"I cannot understand," said Cant.

The war has brought the T. M. A. Into world prominence. Because of this prominence, constant questions have arisen with reference to it in the minds of the uninformed and some most ludicrous statements have been passed about.

For instance, we have it on the word of a good friend, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A., that a soldier in one of the southern camps came to him to express his appreciation of all that the Y had done for him, and said that he was doing all he could to help the "Y."
