COMMISSIONER BENNET WANTS WANTS MAIN STREET TROLLEY TRACKS CENTERED--NEW PAVING Selectmen to Call For Double Tracking--Getting Ready For $100,000 Highway Between Center and Charter Oak Street

State Highway Commissioner Charles J. Bennett is in favor of spending the town's share of the state appropriation on Main street between Center and Charter Oak and also in favor of centering the trolley tracks from Center street south to the terminus. This fact was brought out at the meeting of the selectmen held at the hall of records Wednesday evening when Chairman Aaron Johnson reported that the highway committee had been in consultation with the highway commissioner as to how he would recommend the town's share of the appropriation should be used.

Local saloon keepers have placed their stock in their cellars where they can easily see the location of the liquor office has a schedule of all liquors held in storage by the saloon keepers. It is not permissible for them to make a single sale from their stock without a license from the liquor office. It is recommended that the town fathers decline to call a special town meeting to call for the removal of the encroachments with as little damage as possible to the buildings.

Baseball July Fourth A fast game of baseball is assured the fans at the N. O. grounds July Fourth at ten o'clock in the forenoon. The Elm City colored team will then cross bats with the Athletics of South Manchester. This will be the second appearance of the colored players here this season. On a previous visit in the July Fourth game, the Athletics defeated the locals secured but two hits off Cannon Ball Smith of the colored team. He pitched a great game. Errors back of him at critical times lost the contest for his team. The affair was staged under the auspices of the Men's Friendship Club of the South Methodist church. The active and honorary members of the company will leave the home house on School street at 6:30 o'clock that morning and motor to the grounds for their game.

ICEMAN MARTZER MAY BE PROSECUTED FOR PROFITEERING SELECTMEN TURN OVER FACTS TO PROSECUTOR The evidence which the special committee from the board of selectmen secured at a hearing held last week with the ice dealers will be turned over to Prosecuting Attorney Charles R. Hathaway and it will be up to him whether or not action will be taken against any local dealer for charging exorbitant prices for ice. At Wednesday night's meeting, Selectman W. B. Rogers who was chairman of the special committee appointed to investigate the local ice situation, made a report for the committee to the other members of the board. Selectman Rogers reviewed some of the evidence brought to the attention of the board. He stated that John Martzer, one of the local dealers was charging an unfair price for his ice and that the evidence brought out at the hearing was sufficient to bring action against him under a state statute. Selectman Rogers commended the report of the South Manchester News which covered the hearing very fully and Mr. Rogers' motion the News report was approved and it was voted to turn a copy of the article over to the prosecuting attorney for his consideration. This action makes the newspaper article the official report of the board of selectmen to the prosecutor.

Town Fathers Decline to Call Special Town Meeting ENCROACHMENT SQUABBLE TO BE SETTLED BY COURT ACTION The board of selectmen held a heated discussion Wednesday evening regarding the petition of W. S. Hyde and other calling for a special town meeting for the purpose of abandoning a certain portion of land on the east side of Main street between Main street and Pearl street. The land in question is that which the town fathers claim belongs to the town and on which the Hill and Sheridan buildings are said to encroach. After receiving the advice of the selectmen as to the town council for advice. The formal opinion received from the town council so read, that the selectmen was to the effect that it is not recommended that the town council take any action on the petition of W. S. Hyde and other to abandon the land on Main street. It is believed that the town council is of the opinion that the town fathers are not entitled to the land in question and that the town council is of the opinion that the town fathers are not entitled to the land in question.

STANDS FOR ALL TIME

My father was married one Fourth of July... Famed Phrase of Thomas Jefferson as True in This Year 1919 as in 1776.

GOVERNMENTS are institutions of men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. This famous phrase was written by Thomas Jefferson in the preamble to the Declaration on July 4, 1776.

Mr. Jefferson, wrote John Adams his autobiography, referring to the events of 1776, "had been now about a year a member of congress, but had never spoken in the house a small part of the time, and when there, had never spoken in the house a small part of the time, and when there, had never spoken in the house a small part of the time..."

Now the Marshall, you know, is expected to be the most important in our period of war. It is expected to be the most important in our period of war. It is expected to be the most important in our period of war.

So, that's how it comes that the Fourth of July is expected to be the most important in our period of war. It is expected to be the most important in our period of war.

Independence hall stands not only as the place of rest for the Liberty Bell, but as the old Pennsylvania statehouse, and the building wherein the Declaration of Independence was signed in 1776, with John Hancock as president in the present presidency, and its equal red and white front and brick belly give it an air of romance and antiquity.

