four subscription managers. Thank you!

Do You Know That It is dangerous to put anything into the mouth except food and drink. The Constitution of the United States doesn't mention health. No everybody can achieve greatness but everybody can be clean? If you saw a hygienic habit you may have—may health and you attain longevity? Railway cars would be sanitary? America's typhoid fever bill is more than $100,000,000 a year? The full dinner pail is the enemy of tuberculosis?

Card of Thanks We wish to hereby express our sincere thanks to all the neighbors and friends who sympathized with us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our dear father. We would thank in an especial manner all those who contributed flowers.

Evening Trade Schools The trade schools in the Franklin building were opened last Monday and yesterday and girls may be seen there right after night. It is a very interesting and profitable study in the several trades that are being taught there. There is room for more pupils than are presently attending and a great number of the openings for acquiring technical knowledge that is afforded by the local trade schools.

MANAGER HANSEN BACKS DOWN

No More Town Champ In Baseball Game Here

After waiting a lot of minutes and starting many arguments the controversy between Manager Joseph Tedford of the Champion Athletics and Manager Lorenz Hansen of the West Bards concerning the much talked of baseball series has blown up and games will not be played.

Before the Athletics had won the town championship from the Trumps, Manager Hansen issued a challenge in which he said that the West Bards would be considered in settling the town title. Little attention was paid to the challenge as it looked to some of the players as a mere bluff. The West Bards manager was out to pick up a little loose change by taking the small end of the receipts. He was persistent however and even offered to play for the West Bards on the condition that this time the Athletics be allowed to look things over and they decided to play for the entire gate receipts for one game and a side bet of fifty dollars. This Hansen replied that he would not accept the challenge and that this request was not granted he came out with the statement that he would play a series of three games for $100 and the entire gate receipts. This offer was accepted by the Athletics manager and it looked as though the series would be pulled off.

But when the managers tried to get together to fix up the details of the contest there was some hickling. Tedford had agreed to meet Hansen Wednesday evening between eight and nine o'clock, post the details for the game and arrange the money. Tedford had agreed to allow Hansen to see any players who had been in his lineup this season and in addition he could have the services of Hansen and Deost as pitchers. Hansen did not like the idea of Tedford saying who he should have or when he should not use and maintained he would do his own choosing.

Hansen wanted to use Pop Edge but Tedford would not allow this. Edge had not played with the West Bards during the season. It was expected that these fine points would be smoothed out at the meeting of the two managers Wednesday evening but the meeting did not take place. Tedford claims he was at the appointed place on time and waited in vain for Hansen. So the series has been declared off. It is claimed that some of Hansen's men would not be in town tomorrow for the game if the series was started and he would have to use some outside players. However the "nothing doing" sign is up and the season is at an end. Some of the Athletics will witness the opening game in the world's series at Boston tomorrow.

Kotch Leading Hitter In order to develop some good batters in the Athletic baseball team Manager Tedford offered a five-dollar gold piece to any player participating in the city of Manchester who would hit a home run in the season of 1916. The conditions liberal use of alcoholic beverages lowers efficiency and menaces longevity? Moderate exercise in the open air prolongs life. "Month breathing" makes children stupid. Fish can live in foul water nor man in foul air? Small pox is wholly preventable? The Constitution of the United States doesn't mention health. No everybody can achieve greatness but everybody can be clean? If you saw a hygienic habit you may have—may health and you attain longevity? Railway cars would be sanitary? America's typhoid fever bill is more than $100,000,000 a year? The full dinner pail is the enemy of tuberculosis?

Will Witness Opening Game This town will be well represented at the first game of the world's series which opens in Boston tomorrow with the Boston Americans and the Brooklyn Nationals. Joseph Tedford, Leo Egan and King Phillips of the Athletics baseball team will go to Boston tonight and witness the opener tomorrow.

