Valor and Value! The valor of a soldier isn't determined by the stripes on his sleeve, any more than the value of Hats is determined by the price on the Hat band. Valor and value are alike; they represent respectively what the soldier DOES and what a Hat DOES. HOUSE'S STRAW HATS bear very striking outward marks of superiority, their style is readily recognizable as "select;" they give the wearer a well-grounded appearance. But their value is in the sum-total of little details that give life to the looks and stamina to the quality. They wear, and they keep looking good while they wear. You simply cannot buy more value for $1.25 to $5.00.

LARGE LAWN PARTY AT ST. JAMES CHURCH

The first lawn festival ever staged on the grounds at St. James church was successfully carried out under the auspices of Campbell Council Knights of Columbus last evening. The weather was charming for such a feast and large numbers enjoyed themselves listening to the music of the Tuscoco orchestra, enjoying strawberry short cake and other home made cakes, quaffing cool and refreshing drinks, and listening to a stage entertainment.

The young women who waited upon the tables were clad in white and looked quite charming. They were courteous, affable, cheerful and did all they could to serve the public with pleasant and satisfactory results.

Andrew Healey of Rockland donated the use of the canvas for enclosing the grounds, and also the tables and chairs for the tables and 100 chairs that were purchased within the year for which parties and these were brought into active use last evening.

MILITARY PARADE FOR RECRUITS TONIGHT

Captain R. G. Rich of Company F Home Guards has arranged for a military parade and rally for recruits this evening. B. F. Holden of Hartford has accepted an invitation from the Home Guards to act as grand marshal in the interest of the enlistment cause and also to speak at Depot square on the same program.

As many members of Company G as can be secured will be in the line of march, as will Company F and the Reserves, the latter comprising 125 men. The members of Companies G and F will wear the regular military uniforms and carry guns, but the Reserves are not so equipped with either uniforms or guns.

The procession will leave Barnard school at 7:15, and start across town to Depot square where Mr. Holden will make an address. The military units will then counter-march to Center Park which they expect to reach at 8:15 where Mr. Holden will again speak.

Music is to be furnished by the Salvation Army brass band, and by the Bagpipe Band.

Up to this meeting 21 young men had offered their services to the United States government as soldiers for the duration of the war. It is expected that this number materially.

All who offer their services may not be able to pass the necessary physical examination.

ChENEY BROTHERS WILL PAY SOLDIERS Cheney Brothers have notified Captain Bissell of Company G, First Infantry, C. M. G. that they will pay the difference in wages to men in their employ having dependents and enlisting in Company G, providing that this proposal meets with the approval of representatives of the U. S. government. Soldiers are paid $30 a month, and Cheney Brothers offer to pay men who have dependents and enlist in Company G the same wages as well as a number of other benefits which they are now receiving while working for Cheney Brothers. By this arrangement it is believed that the 67 additional men can be secured right here in South Manchester, and that the families of such men will not be permitted to become dependents upon the government or upon the town.

This offer has been made known to Colonel Richard J. Goodman of the First Connecticut Infantry, and that official will bring the question before the men higher up for decision.

Lawn Party Tonight A lawn party is to be enjoyed this evening on the grounds of the German Lutheran church, Winter and Garden streets. Strawberry shortcake and other home made cakes will be served, as well as cooling drinks, confectionery, etc. Music both vocal and instrumental will add to the festivity of the occasion. The grounds are enclosed with canvas and will be electrically lighted.

DR. W. S. GILLAM CRITICALLY ILL

Word received from the Hartford hospital at noon today brings the information that Dr. W. S. Gillam of South Manchester is there in a very critical condition and grave fears are entertained that he cannot survive. He is suffering from paralysis and is not able to recognize anyone.

Attended Masonic Funeral The following members of Manchester Lodge No. 13 A. F. & A. M. M. were present at the funeral of James McCormack, the oldest past master of Manchester lodge, and one of the oldest masons in the state: F. A. Verplanck, F. A. Robinson, Harry Trotter, D. Henderson, Sr., W. E. Pickles, Arthur Manning, George W. Ferris, James W. Cheney, William Walsh and Thomas Gray.

A benefit entertainment was given last evening at the parish hall of the Center Congregational church. The proceeds are to be divided between the Red Cross and the War Orphan fund.