For many years it was unknown who was the designer of the old statehouse, now better known as Independence Hall.

Independence Hall. The discovery about forty years ago of the identical design, now in the Pennsylvania Historical Society's collection, set the question at rest.

It was not one that Andrew Hamilton, who not only held high office in the province but a lawyer made the reputation of the Philadelphia bar. This was accomplished when he was invited to New York to defend the printer, Zenger, and contended successfully for the liberty of the press, the first time the subject had been settled in a court of law in this country.

Nation's Great Destiny. Our country is a fact so fast, so tremendous in its import and bearings, that the nation has scarcely begun its career. Great as it is, it is but an infant compared with what it is destined to become.—Rev. T. B. Gregory.

FIGURED IN HISTORY

Old Blue Bell Tavern, Near Philadelphia, Is Famous Revolutionary Relic.

OF THE several far-extended roads reaching outward from Philadelphia, the Darby road leading along the highland northward to Chester has, from the beginning, been one of the most important in our country's history.

There is testimony that the first float bridge spanning the Schuylkill river was built on this road at Gray's ferry under the direction of Gen. Israel Putnam, and that a certain number of months later, the British out of Philadelphia. Captain Montross's clever engineers, however, replaced it.

The famous Blue Bell Tavern of Revolutionary Days. The new bridge was more serviceable than the old one. There was plenty of going and coming at Gray's ferry in the winter of Valley Forge, as a considerable portion of Howe's army was "hunted," as Maj. John Andre recorded in his diary, along the Darby road for three miles.

In April, 1780, the Gray's ferry dock bridge was decorated in honor of the journey of Washington to New York. At the foot of the hill, close by Cobb's creek, a border stream of the city, is the "Blue Bell" of Paschallville, now happily saved and safe upon park soil of the municipality.

It is said to have been the first mill operated in Pennsylvania. In Penn's time it was acquired by William Cobb, hence the name of the stream. The original Blue Bell tavern was a small wooden building, but the existing structure antedates the Revolution, at which time it was a popular stage house conducted by the Paschal family.

Continental's Dark Days. In the first part of the revolution the states were taxed to provide money for feeding the army, but later they were required to send the food itself instead of money. It was then that the Continental Congress fled to Lancaster and York, and finally to Philadelphia.

Birthdays of Liberator. The Fourth of July, as it happens, is the birthday of a great Italian and lover of liberty, Garibaldi, born July 4, 1807.

TOO INQUISITIVE PUP WHEN PATRIOT SPOKE

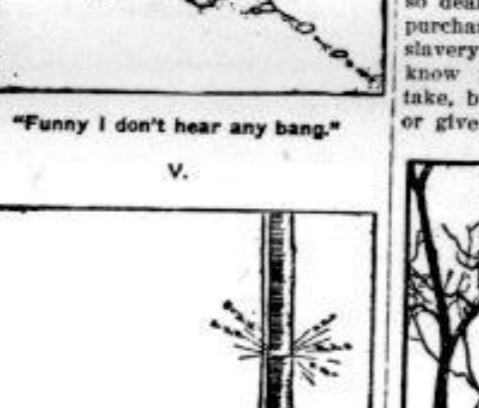

"Pretty slow—these safe and sane Fourth's."

"Hello! Here's something doing."

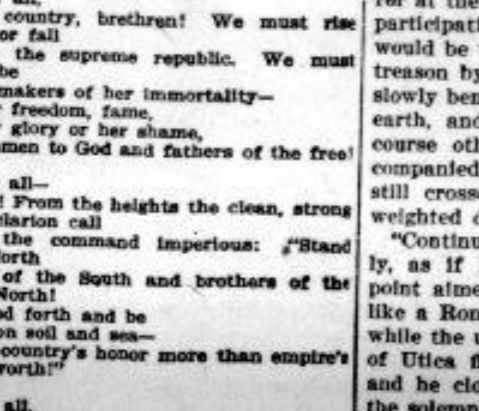

"Sounds like a burning fuse."

"Fanny I don't hear any bang."

"Guess I'll look into this."

"Stung!"

Ringed Words of Patrick Henry Are Enshrined in Hearts of All Free Men.

These were the ringing, closing words of Patrick Henry on March 23, 1775, as he delivered his immortal and eloquent address in support of the resolutions passed by the second revolutionary convention of Virginia, of which he was an honored delegate.

