Left Town Wednesday

Salvation Army is carrying on a mighty work of relief for suffering soldiers across the sea, and the call to the colors for young women and young men is insistent.

Miss Florence Turkington, Miss Myrtle Turkington, Miss Eva Platt and Miss Bertha Wilkinson, all of South Manchester, left town Wednesday noon for New York City, where they entered the Salvation Army training school for officers. They expect to remain there during the coming fall and winter months, and afterwards to serve in the trenches in France.

Mrs. E. J. Harriot of Naugatuck and her sister, Mrs. Edwin P. Brown of York City, also left town Wednesday for the same training school in New York City.

Mrs. Brown is visiting with her sister in Naugatuck and Mrs. Harriot drove up in her automobile for the visit, stopping at Hartford and then on to New York City. They will be accompanied by their family when they return to South Manchester and will be the first to return to their homes.

Going & Coming

Miss Edna Hall, private secretary for E. J. Hall spent the week-end at the home of her parents in Coventry.

Miss Julia Hogan of Cottage street is spending the week at Sound View with her sisters, Mrs. Mary Fraher and Mrs. James O'Leary. The party intend to return to South Manchester tomorrow.

Miss Grace Adams of the Ferris Block, South Manchester has returned to her home after spending the month of August with her father, Loran B. Adams at Central Village.

James McKay, boss baker for P. J. O'Leary is taking a week's outing at Worcester, Mass. He is accompanied by his step-daughter, Miss Mildred Morrison.

Dr. C. E. Hesselgrave, his wife and daughter have returned from Lake Powhatan, East Hampton, where they have been spending the month of August.

William Munsie of the Naval Reserve spent a short furlough with his parents James and Mrs. Munsie of Center street. He was here over Sunday but had to report back to his ship, the Greaser Karfurt. It is time that ship had a change of name, in as much as it is presently manned by American sailors.

Thomas Babo of the Warwick Inn, and Ernest Galinet of the New Britain Hotel, who are in charge of the trip to Niagara Falls and back in Mr. Galinet's Indian motor vehicle with side car attachment in 26 hours of actual riding time a distance of 470 miles by the shortest route, are about to start on the Mohawk trail through Massachusetts and returned by the way of Pittsfield, Everett did all the driving and Tom did his share of the talking. Do you doubt it? On the way they encountered wet weather and the highways were muddy. The entire distance going and coming they did not have a puncture or a single mishap to their machine from start to finish. The boys are very enthusiastic about their trip and feel that they have made a record for distance covered over the common country roads. Tom Babo says that Massachusetts has connected "beat-up to a frazzle" in the matter of improved highways. The boys crossed the International bridge on the New Britain side of the Niagara river, inspecting the horsehoe falls on that side. They did not take the gorge route however, and did not do so because they missed the most striking features of the trip. To go to Niagara Falls and not take the famous gorge is a great mistake. The boys will not be guilty of this omission on their next trip to Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Louisa Marchessin died at the Villa Louis in the Birch Mountain district last Sunday. The body was shipped to New York City for interment. Mrs. Marchessin had lived at the Villa Louis for the past six years. The once popular hostelry bears her name and was so dubbed in her honor.

Mrs. C. G. Nyquist has returned to her home in the Bronx, New York City, after spending four weeks with her parents, William and Mrs. Johnson of Sunset street. Mr. Nyquist was here for two weeks with his wife and son and returned with them to the Metropolitan Hotel Monday. Mrs. Nyquist is better known here as Miss Huldah Johnson. She was cordially greeted by many admiring friends during her four weeks stay in South Manchester. Mr. Nyquist holds a position as draughtsman for the Southern New England Telephone Co. He also formerly resided in South Manchester.

Edward and Mrs. Seymour of Douglass, L. I. are the guests of John and Mrs. Campbell of Cottage street. They arrived in South Manchester Wednesday and intend to remain here for two weeks.

David and Mrs. Ford of Spruce street have closed a delightful outing of one week during which time they visited at various shore resorts along the Connecticut coast.

Miss Estella Gleason of School street returned from a visit to her home in New York where she intends to qualify for the position of school teacher. Miss Gleason is a graduate of the South Manchester High School, Class of 1917.

