SOME BAND CONCERTS SALVATION ARMY BAND

A band concert will be given Depot square next Tuesday evening by the Salvation Army brass band. It was intended to have given a conert there last Tuesday evening but the heavy thunder storm then prevailing prevented the carrying out of this plan. It is a rare treat for the people of the North End to have the Salvation Army brass band hold forth there and no doubt they will extend a very cordial and enthusias tic greeting to the musicians and to their comrades who are to conduct the open air meeting on that date. The regular open air meeting b the band is to take place tomorrow evening on Oak street near Cottage. The Young Peoples Legion and the Songsters Brigade will conduct the regular open air service on Main street tomorrow evening in front of the Tinker block. Of special interest to members of the Salvation Army will be the visit for the week end of Commandant Florence Dean from Salvation Army headquarters, New York. The Commandant is interested in Young Peoples work and her addresses will be very heartily welcomed, especially by the members of the Young Peoples Legion and the Songsters Brigade, as well as by the more seasoned workers n the Salvation Army cause.

MADDEN BROTHERS IN LARGE BICYCLE SHOP

In the advertising columns of The News today Madden Brothers are directing public attention to the fact that they are now located in their new and greatly enlarged bicycle shop in the new Johnson block at Main street and that they have Isid in a large stock of automobile accessories, including United States tires, that they have the largest showing of bicycles in town, and that as usual they are headquarters for motorcycles. They are offering some bargains in secondhand bicycles and also in second hand motorcycles. They specialize on the Indian motorcyles, but also carry other well known makes. They do all manner of repairing of bicycles and also repair automobile tubes on short notice. They are desirous of interesting automobile owners in their stock of accessories and are in a position to meet requirements of such persons at short notice.

TO this world-call, have we reply Other than that our fathers gave? To guard this trust, what if we die If dying is the way to save!

HUMANITY hath instant need Of loyalty that seeks to serve; And even though death were its meed, From its ideal it would not swerve.

Patriotism "

OUR heritage of trust and weal

For freedom from Oppression's heel.

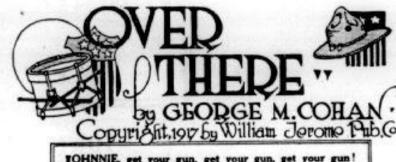

For Aspiration's wider scope.

I IFE would have nothing worth to give. Had men not for their duty died; True patriots would scorn to live If they the sacrifice denied.

Has now become the world's great hope

O YE who seek the soul's free air, Who seek the larger hope, arise! Who cares to live when Freedom dies?

OHNNIE, get your gun, get your gun, get your gun Take it on the run, on the run, on the run! Hear them calling you and me,
Every son of liberty.
Hurry right away; no delay; go today!
Make your daddy glad to have had such a lad. To be proud her boy's in line. CHORUS

Send the word, send the word over there That the Yanks are coming, the Yanks are coming The drums rumtumming everywhere. So prepare, say a prayer; Send the word, send the word to beware.

Hoist the flag and let her fly. Yankee Doodle do or die. Make your mother proud of you

An Id Style Ballad by Albert's. Crockett.

NOW, this is a tale of the great big war. 'Twas a maid in a hos-pit-al Who flushed when the Patient said, "You are A mighty likable gal!" A ND she was a red little, cross little nurse, When he paid the com-pli-ment: But she saved the Patient from the hearse, And he got well, and went. THEN off to France he sailed; and, too, When the call for nurses came, She started off on the ocean blue As a full fledged Red Cross dame. THE bullets flew, and the shells they burst, And the soldier, wounded, lay; -if I could be by a fair maid nursed, Why, I'd gladly pass away !" THEY took him back in the am-bu-lance To the big base hos-pit-al. 'Twas an awful wound, but his waking glance! "Why you're that likable gail" ND the brave little, sweet little Red Cross nurse Just woord him back to life; Then he wood her, for better or worse, brought her back his wife!