For six months the various colonies had been making military preparations. Lord Dunmore in Virginia went in December, 1774, to the east of Dartmouth. "Every county is now arming a company of men, whom they call an independent company for the avowed purpose of protecting their commerce and to be employed against the government if occasion require."

But first and most of all things yet, our own trust let us forget! Be ours to guard that freedom won at Bunker Hill and Lexington. Be ours true loyal hearts and freedom. True to our sires and true to Thee!

As a reminder of the dark days in our history, a replica of one of the bastions of the Hessian troops on Inwood Hill, Manhattan island, in Revolutionary times has been reconstructed at Broadway and Two Hundred and Fourth streets, New York. It is built of stones excavated from the ruins of some 40 of the barracks that have of late been uncovered on the east side of the historical ridge, and of timbers of a Long Island barn erected in the latter part of the eighteenth century.

A Silent Reminder of "Kultur" in America: Replica of One of the Many Huts Built by the Hessians on Manhattan Island in Revolutionary Days.

North Carolina was first published Declaration of Independence Long Before the One Which Has Become Immortal.

North Carolina not only disputes with New England the honor of the first battle of the Revolution, and credit of holding the first "ten party," but points with pride to its Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, antedating that of Philadelphia by ten months. The battle of Alamance was fought in 1771, admitted by at least one New England historian, Bancroft, as being the first of the Revolution.

DE GRASSE AT YORKTOWN. Presence of Fleet Under French Admiral Main Force in That Brilliant Success.

Without Washington should be given the credit of conceiving and planning the campaign of Yorktown, it must be recognized that without the aid of the French troops his plans could never have been carried out and would have been a failure.

Count De Grasse. "Continuing, he lifted one hand firmly, as if holding a dagger with the point aimed at his breast. He stood like a Roman senator defying Caesar, while the unconquerable spirit of Cato of Utica flashed from every feature; and he closed the grand appeal with the solemn words, 'or give me death!'"

Meats in Storage

Every working day of the year 75,000,000 pounds of meat are required to supply home and export needs— and only 10 per cent of this is exported.

These facts must be kept in mind when considering the U. S. Bureau of Markets report that on June 1, 1919, there were 1,348,000,000 pounds of meats in cold storage. If the meat in storage was placed on the market it would only be 20 days' supply.

This meat is not artificially withheld from trade channels to maintain or advance prices.

Meats in storage consist of—

- 65 per cent (approximate) hams, bacon, etc., in process of curing. It takes 30 to 90 days in pickle or salt to complete the process.
10 per cent is frozen pork that is to be cured later in the year.
6 per cent is lard. This is only four-fifths of a pound per capita, and much of it will have to go to supply European needs.
19 per cent is frozen beef and lamb, part of which is owned by the Government and was intended chiefly for over-seas shipment. If this were all diverted to domestic trade channels, it would be only 1 1/2 lbs. per capita—a 3 days' supply.
100%

From this it will be seen that "meats in storage" represent merely unfinished goods in process of curing and the working supply necessary to assure the consumer a steady flow of finished product.

During Wednesday evening's session of the board of selectmen Secretary Willard B. Rogers passed around cigars to his colleagues and to the members of the press. The reason was that a son and heir had been born to the doting town official. The babe was born at St. Francis hospital Wednesday evening and the happy father reported that "all is well". He was heartily congratulated by the other members of the board and by his fellow newspaper men. This is his first born.

ODD FELLOWS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

The members of King David Lodge of Odd Fellows observed memorial day last Sunday. In the morning the members assembled at Odd Fellows Hall and marched in a body to the East Cemetery where they decorated graves of the deceased members. Returning to the Center they were joined by the members of Sunset Rebekah Lodge. The two organizations boarded special trolley cars for the north end where they performed services at the North Congregational church. Rev. Richard Peters, the pastor of the church, delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

Sankey—Yeomans

Miss Sylvia M. Sankey, daughter of G. H. and Mrs. Sackey of 174 Oakland street, and Frank F. Yeomans of Hartford, son of F. W. and Mrs. Yeomans of Philadelphia, Pa., were married at the home of the bride Saturday afternoon by Rev. Richard Peters, pastor of the North Congregational church. The couple were attended by Fred H. and Mrs. Sankey, the bride's brother and sister-in-law. The wedding was attended by close relatives of the couple. They left during the early evening for the Green mountains in Vermont and on their return will reside in Hartford where Mr. Yeomans has a responsible position with the Underwood Typewriter company. Mrs. Yeomans is very popular among the young people of the town and for several years has held a responsible position with the Taylor Atkins Paper Company in Bernards.