Miss Mary and Miss Caroline Campbell of Leont street are back after another joyous outing in New York City, Rockaway Beach, and Yonkers. They also took a trip to the Albany bay boat from New York City to Foughkeapee and return.

The wireless station at Colton, at noon each day sends out broadcast forecasts of the weather in the Caribbean, south Atlantic and Gulf regions to aid shipping.

James and Mrs. Toomey of New Britain spent Labor Day with friends in South Manchester.

Joseph Uterer has returned to New York City after visiting with his parents in South Manchester.

Miss Hannah Wolfe and Miss Emma Bauer are visiting relatives in Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Leonard Richmond, the jeweler, has returned from an auto-trip to Bennington, Vt.

Mrs. Lucy Ringrose, the visiting nurse, is presently enjoying a vacation of two weeks. She has stuck faithfully to her post all through the hottest weather of summer, but now as the autumn chill is upon the air she can enjoy in comfort the delights of an outing. Then too she can better appreciate her home when she returns to the heat and many mishaps of summer.

Nathan Marlow of Main street went down to New York City last Wednesday on a business trip. It is expected that he may return this evening or tomorrow.

Officer Herman Schenckel of the local police force is enjoying his annual vacation. He has recently become married and has fitted up a home for himself and bride on Russell street. This he expects to occupy at the close of his vacation.

Mrs. Charles Carlisle and five daughters of Norman street have enjoyed a two-week outing at Crystal Lake and are now back at their homes in South Manchester. While at the lake they had as their guests Mrs. James Wright and two sons from Providence, R. I.

Archie and Mrs. McCullough of South Manchester have closed a two-week outing at their cottage at Myrtle Beach.

Making Voters

The registrars of electors will be in session at the Hall of Records next week Thursday from nine o'clock in the forenoon until five o'clock in the afternoon for the purpose of receiving the applications of all persons entitled to be made voters. Attention is hereby directed to the fact that no applications to be made voters will be received after five o'clock on September 13. In order to have a vote at the coming town meeting persons who have not been made voters should present themselves in person at the Hall of Records at the time and place indicated above and have their legal duty attended to. Failing in this particular they will not be permitted to perform the duties of an elector or to participate in the voting upon town meeting day. Do not neglect this warning. Remember it is for one day only, and another chance will not be given for practically another year.

Will Cross Sea

Dr. Joseph A. Higgins of South Manchester has been assigned to foreign service in the Medical Officers Reserve Corps of the United States Army and is among the first quota of medical officers so assigned. He bears a lieutenant's rank. Dr. Higgins has been in South Manchester for the past five years, his rank among our leading physicians and built up a lucrative practice. His brother is in South Manchester this week closing up the doctor's affairs and preparing to return to his home in Vermont. It is mostly piece work and the operative acquire considerable deftness and speed in making the selections and assembling the several grades in their proper places. The tobacco crop in the Connecticut Valley is a very profitable one, unless in cases where the frost or the hail destroy it before it can be housed and cured.

Obituary

WILLIAM FLOYD

William Floyd died last Friday night at the home of his parents, John and Mrs. Floyd of Pine street. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 10 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. W. H. Barbour, pastor of the South Methodist church officiated. Burial was at the East cemetery.

Mr. Floyd was a native of South Manchester, was 39 years old, was a South Manchester War veteran and saw military service in the Philippine Islands. The tropical climate of that Eastern country undermined his health, and he was afflicted with rheumatism and other ailments which he would be unwilling to accept $1.00 for the work. The matter was tabled.

E. J. Hall presented a layout of the proposed street, this street will be a general way, for a goodly number of years it presented a picture of suffering and discouragement to a young man.

George's father is in the service of two sisters, Mrs. L. H. Grob of Bridgeport, and Mrs. G. F. Webb of South Manchester. He never married.

SELECTMEN'S MEETING MIDNIGHT LAST NIGHT

WAS CHIEF TASK LAST NIGHT. Three Candidates Named For Police Commission. But One Can Be Appointed. Matter To Be Determined Next Week

The board of selectmen held a busy session at the hall of records last evening and were on the job until midnight. A considerable portion of the evening was spent in going over the list of appropriations for the different town departments for the coming year which will be recommended at the annual town meeting next month. Several minor matters also received the attention of the board.