Interesting Information Miss Margaret C. Hayes of South Manchester, teacher of Home Economics in the Franklin school in this place, is contributing a series of articles to The News each week upon the subject of deep interest to housekeepers. The first of the series appeared in The News last week, and discussed the subject of "Food Preservation." The topic up for presentation in the next column is "The Laundry." Miss Hayes is "Cleaning and Preserving." Miss Hayes goes to considerable trouble in preparing these articles, with a view to securing the public and spreading general information upon the study of Home Economics. It is a subject that will prove very beneficial to housekeepers. Miss Hayes keeps constantly in touch with the latest developments in this study and her articles should be carefully read and kept for future reference.

CO. G GETS MIGHTY WELCOME HOME

MONSTER DEMONSTRATION FOR RETURNING SOLDIERS

Bands Play, Red Fire Burns, Crowds Cheer Everybody Happy--All Return Healthy and Glad to Get Back

MUSTER OUT NEXT WEEK

Last night was one of the big nights in the town's history, for the first time since the war began the home coming of Company G, First Connecticut Infantry from Nogales, Arizona, where they had been stationed for the past four months doing duty in the federal service for Uncle Sam. The khaki clad boys, bronzed by the arid blasts of that desert country looked to be in the best of health as they alighted from the special trolley cars at Depot square and were met by several thousand townspeople who sent up a mighty cheer as the boys here in sight. Mother, fathers, sisters, teachers, friends, all edged their way through the crowd to greet their dear ones and it was a happy occasion for everyone. The boys were very glad to get back to town, were pleased with the reception which they met here and they were all glad to see the boys and girls and the hearty greetings of the townspeople.

At the Center all the available space around the big square was lined with thousands of people. The particular point to review the parade. This was not the case however, as from the Center down to the trolley terminals both sides of the street were lined with thousands of people. The Center a large American flag had been strung across at the corner of the park where the streets are placed and on the flag were the words "Welcome Home Company G." A strong searchlight on an electric light pole across the street shed its powerful rays on the flag and all could see it. The decorations in the park was also decorated, the national colors being gracefully draped over the shoulders of the life size bronze soldier on top of the monument, an overhead lamp which cast its silvery rays upon the statue.

All along the business section of South Manchester red fire was burning and the soldiers were given a hearty greeting. At the junction of Forest and Main streets a reviewing stand had been erected and upon the stand were twenty members of Drake Post No. 4, G. A. R. and members of the board of selectmen. The veterans were given a vigorous greeting by the different marching bodies, hats were doffed to them and they were saluted. When the soldiers came abreast of the stand, the "Vets," gave the boys a cheer and the soldier marched by "proud arms."

WOODMEN DISPLAY The Woodmen took advantage of giving the boys a welcome by stringing a banner across Wells street bearing the words "Welcome Company G." Red, white and blue electric lights had been strung across Wells street from Main to the Army to light the way to the big Woodmen bazaar which is in progress there all this week. As the soldiers marched past, the boys gave a look of pleasure up that street, being the first place they had it since leaving the Army for Niantic at the corner of Main and Wells streets. All the Cheney homes on Hartford road were illuminated and red fire was burning. At the entrance to Mrs. F. W. Cheney's driveway several of the younger Cheney children waved flags as a welcome to the soldiers.

ARRIVING AT CHENEY HALL As the head of the procession greeted the tracks of the South Manchester railroad the marchers were halted and backed against the north curbing and faced south. The Salvation Army band then marched past to the hall followed by the members of Company G and the committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The soldiers marched into Cheney hall as did the members of the committee. It was impossible however to admit outsiders although several thousand people stood outside as the boys marched in.

Captain Bissell dismissed the boys for a ten-minute recess during which the soldiers received the greetings of Drake Post and of the committee. At 8:46 the soldiers fell in and marched to the lower hall. Captain W. G. Cheney leading followed by the marshal, his aides, Drake Post No. 4, G. A. R. and the selectmen and the soldiers in the order of rank. Little time was lost in getting seated at the banquet table.

The Tuxedo orchestra provided popular music during the banquet, the soldiers joining in singing some of the lower hall. Captain W. G. Cheney leading followed by the marshal, his aides, Drake Post No. 4, G. A. R. and the selectmen and the soldiers in the order of rank. Little time was lost in getting seated at the banquet table.

