A citizen's open meeting, unusual in character and of decided interest to this community is announced for Friday evening. Manch 26, at Foresters hall. On that evening Congressman Augustine Lonergan, representative of the First Congressional District of Connecticut at the national capitol at Washington, will pay a visit to his constituents in this place and will give an address. The meeting will be open to all citizens regardless of political affiliations.

Congressman Lonergan hen the advantage of having two years' experience in the Sixy-third congress, during which he came in bouch with official life at the national capitol in all its various phases. His topic will be: "Official Life in Washington, or Legislating for One Hundred Millions of People." Mr. Lonergan recently returned from mextanded trip to Washington, covering the inauguration of the President, and undoubtedly was in touch with the latest sources of information on the national problems which confront the national problems which confront the nation today.