Most of the members of the board were in a mood to keep money to be spent only where it was absolutely necessary. In fixing the appropriations for the year, the board was particularly anxious to see that the tax rate will go into effect. At the last session of the legislature a law was enacted whereby all appropriations made at the annual town meeting must carry with them a sufficient tax rate to cover same. The way the law will work out will be that the appropriations will be made at the annual town meeting the same as they were at the annual town meeting last year. After the amount of the board of relief have completed their report the grand list will be totaled and the amount of the appropriations divided into the total of the grand list. The result will be the amount of the tax rate for the year. The appropriations to be recommended are as follows:

- Charities, last year $17,000; this year $26,000.
- Cemeteries, last year $1,450; this year $1,500.
- Highways, last year $80,000; this year $85,000.
- Oiling last year, $5,000, spent $2,750; this year $5,000.
- Walks and curbs, last year, $7,500; this year $2,000.
- Parks and forestry, last year $2,500; this year $2,500.
- Lighting, last year, $13,500; this year, $12,700.
- Police last year, $7,650; this year, $8,400.
- Schools, last year, $10,288; this year, $12,281.
- Memorial Day, $150, same as last year.
- County Taxes, $2,449.13.
- Notes, $60,000.
- Miscellaneous, last year, $18,000; this year $17,000.

POLICE COMMISSIONER

The board discussed the appointment of a police commissioner to succeed Philip Cheney who has resigned. Mr. Cheney's resignation was accepted. But three names were brought before the meeting, Austin Cheney, George E. Keith and Maurice Newman. The board voted to table the appointment of Mr. Cheney's successor until next Thursday evening when another special meeting will be held and more names will be brought before the board. It is mostly piece work and the operative acquire considerable deftness and speed in making the selections and assembling the several grades in their proper places. The tobacco crop in the Connecticut Valley is a very profitable one, unless in cases where the frost or the hail destroy it before it can be housed and cured.

CRAWFORD Parlor Stoves

A genuine indirect-heat full return fire stove of our latest style—plain surface and detachable nickel. The smoke passes downward, inside the body and through ashpit flues to a fine under the ashpan then to the rear and upward through the sheet-iron backpipe.

The grate has a central portion which slides to the front for dampness. There is an extra large clinker door. The ashpan is wide and deep. There is a dust damper, useful also for heating.

The body is oval, and of the best plainished iron. The top ornament is nickled, with gold-plated trimmings.

Four sizes, 9 1/2, 12, 14 inches inside the lining.

CRAWDORD Parlor Stoves

At the meeting of the board of selectmen last night George E. Keith was named as a police commissioner to fill the unexpired term of Captain Philip Cheney, who has joined the Regular Army of the United States and resigned his berth as Police Commissioner. Austin Cheney's name was also used in conjunction with the appointment, but Mr. Keith felt when he came to a vote. He secured three votes on the first ballot and on the third six votes were cast for him; Chairman Taylor, who is Mr. Keith's brother-in-law, said that Mr. Keith is one of the South End's live business men and is president of the Chamber of Commerce.

NO BUILDING LINES FOR OAK STREET

The proposal for building lines on both sides of Oak street between Main and Spruce streets was settled last night at a hearing before the board of selectmen. It appears that the petition asking for the establishment of the lines had confused many of the property owners. Several had signed a petition, but when the matter was further explained to them they changed their position and opposed the establishment of any building lines. John Martner, the local dealer who recently bought the property on the southeast corner of Oak and Cottage streets was the first called. He presented a petition signed by himself and five other property owners on the southeast corner of Oak and Cottage streets, who asked that no building lines be established. In answer to a question from Chairman Howard I. Taylor of the board, Mr. Martner said that he had no intention of removing the buildings on the property and constructing a large house. His plans called for the construction of a small storage building on the southeast portion of the lot, away from the street. He was going to build in the house and intends to improve the property. Peter Signani and James J. Wright, who signed the petition asking for the building lines, the board approved their petition and voted to establish the establishment of any building lines last night.