The annual picnic of the German Lutheran church took place last Saturday afternoon on the grounds at the rear of the church. Lunch was served by the Ladies Aid Society, a program of athletic events was carried out, and vocal and instrumental music and games supplied merriment in ample quantity and variety for the delight of the youngsters. The weather was charming and the event proved to be a very pleasant social occasion.

The members of the Swedish Lutheran church on Church street are planning to conduct a five-night bazaar in the basement of the new church. The date set for the event is that of the week beginning Thursday, July 19, and ending Tuesday, July 24. The net proceeds of the event are to be added to the church building fund. The Swedish people of that parish have created a handsome new brick church at heavy expense and are in need of money to help them to meet the outlay which the ornate structure entails. The members of the parish have made heroic sacrifices for the purpose of securing this place of worship, but are in need of assistance from the general public to help them along.

James W. Cheney set men at work yesterday morning outditching the grass upon that particular lawn at Main and Forest streets, and selected the date set for the event is that of the week beginning Thursday, July 19, and ending Tuesday, July 24. CASH COLLECTED FOR OPEN AIR SCHOOL

The News to announce the following contributions to the Open Air School fund.

Mrs. E. L. G. Hohenthal requests The News to announce the following contributions to the Open Air School fund.

Henry Morgan, from Club, $3.00 Louise L. Bartlett, 5.00 Eugenie A. Tinker, 5.00 This brings the total amount of contributions for this cause up to about $1,000.

Mrs. Hohenthal has held these latter contributions for some time in the expectation that others might be added before making them public, but it appears that the campaign is practically closed and Mrs. Hohenthal as treasurer of the committee appointed by the Educational Club for the purpose of collecting funds for the Open Air School has deemed it proper to make this announcement.

Should any other persons feel disposed to further aid this very excellent cause through the same source, simple acknowledgment of same will be made through the columns of The News at any time desired.

Playgrounds To Open The playgrounds on the East Side and also on the West Side will be thrown open to public use next Monday under the general supervision of Recreation Superintendent J. H. Mueller. Miss Nan Weldon, daughter of Dr. T. H. Weldon will have charge of the West Side Grounds, and Miss Pearl Dorgan of the East Side recreation center. The Globe Hollow swimming pool will be officially opened next Monday, in charge of Miss Walsh, the young man who has been so successful in this work here for several seasons past. He will teach the youngsters how to swim, to dive, and to do other stunts in and under the water. Miss Pauline Smith will be in charge of the swimming pool in the Recreation building for the season, beginning next Monday. Other recreation workers will be Wilford Clark and Miss Milds Bittler.

Strawberry Festival The strawberry festival given on the grounds of the South Methodist church last Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League was favored with fair weather and under great if not a fine success. The Salvation Army brass band furnished delightful music for the occasion and their efforts were well received by all present. The number of happy listeners was not by any means limited to those within the enclosure.

As usual the grounds were enclosed with canvas, were brilliantly illuminated with electric lights, and Japanese lanterns and other decorations made the booths very attractive.

The young women were handsome and graceful and served the feasters with delicious home made strawberry shortcakes, and other home made cakes, confectionery, cooling drinks, and were generally and freely purchased. There were 27 paid admissions and the receipts were $154.

The annual strawberry festival is practically the only means whereby the members of the Epworth League have of appealing to the public for monetary aid during the year, and the money thus received was very welcome. The experienced committees having the arrangements in charge discharged with efficiency, good will and success the several duties devolving upon them and their efforts were amply rewarded.

Helm-White William J. Helm of North School street, and Miss Pearl White, daughter of Frank B. White of Walnut street, were married by Rev. W. H. Bell of the South Methodist church yesterday afternoon. They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Helm are to reside on Ridge street on their return from their honeymoon.

the rarest days in June that ever fell to the lot of mortal man to enjoy. The weather man seemed to be aware of the fact that Mr. Cheney had started this work and the weather bulletin of yesterday predicted "Probably showers." It is a well known fact that when the grass upon that particular lawn is cut the showers have usually proven to be much more than probabilities. The record shows that for a great number of years they have been stern realities.

Mrs. Cheney to all who enjoyed the sunshine of her acquaintance and the generous warmth of her sympathetic heart. She never turned a deaf ear to the wail or woe or the pleadings of suffering. She gladly came to the assistance of persons distressed in this community, and many there are of the lowly in South Manchester who revere her blessed memory and looked upon her as a ministering angel.

