"ON GUARD"

The cast has been carefully selected and includes Paul Cazeneuve, W. A. Whitecar, who has appeared here or anmerous occasions in the support o many prominent stars, Edward Reese who recently closed an engagement a leading man with Amelia Bingham, Charles Barragh, who played the lead with Cohan and Harris production of 'On Trial" Wanda Carlyle, who was for eight years with Robert Hillian and played leading ingenue roles with Maud Adams, and E. H. Sothern and also played the part of Love in "Experience", during the Boston engage ment of that play. Ethel Wright who has appeared in leading roles in numerous Broadway productions and several other well known plays.

The scenic mountings are from the New York studios of Dodge and Castle and the play was staged by Lawrence Marston, who has Otis Skinner's production of "Kismet" and a number of other spectacular plays to his credit. "CHIN-CHIN"

Some idea of the magnitude and costliness of the Montgomery and Stone company playing "Chin-Chin" may be gathered from the fact that it is now ending a tour of 26 weeks and that the cost of transportation alone exceeds $100,000. The "Chin-Chiners' 'travel everywhere by special train and it is seldom, indeed that Louisville to St. Paul-cost ove $2,500.