Stephen Horns, who signed the petition presented by Mr. Martner, spoke strongly against the establishment of any building lines, stating that Oak street would eventually be used entirely for business purposes and the residential character of building lines would be a detriment to the property on the street. Joe E. Hawley favored the establishment of a five-foot building line for a distance of 75 feet on each corner of property and from that point on he believed the building line should be set further back. Selectmen Cheney, representing Cheney Brothers, favored a fifteen-foot building line.

In executive session the board decided to leave matters as they are and voted to establish no building lines on the street for the present. The board is in conformity to the wishes of a majority of the property owners.

FAREWELL DINNER TO DRAFTED MEN

The Athletic Social Club gave a farewell dinner at the New England hotel in Bolton last night to three of their members who are to join the national army. Landlord James Morynion provided a chicken dinner with all the trimmings to the twenty-eight men who chance to be in town tomorrow. The club will witness three of their popular members within the next few days, they are Joseph Farr, Charles Evans and Howard Marbrett, the latter being the star catcher of the club's baseball team. Following the dinner the members will pay for their own room. Funds have been their own contributions for the entertainment and refreshment of the drafted men. An interesting feature of the evening is being done to make their going away celebration one to be long remembered. Provisions have been made for a festive dinner to be in town tomorrow. Those who were in town tomorrow are assembled around the festive affair. A Word About Comfort

"SOCONY"

What you get out of your car depends to a large extent upon what you put into it. Just as a matter affecting your own comfort it pays to get only the best gasoline — SOCONY.

There is no gasoline more highly refined or more powerful than SOCONY. And it is the only gasoline which is always the same, wherever you buy it. That means a welcome freedom from faulty carburetion.

Look for the Red, White and Blue SOCONY Sign. It insures you more miles to the gallon and more power to the mile.

MADE-IN-CONNECTICUT WAR INTERVIEWS

Statement By Prominent Connecticut Citizens on Vital War Topics Have Been Secured By The Connecticut State Council of Defense. The News has Made Arrangements With The Council of Defense to Publish Some of the Most Important of These Interviews.

"Why Are We At War?" An interview by Richard M. Bissell, Chairman, Connecticut State Council of Defense.

Richard M. Bissell, the chairman of the Connecticut State Council of Defense contributes the following "Made-in-Connecticut War Interviews" being made public by the Council through the newspapers.

failure to measure up to the needs of the hour, means greater sacrifice of life and greater loss of territory and taxation. The men who have taken up arms to represent America in this war will do their utmost cheerfully and bravely, nor can we doubt that similarly they and the forces of our Allies will succeed in securing for us and future generations of Americans peace and the undisturbed right to pursue our career as a nation without fear of attempted foreign domination if, but only if, the rest of our citizens, men and women alike, with an equally high spirit of devotion get themselves to the task of supporting the men at the front with the sum-total of the moral and material forces and resources of this country.

"At the request of the authorities at Washington the Connecticut State Council of Defense with its committees in every town in the State has been appointed by the Governor as the instrumentality through which the people of Connecticut may take part in this great task. It needs and solicits the aid and support of every Connecticut citizen."

FARMERS ASKED TO DOUBLE RYE ACREAGE
A definite campaign to double the acreage of rye in Connecticut was launched today by the sub-committee of the Connecticut State Council of Defense, committee of food supply which is taking up the question of rye and wheat in Connecticut.

SWEDISH GYM CLUB WINS ATHLETIC MEET

"Pop" Edgar Proves He is Some Sprinter
The athletic meet held under the auspices of the Recreation Center of the North School District last Saturday afternoon on the West side playground proved interesting to a large gathering of spectators. The weather was not very favorable for athletic sports but the contestants braved the unpleasant weather as well as did the spectators. The Swedish Gymnastic Club won the meet.

BOYS TO RETURN TO SCHOOL

In reply to a number of inquiries which have come in regard to boys returning to school on September 12, Arthur Howe, state enrollment officer of the U. S. Boys' Working Reserve, said today at the headquarters of the committee of food supply, Connecticut State Council of Defense, that insofar as he knew there would be no occasion for keeping them on the farms until after a later date. The bill which was passed by the legislature last spring, said Mr. Howe, "was for the purpose of releasing boys for the spring planting."