We quote from the Courant: "The death of Mrs. Frank W. Cheney closes the earthly career of one of the finest women who ever graced American life by her choice presence. She was a daughter of Rev. Dr. Horace Bushnell and possessed many of his remarkable intellectual gifts. As the wife of Colonel Frank W. Cheney she maintained a beautiful home known far and wide for its delightful hospitality. Her brilliant mind, her keen sense of humor, her broad and wise interpretation of the country, her public spirit and her charming personality made her a distinct and admirable individual. Whoever met her felt that there was nobody like her. Dear W. Cheney came her late in life, after the most of those with whom she associated most and with whom she is associated in people's minds have already passed along with her. But all we know and will always remember her as an illustration of all that is best in beautiful womanhood."

EXCELLENT SHOWING IN RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

LOCAL PEOPLE SUBSCRIBE TO DOUBLE AMOUNT ASKED FOR

Campaign Concluded at Thanksgiving Supper—Total Not Completed Yet—Subscriptions Still Being Sent In—Nearly $74,000 Now.

In the biggest effort ever undertaken in this town to raise funds for the Red Cross campaign, the campaign closed at the Thanksgiving dinner at the Red Cross building last Monday evening in a blaze of glory for all concerned. The announcement that the total subscriptions were over $72,000 was greeted with thunderous applause. This amount is more than double that assigned to the local chapter of the Red Cross and demonstrates the result of hard work on the part of the canvassers and the generous response from the public. Starting out a week ago last Tuesday with the apparently big task of raising $35,000 the workers have come across with more than twice the sum asked for. All concerned are to be congratulated upon the excellent results which crowned their work. It was a strenuous week for many of the team workers, some of them devoting practically all of their time to raising funds for the cause. There was a considerable degree of satisfaction at the close of the campaign with the result of the week's work. As the funds started to come in the executive committee, secure in the belief that the $35,000 was at hand, hesitated the amount to be raised to $50,000. This figure was not only reached but passed last Saturday and at the noon day lunch the goal had been reached to $70,000. This too was exceeded when the reports of the week's campaign were announced Monday night.

THANKSGIVING SUPPER

A Thanksgiving supper was arranged for last Monday night, as a fitting climax to the Red Cross campaign. The supper was held in the big gymnasium of the recreation building and approx-

TO ARMS— ENLISTMENT WEEK!

CONNECTICUT'S CALL TO HER SONS

NATIVE BORN OR ADOPTED

THE CATECHISM OF THE HOUR.

Why Should a Young Man Volunteer in the Regular Army or National Guard When The Selective Draft is Coming?

- (a) Because your President and Governor ask you to.
- (b) Because Connecticut, your own state, is woefully short of its quota in these two branches of the service.
- (c) Because your state, a leader in every past war, and a leader in this war up to the present moment, has a proud record to live up to.
- (d) Because volunteers for the regular army and National Guard are credited to your home town and the draft from that town correspondingly reduced.
- (e) Because you have only until June 30th to volunteer in the regular army and because volunteers after that date to the National Guard are not credited to your home town.

What Advantage Is There Volunteering Instead of Waiting For The Selective Draft?

- (a) The honor of offering one's services.
- (b) The greater chance for promotion. The army of today will furnish the officers of tomorrow. Our drafted army will run into the millions. Who will command it? Out of the regular army and the National Guard must be taken the officers who will train and command the raw recruits of this huge force.
- (c) In the regular army the advantage of being under the pick of our officers at once and in the National Guard the advantage of likewise being under officers of experience, of choosing one's regiment and company—and with the special advantage of being with one's neighbors and friends, who will be by one's side in case of sickness or casualty.

since Saturday, and as the reports were given they were greeted with applause and cheering. The reports of the team captains were as follows: F. D. Cheney captain of Team No. 4, reported the largest total for the evening and his team was given a hearty ovation as they led the other teams in amount of subscription brought in. Of the total amount reported by Team No. 4 Monday night, of $2,600, one was a subscription of $1,000 from Paul Cheney, and another was from Frank Farley for $1,000. Team No. 7 reported $1,250, one thousand dollars of which was an additional subscription made by Miss Mary Cheney. The total subscriptions as reported by the team captains were $7,257.

Mr. Anderson then announced that Cheney Brothers had subscribed $10,000 and this was the occasion for another outbreak of applause. The donations from the societies, churches, lodges, and also the money collected at the Red Cross booth, amounted to $1,494. As these subscriptions came through the executive committee each team was to be credited with ten per cent of same, which boosted the team standing of each over $1,000.