Boy Scouts to Camp

The annual summer camp of the Boy Scouts will take place this year at Ayers Grove, South Coxsery. The camp will be pitched on the high knoll back of the Montic cottage. The camp will run for two weeks from July 14 to July 28th and will be under the personal supervision of Director, William H. Whitney of the Recreation Center. The Boy Scouts are now busy earning money to pay their way at camp. Each scout will be given a week's outing at the lake. A cook will provide all the dinners and the boys will give most of the instructions and will also have to take their turn at kitchen police and other work.

Replacing Knocked Out Teeth.

Teeth that are knocked out in boxing, football or by falling against something need not be thrown away. The bite again and tuck in hard again.

PEELERS PAY GOING UP?

The members of the Manchester Police force have petitioned the Police Commission for an advance in pay and it will probably be acted upon at the July meeting of the commission. Recently the selectmen raised the wages of employees of the Highway Department and others and at the present time teamsters in the employ of the town are paid more than is given the patrolmen. With the advance received by persons employed in other lines in town it is believed the petition of the police will be given favorable consideration. It is claimed by some that with the arrival of prohibition the tasks of the policemen will be greatly lightened and the life of a policeman made a bed of luxury and ease. In view of such conditions therefore it is held that there will be little difficulty in securing young men who will gladly enter the line and stand before the world as symbols of authority honor and respect.

Hill—Russell

Miss Maude E. Russell, daughter of Ralph and Mrs. Russell of High street, and Herman C. Hill, son of John and Mrs. Hill of Hartford were married Monday afternoon by Rev. J. S. The couple have a wedding trip and on their return will reside at 168 Cooper Hill street.

AHEAD OF THE SILLY SEASON

Discussion Arises as to Why Cow Invariably Starts With Her Hind Quarters Foremost.

Inquiring minds in Connecticut are grappling the old-age question why a cow, which is to say the genus bovine, rises from recumbency by elevating her anterior quarters first, whereas in some cases the process and it appears to have no predilection but to be solely concerned, when there is a prospect of something to eat in sight, is to get in motion toward it all at once.

Generally speaking, it can be said that a cow takes the method of the croquet ball for her line of getting on her feet, remarks the Rochester Post Express. The head-up procedure probably produces more stress and intense discomfort which she understands better than she can explain. It is upon question also if she ever in all her ramblings reflected on the matter; but it is clear that it is worth one while to do so, since it is only an inconsequential fact with an immaterial reason behind it. It is an interesting bit of information, and it might be profitable in imaginable instances to know how an animal normally acts and which is the danger end of her to be avoided. But to observe cause of it is of no apparent practical importance, for it is just one of those things that are so and might as well be so as anything else.

It seems fair from all that is known of the cow, to acquit her of any disposition to do things hind end foremost out of cantankerousness, or to class her to a notion or method through perversity or pride because it happens to be hers. There is no evidence of that, but others that may arise will find insistence in having her own way. She does the things that are to be done sequentially, in order, settles her pressing problems first and leaves the rest for others that may arise. Imperfected by memory, her way would be to fight them to a standstill first and leave for later consideration a bovine league of things to be done in the most possible order. Her reticent processes may be limited, but there is reason to believe that as far as she does see she sees clearly, never out of focus; that her intuitions are sure, and that, while she may sometimes seem to be, she really does things wrong end first or things to a course when consecutive reasons for abandoning it appear. On the whole, therefore, it seems profitable to consider the cow in the first place, her acts for Solomon in all his glory was not so wise in all respects as one of these.

RECALLS OLD ROME

Ancient Coin of Surprising Historic Interest.

Two Thousand Years Since it Came From the Mint, What a Story of Adventures This Token Could Tell!

A coin 2,000 years old, which may have reposed in the treasure box of a Roman senator, passed from hand to hand in the dice games of the Roman Imperial guard, been tossed to the rabble by a patrician as he passed through the streets on his way to the baths, or thrown to a victorious gladiator by one of the victors, now lies in the possession of Arthur S. Hibler, United States treasurer. It is believed the position of the coin will be given favorable consideration. It is claimed by some that with the arrival of prohibition the tasks of the policemen will be greatly lightened and the life of a policeman made a bed of luxury and ease. IN BUYING LOTS GET YOUR STREET LINES

Insist Upon Your Rights in This Matter. By So Doing You'll Avoid Trouble

A repetition of experiences as to hearings for the establishment of street lines, or the re-establishment of lost street boundaries has convinced the selectmen, according to their own statements, that purchasers of the building lots should be careful to ascertain before buying lots whether the street lines have been established. If the lines have been established the selectmen should ascertain where the lines are and how they correspond with the alleged boundaries of the land they propose to buy.