CALL POLICE BY SIGNAL SYSTEM

Selectmen Working With Telephone Company on Matter
Owing to the large area of police-men have to cover it is often difficult to locate an officer when one is needed and some sort of signal system would save the trouble of for some time. The selectmen and officers of the Southern New England Telephone Company are now working on a system whereby policemen can be located by calling the telephone office. The plan calls for a signal light to be placed at the center, which, when lighted, would save a lot of time and should give efficient service, as there should be at least one policeman in the business section at any hour of the night.

C. E. Conference

The State Christian Endeavor conference is to assemble at the North Congregational church next month. It is expected that fully 500 delegates will be in attendance. A two-days session will be held. The ladies of the church will serve luncheon to the strangers within their gates. All the societies east of the Connecticut River, together with those of Hartford, New Britain, Meriden and the Farmington Valley will be represented. It promises to be an event of considerable importance to members of that splendid society.

The Selectman and Town Clerk of the Town of Manchester hereby give notice that they will be in session at the Hall of Records in said Manchester, for the purpose of examining the qualifications of Electors and Legal Voters and admitting to the elector's oath and other legal voters oath, those who shall be found qualified, on Saturday, September 22, 1917, from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Four-Minute Man
J. C. Tucker, director at the State Trade School, on Education square, South Manchester, addressed those assembled at the Circle Theatre Wednesday evening. Mr. Tucker was drafted as one of the Four-Minute Men who are selected to patronize the moving picture houses. Mr. Tucker pointed out some of the canes which drove the United States into the present world war. He showed that a government of 40 million people and that a government of 40 million people are going forth from their homes to do their duty. He showed that the people of this country are going forth to do their duty. He showed that the people of this country are going forth to do their duty.

The following statement was issued today by Governor Holcomb, through the Connecticut State Council of Defense:
"Secretary of War has appointed as a special agent, William H. Finley, Asa G. Candler, P. P. Claxton, J. Randolph Colledge, Jr., Mrs. Josiah E. Cowles, James A. Finley, E. T. Stetsbury and Harry Wheeler. The plan for raising this money was outlined to Governor Holcomb in the following letter from Secretary of War:
"Enclosed herewith is a copy of the National Library War Council's National Commission on Training Camp Activities, of which Mr. Finley is chairman and the War Department's Library War Council, whose names appear below, are preparing with the trained assistance of the American Library Association to place collections of well chosen reading matter wherever the forces of the United States are assembled in camps or training stations. The necessary books and the money to make them available will be secured mainly through existing libraries all over the United States, which, during the week of September 22nd, will appeal to the friends of books and of soldiers to give at least one million dollars.
"For the sake of those of this country's defenders who are proud to call your state their home, we respectfully urge your Excellency to pledge the people of the state to do no less than their part in this fine undertaking."

Each individual camp has its special switchboards with a trained operating force; the lines linking over the farthest outposts with headquarters and bringing all under direct central control.
Many new lines have been built to give ample connections with the headquarters of military departments, state capitals and with the national capital. This has required large additions to central office equipment in adjacent towns and cities and large increases in the number of operators.

Only by the most conservative use of every available resource can these great demands for telephone service be adequately met.
In addition to the constantly increasing needs of the government for telephone service and equipment, we must also meet the great and growing needs of countless industries expanded and accelerated by the war.

Mobilizing by Telephone
Scattered all over the country, in every State in the Union, are the training and mobilization camps of the soldiers of the Republic.
Here, men are being specially trained to lead; here, the raw recruits are being whipped into shape; here, men are learning the art of firing, and being drilled with gas guns.
It has been a part of the task of the Bell System to supply telephone service and equipment for this important phase of the nation's military activity and for the many camps where our citizen soldiers have been temporarily concentrated.

The Southern New England Telephone Co.
Only by the most conservative use of every available resource can these great demands for telephone service be adequately met.
In addition to the constantly increasing needs of the government for telephone service and equipment, we must also meet the great and growing needs of countless industries expanded and accelerated by the war.