SOME SPEECHMAKING
After the results of the campaign had been announced Mr. Anderson turned the meeting over to Rev. W. J. McGurk, who acted as toastmaster. Father McGurk was both serious and humorous in his words and gave each team captain to the guests in a manner which brought much merriment to all, except the captain who happened to be the one to speak. The team captain told of the work which had been accomplished by their team-mates and all expressed hearty thanks for the cooperation which had been rendered them.

Before introducing the team captain Father McGurk called upon Frank Cheney Jr. for a few remarks, stating that Mr. Cheney had never yet been found wanting in a worthy cause, nor had the big first which he represented. Mr. Cheney said that when the campaign was started $10,000 looked like a large sum of money for this town to raise. The committee took hold of their work determined to do the best they could and owing to the backing which the executive committee had received, the results showed that this town had more than doubled the amount asked for. He doubted if there were many towns in the country which would make as good a showing. Speaking of the Red Cross work, Mr. Cheney said it was a humanitarian work and some of the men from this country would soon be ministered to by friends from the Red Cross. We cannot all go to the battle line, but those of us who stay behind must help all we can. He congratulated the people of the town upon their fine showing.

C. Emore Watkins, president of the local chapter of the Red Cross, was next called upon and thanked all for their fine work, but gave credit to Messrs. Anderson, Cheney, Bowers and Father McGurk for the success, saying with that executive committee it was bound to be a success from the start. The team captains were given their say. In introducing Frank D. Cheney, captain of Team No. 4, Father McGurk said he was impressed with the democratic spirit of Mr. Cheney in coming down to the meeting that night and being with his team-mates and those who worked under him. It was a spirit which dominated all the Cheney families and was to be commended.

The interest of Mr. Cheney was shown by the fact that he came in after the luncheon was over in order to make the report for his team, despite the fact that he had attended the funeral of his dear mother but a few hours before.

Leland T. Wood, owner of the Folly Brook Ice Company, has purchased an automobile delivery truck. The sign on the vehicle is quite artistic and descriptive of the frigid project which he is dispensing to dealers and dwellers in and about town. He still employs horses in his delivery work, however.

The Center Flute Band, the Talbotville Drum Corps and the Backland Drum Corps went down to Naugatuck last Saturday afternoon to attend the state convention of boys' bodies in Connecticut. The local boys took part in competitive exhibitions at night. They went down in automobile trucks and returned to town late at night after the close of the competitive exhibitions of skill on life and drum.

Local strawberries are now on the market and the season for the strawberry festival is quite ripe. Although it is more or less belated it is hoped that the quality and quantity will be no different because of the tardiness of the season. It is usually expected that the strawberry season should come to a close about the fourth of July, but such is not the case this year. Native strawberries were retailed here yesterday at 25 cents the basket and the markets were unable to supply their customers even at that high price.

Beginning next Sunday and continuing through the month of July and August, High Mass at St. James church will be discontinued. All the masses will be held at the usual hours during that period, but the 10:30 mass will be a low mass instead of a high mass. This is the season when the members of the church choir have a rest from their labors in the church, as they are not called upon during that term excepting in the case of funeral high masses which may occur from time to time.

Don't forget the dance to be given at the Alpine hall on Eldridge street tomorrow evening by the Famioli Company. The prizes will be distributed for the best dancers of waltz, two-step and mazurkas.

E. Seatrond the fish dealer informs the News that clams are considerably scarce. The clams are persons needing these succulent bivalves for the Fourth of July should place their orders early. The wholesaler inform Mr. Seatrond that unless orders are placed in advance he cannot guarantee that the clams will be available for the Fourth of July. He will be able to supply them for the Fourth of July and the week following.

The general stores and markets in South Manchester are to be closed all day next Wednesday, July Fourth. Homekeepers will do well to keep this in mind.

Herbert B. House of the firm of G. B. House & Son, Inc., returned last Tuesday from Jersey shore, Pa., where he went last week to attend the funeral of his father-in-law. Mrs. House and the children remained there. Mr. House intends to join them again at Jersey Shore, July Fourth and spend the week there.

The collection taken at St. James church last Sunday for the Red Cross amounted to $100. This was forwarded to the diocesan headquarters at Hartford where all the Collections for Red Cross purposes taken last Sunday in the Catholic churches of the Hartford diocese were sent. Red Cross Sunday was thus observed in the Catholic churches of Connecticut and Rhode Island last Sunday and collections for Red Cross were made in each.