A considerable amount of food remained after all had been fed and the boys were not given the boys any "hot air" nor detain them with any formalities. He was of the opinion that they had enough and his first the burning rays of the sun in the streets. He was of the opinion that some one should say a word of welcome to the boys coming to town.

SELECTIONS TAYLOR Selections Taylor said that the soldiers had already been given ample welcome by the demonstration which they had received since arriving in town. The heavy turnout of the townspeople, the hearty cheer and the decorations were all evidence of the satisfaction of having the boys back with us again. This town had always done its duty. In 1861 when the call came we were not found wanting. Again in 1898 we showed our willingness to respond to the country's call and last June also responded by sending some of our best young men to do service for the country. From the reports that have been received every man did his share and he was proud of them, as were the townspeople. On behalf of the town government, its people, the several societies, churches and friends he made them a hearty welcome.

COMMANDER KEENEY Commander Marathan H. Keeney of Drake Post No. 4, G. A. R. was the next speaker. He addressed the soldiers as "Comrades," saying that all who had responded to the country's call and did their best to preserve the integrity of the country were comrades. We welcome you back to your homes, friends and girls. We are pleased to see you. We hope you will not have occasion to enter the service again because of trouble either with Mexico or with any foreign power in this country. It is our duty to protect the integrity of our country. On behalf of Drake Post we welcome you home to your friends and families.

CAPTAIN BISSILL Postmaster Cheney said that we should honor him to whom honor is due. When the boys went away they left with the tears and cheers of their friends and dear ones. Now we welcome you back with respect and honor. We hope you will not have occasion to enter the service again because of trouble either with Mexico or with any foreign power in this country. It is our duty to protect the integrity of our country. On behalf of Drake Post we welcome you home to your friends and families.

NEW MOOSERS Local Lodge Regularly Adding To Membership There appears to be no let-up in the desire of the male members of the Moose in this town to join the ranks of the Loyal Order of Moose and at every meeting there are many new names being added to the list. As the regular meeting last Wednesday evening in Foresters hall six new names were added to the roll and twelve new applications were received and will be acted on at the next meeting. It is planned to have a big "Moose Night" next month when a large class initiation will be put on and it is hoped to get the Hartford degree team to come to this place and work the degree. The degree team of the Hartford Lodge of Moose is one of the best equipped and best drilled organizations in the ranks of the Moose in the East. In connection with the big class initiation there will be a smoker and social hour and members from Moose Lodge nearby will be invited. At Wednesday evening's meeting a delegation from the Rockville Lodge of Moose were present to extend an invitation to the local Moose to attend the banar given by the Loom City Moose the last three nights of next week, and particularly on Saturday night, which will be known as "Moose Night." When delegations from all the lodges in the surrounding towns and cities will be present.

The fire laddies made a good appearance with their lanterns and song books. The music was furnished for all night through the generosity of the several musical societies. Last night marked the biggest celebration that the town and ever saw and it ran a close second to the Homecoming Day celebration which was held at the north end five years ago. The decorations far exceeded those of Homecoming Day.

The line of march formed on Main street north of Depot square, and soon started marching all around Depot square that giving full opportunity to review the entire marching battalion.

SURPRISE OF PARADE As the line of march passed St. Bridget's Roman Catholic church it was seen that something special had been prepared. As the soldiers pulled up in front of the church the marchers halted. Rev. G. T. McCann had the members of his Sunday school on the steps of the church and the youngsters were waving flags. Two young women representing Liberty were standing on elevated platforms and in all it all it was a very pretty sight. Over the entrance of the depot leading to the vestibule of the church were the words "G Welcome G". The members of the Sunday school sang "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," while the soldiers stood at "attention" and the marchers and officers bowed their heads. Three cheers with a tiger were given by the children for Company G and the line of march moved forward. It was a very nice welcome and one of the surprises of the evening.

GREAT OUTPOURING OF PEOPLE At the Center all the available space around the big square was lined with thousands of people. The particular point to review the parade.