Announcement was made at all the masses in St. James church last Sunday that the money taken for the annual collection Sunday, June 24, amounted to $1,384. Additional sums are being received for this fund and the time limit for this collection has not yet been announced.

The Manchester Lodge of Masons conferred the third degree at their regular communication last Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows Hall. Following the labors of the evening a collation was served and a social hour enjoyed, in accordance with the usual custom of the lodge upon all such occasions. The social side of the masonic body is always well looked after by Manchester Lodge of Masons.

Dr. W. S. Gilliam was taken to the Hartford hospital in Holloran Brothers ambulance last Tuesday. The doctor had two paralytic shocks within the past few weeks and is presently in a very critical condition. Paralysis in an extended degree has come upon him.

The annual observance of St. John's Day by Manchester Lodge of Masons took place last Sunday at the North Congregational church. The members of the order assembled at Odd Fellows hall at ten o'clock in the forenoon, wearing their lodge regalia, and went across town by trolley. Rev. C. M. Calderwood preached an appropriate sermon. Rev. Mr. Calderwood is a member of the Masonic fraternity and is thus well qualified to speak on the occasion as one vested with knowledge and authority upon the subject and the celebration.

Voters of the Ninth School District will do well to remember that the annual meeting of the district is scheduled to start at the High School Hall this evening at eight o'clock. Officers are to be elected, appropriations made, a tax to be laid, and authority asked to borrow not to exceed $10,000. A successor to Howell Cheney as a member of the School Committee for a term of three years is to be chosen. A member of the recreation committee for a term of three years is to be elected and also one for a term of two years, to fill a vacancy.

Rev. W. H. Bath of the South Methodist church was in Boston, Mass., this week for three days attending a conference of district superintendents and delegates from New England churches of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Bath is a delegate from the Norwich District, and will assist District Superintendent G. G. Scriven in conducting group meetings during the winter.

Mr. Harry Trotter's piano pupils gave their annual recital at the home on Hill street last Saturday afternoon. A program of high class music was rendered in a pleasing manner. The parents of the pupils and invited friends making a gathering of some 60 persons, had the pleasure of listening to the music furnished by the boys and girls of the class. The efforts of the youngsters were enthusiastically applauded and they were given a great deal of encouragement and words of good cheer by their elders. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

George K. Smith the letter carrier is recovering from an attack of neuritis which has held him captive at his home on East Center street for the past two weeks. He has so far recovered as to be able to go out on his job, but he is still unable to resume his duties as letter carrier. During the illness of Mr. Smith and also during his vacation Charles Rogers is serving and will continue to do so until Mr. Smith is able to resume his duties.

The little daughter of Samuel and Mrs. Hamd of Cooper street was taken to the Hartford hospital in Holloran Brothers ambulance yesterday afternoon to the Hartford Hospital. She is 92 years old and is suffering from the weight of her many years and the weakness naturally accompanying same.

James Carran of 13 Oak street was taken in Holloran Brothers ambulance Wednesday afternoon to the St. Francis Hospital. He is afflicted with typhoid fever and is for a severe struggle for his life.

The general stores and markets in South Manchester are to be closed all day next Wednesday, July Fourth. Homekeepers will do well to keep this in mind.

Governor Malcomb has appointed Dr. C. C. Burlingame of South Manchester to the position of State Surgeon. He will investigate the prevalence of disease in state institutions in consultation with the State Board of Health.

Owing to the arrival of warm weather the young women have given up gymnasium work in the recreation building for the summer months.

Miss Pearl Dogan of Garden street has resigned her position as teacher of the Chautauque school in Hartford. She will serve as one of the assistants at the east side recreation grounds here the same as she did last year.

Joseph Litter of West street was taken to the St. Francis hospital last Wednesday afternoon in E. W. Post's automobile ambulance. Mr. Litter has been suffering with sciatica for the past two weeks. His physician deemed it better for the man to be taken to the hospital where expert care can be given him. While it is quite a painful complaint, it is not necessarily of a dangerous character.

Henry McConn of Clinton street resided in the ambulance corps at the recreation station in Hartford yesterday afternoon.

Joseph Madden and Frank Ediger, both of South Manchester, have enlisted in the ambulance corps and expect to go to France within the next four weeks. The young men are cousins and are graduates of the South Manchester High School.

While putting up the wiring for the electric lights on the St. James church lawn yesterday, Edward Bronkie, an experienced lineman in the employ of the South Manchester Light, Power & Tramway Company, fell to the ground from a ladder and sprained his wrist. The wiring was being done for the lawn festival which took place there last evening. In some way the ladder slipped while Mr. Bronkie was attaching the wire to the southeast corner of the church and he fell to the stone flagging walk with a heavy thud. He is a heavy man and was up about ten feet on the ladder.

Some three weeks ago Selectman Aaron Johnson received some slight scratches on his left hand. He did not pay much attention to the wounds at the time, but they became more annoying and it was found that blood poisoning set in. His physician has been caring for the wound and it is believed has it now under control so that it will heal without any further trouble. It is a slow process however to overcome a difficulty of that sort and is painful.

Elmer Anderson, Oscar Anderson, Theodore Anderson, Joseph Knobb, William Mansie, Verne Anderson, Victor Bronkie and Harry Russell will report at New Haven for duty in the ambulance corps next Sunday. They enlisted in the service recently and received the orders to report last Wednesday.

CHAUTAQUA WEEK OPENS NEXT TUESDAY

ON HOLLISTER FIELD MAIN STREET IN BIG TENT AFTER-NOON AND EVENING

Artists, Lecturers, Singers, Players Galore—Men and Women of Unquestioned Ability Coming Here to Instruct, Entertain—Bigger, Better Than Last Year

The long expected Chautauque will open in a large tent on Hollister Avenue, and two sessions will be given daily including the following Monday, with the single exception, that on Sunday, July 15, a special concert is to be given, the hours of which will be announced, and that will mark the only performance of the day.

An active campaign for the sale of season tickets is now in progress and will be continued until next week. Season tickets admitting to every session of the Chautauque entertainments can be purchased for $2.00 each. It should be remembered that season tickets cannot be bought after the course of entertainments begins next Tuesday.

There are twelve entertainments all for $2.00, which makes the net cost per entertainment to season ticket holders, but sixteen and two-thirds cents. The program for the entire week follows:

Tuesday, July 16, afternoon, 2:30, Series Lecture, Concert, Chicago Musical Club. Evening, 7:30, Concert, Chicago Musical Club. Lecture, "Bob's Soles," "The Mistakes of Life Exposed."

Wednesday, July 17, afternoon, 2:30, Series Lecture, Concert, The Arion Male Quartet. Evening, 7:30, Drama, The College Players, "The Quest for Happiness," a modern morality play by M. G. Donnelly.

Sunday, July 21, Sacred concert and address at hour to be announced. Monday, July 22, afternoon, 2:30, Packer's "Good Fairy Thrift," presented by the Junior Chautauque. "The Village of Ding Dong Bell," presented by members of the Mikado Co., the great afternoon for the children, and their own with you. Evening, 7:30, "The Mikado," presented by a full cast, chorus and orchestra.

Season tickets are sold by J. W. Cairns, Packard's Pharmacy, Grant Drug Store, Balch and Brown's Drug Store, and the Hollister Field.

Miss Ada Porter of Gardiner street will appear in "The Mikado" here next week with the Chautauque players and singers. Miss Porter is singing the role of "Simple Simon." Her many friends in South Manchester will be very glad to hear her sing. Miss Porter is a student of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass. She has been heard in the church on several occasions in the local churches.

Angelo Bosco went to Boston for the Fourth of July and imbibed some of the spirit of patriotism which permeates that cradle of liberty. He had a chance to get within hailing distance of the spot where the shot was fired during the Revolutionary days that was heard all around the world which awakened dreams of liberty that have long since come true, and which are still blossoming and blooming like the rose in several portions of the Globe outside of America.

"OVER THERE"

The Thrill and Hell of the Trenches Described by an American Boy

We have secured a series of six articles by Sergeant Alexander McClintock of Lexington, Ky., and the Canadian army. He has a gripping tale that every American will read, for he tells the facts, unadorned. Wounded, a Distinguished Conduct medal man, he was invalided home, but is going "Over There" again to fight for Uncle Sam and his allies.

Sergeant Alexander McClintock was in the Eighty-seventh Battalion Canadian Grenadier guards from September, 1915, until November, 1916, the last four months of that time at the front in France, where he gained the Distinguished Conduct medal by his devotion to duty and bravery under fire.

As his former commanding officer I can testify as to his good qualities, and I consider he would make a valuable officer. (Signed) F. S. MEIGHEN, Brigadier General, Commanding Canadian Training Division, Bramshott.

The English Trencher's battle cry was brought to the firing line. A description of conditions that our own boys will remember with awe and respect.

The Bomb Raid. The great preparations for the job taken behind the lines where the German trenches are still in possession. The story of an American boy and decorated him in a London hospital for gallantry. Interesting, intimate and amusing incidents told by a participant.

Over the Top and Give 'em Hell. The English Trencher's battle cry as he breaks from his trench. The honor and what happened to an American boy and decorated him in a London hospital for gallantry. Interesting, intimate and amusing incidents told by a participant.

Wounded in Action. This article describes the death of a young soldier and the story of a pal and the final fall of a hero. The story of a pal and the final fall of a hero. The story of a pal and the final fall of a hero.

Separated for Bravery. Home and the series relates in detail how England cared for the wounded. How the king and queen visited the wounded in a London hospital for gallantry. Interesting, intimate and amusing incidents told by a participant.

Shattered in the Summer. Sergeant McClintock takes part in the battle of the Somme.

We will print one article each week for six weeks. Watch for the first installment.

ORDERLY FOURTH NO CASUALTIES

The Fourth of July passed into history here without any untoward accident. The mills, stores, etc., were closed and the people had a lovely holiday weather. The police and firemen had but little to do, other than to be on the alert. The people were quiet, orderly and law abiding.

There were no disturbances or disturbances either on the night before the Fourth or upon the night of the Fourth. Extra police were on duty and all were clad in the green and blue uniforms of the Fourth.

There were plenty of places where fireworks could be obtained on Main street, South Manchester. The Magnell Drug Co. had a fireworks tent, Harry England, Jr. had two booths, the one noted above and another directly south of the bank. Russell's had one at the driveway between Robinsons Specialty Shop and the bank. Sam Reams had one at the Dr. Weldon driveway.

store at Main and Center streets, and all report having had a fine business. The weather throughout the day was mild and fair, neither too hot, nor too chilly.

CHANGES METHOD OF DOING BUSINESS Oliver F. Toop, proprietor of the Citizens Cash Grocery, announces that beginning next Monday he will give the public special low prices upon all products which he carries.

Mr. Toop wants to encourage women in carrying market baskets and bringing home their purchases. He can show them where they can save money week after week by so doing. His special lists of prices will be of interest to housewives. Persons who have no market baskets will be supplied with same at the store on Main street.

Mr. Toop intends to introduce it here, inquiring in the advertising columns of The News today.

Selectmen's Meeting The July public meeting of the board of selectmen will take place at the hall of records next Monday evening at eight o'clock. The board will have three hearings assigned for that evening on the assessment of the town for the year 1917.

FIKEMEN TO MEET IN NEW HOUSE SHOP The members of Howe & Ladd Company No. 1 will hold their first meeting in their new home on School street tomorrow evening. The new building replaces the one destroyed in the big school fire on October 25, 1916. The LaFrance auto pump and the new LaFrance hook and ladder truck were installed in the new quarters last Saturday afternoon. The new building has not been turned over to the district as yet, as there are several small details to be worked out before the building will be ready for occupancy by the fire commissioners. Watkins Brothers have had workmen in the new building hanging curtain shades and getting the new rugs and furnishings in place. The new quarters will make an ideal home for the members of the company, who have been without quarters since the big school fire.

Resolutions Word received from Collie O'Gorman last week brings the intelligence that he is about the U. S. Battleship "Oregon" in Portsmouth, Harbor. It is accompanied by a large crop of fellow students from Dartmouth College. It will be recalled that he enlisted in the U. S. Navy when the call for men was first issued. The boys are having a royal good time at present and are enjoying "A Life of the Ocean Wave" with all the enthusiasm of vigorous youth and resilient young manhood. They are all chaps who know no fear and who are eager to do their bit for the defense of the Stars and Stripes wherever duty's call may summon them, either in American or foreign waters. Collie is a sophomore at Dartmouth.

J. Frank Maguire returned to New York City last Saturday after a short visit with his wife and son, who are at the home of Mrs. Maguire's mother, Mrs. Sophie K. Yargues on Blauvelt street. Mr. Maguire conducts a taxi-cab business in the Metropolis and could not be away from his duties during the home period of the National Holiday.

Resolved: That through respect to our deceased brother our obituary be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that these resolutions be entered upon the records of this Division, published in the South Manchester News, Manchester Herald and a copy presented to the family.