At a recent meeting of the board of selectmen, Chairman Aaron Johnson told the members of a case where a well known local man sold a piece of property and gave a deed for land which he well knew he did not own, for only a few weeks previous the town had re-established the street line and at the hearing of the town fathers this man learned beyond all doubt where the new line was to be located and how it would affect his property.

Fortunately, a friend of the would be purchaser who learned that he was buying the property acquainted him with the facts and the man who was selling the land was forced to make good.

It is understood that some members of the board are considering the advisability of publishing a list of the streets on which the boundary lines have not been defined. If such a list can be put on a sheet for a definite frontage and a definite depth. This will eliminate the uncertainty about one's boundary on the street line.

McCARTHY WOUNDED BUT NOT IN WAR

Edward McCarthy, the well known baseball umpire, was the victim of a peculiar accident last Saturday afternoon when he was shot through the calf of the right leg by a bullet from his own rifle.

McCarthy had a .22 caliber rifle with which he had been "frogging" the selectmen and several other members of the board. The rifle was a Remington-Union made by the carpenter shop of Chase Brothers McCarthy went to the West Side playgrounds to witness a ball game. There remained some bullets in the rifle. He discharged the gun twice believing that in so doing he had emptied it.

John Frazer, who was sitting nearby picked up the rifle and after examining it aimed at McCarthy and fired the trigger. A bullet sped from the rifle and lodged in the calf of McCarthy's right leg. He was attended by Dr. W. V. Trovsky and later taken to his home. The bullet was removed. Care is being taken to see that no infection enters.

No Celebration Here

Manchester will celebrate the Fourth as of late. On the order of the board of selectmen no honors will be given for the celebration. That has happened so often that every one should know it to be a dangerous experiment. It should never be permitted. Although McCarthy didn't go to war he has learned what the sting of a bullet feels like.

German Black List in Peru.

Publications in Peru do not believe in soon forgetting the intrigue of Germany or letting the Hun go unpunished. Newspapers there carry a complete list of merchants who showed friendly disposition toward Germany throughout the war. It is known as the "Official Allied Black List." The boycott of these merchants includes trade with any of the employees of the firms. The notice at the top of the list includes this warning: "Any transaction with an employee of a firm on this list is naturally the same as a transaction with the firm in its own name and you will have the same consequences."

ARMY AND NAVY CLUB WANT MORE MEMBERS

The officers of the Army and Navy Club have decided to conduct a membership drive and wish that end in view have appointed two teams to get out and hustle for new members. At the present time there are about 300 names on the roll but it is believed that this number can be easily increased to one thousand. Not only are World War Veterans eligible to membership but veterans of other wars are also entitled to join, as well as members of the National Guard who have served while the national guard was under federal control.

Married in Lee, Mass.

Herbert W. Robb, son of Matthew and Mrs. Robb of Center street and Miss Beatrice Roth Packard, daughter of E. C. and Mrs. Packard of Henry street married in Lee, Mass. Wednesday morning and at high noon were married at the parsonage of the Congregational church in that place by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Calderwood. Rev. Mr. Calderwood was formerly pastor of the North Congregational church in this place. He is a particular friend of the bride and groom. The couple were unattended. Following the ceremony the bride and groom left on a wedding trip to be spent in Maine. On their return they will take up housekeeping at 234 Center street where they have a home already furnished. The bride is a graduate of the South Manchester High School and also of the Siskimont School of Arts at Saratoga, N. Y. For the past year she has been the domestic science teacher at the eighth district school. The bridegroom is employed as a bookkeeper for Richter & Company, brokers, Hartford.

For Moose Only

At the meeting of the South End Lodge of Moose Wednesday evening the announcement committee made a report on the plans for the annual outing which will take place at Crystal Lake, Sunday, July 30. Following announcement of the plans there was a social for stockholders. The committee had to decide to limit the affair to Moose only. It was believed that a few friends outside the lodge might be invited but the committee feels that this will be impossible.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS

To provide accommodations for the present needs of the district additional school rooms are needed and new buildings will be required. The committee will ask for authority to erect a new school building or to make an addition to one of the present buildings. The meeting will be asked to make an appropriation for this purpose and to decide on the site for the additional school construction. Action will be taken by the committee authority to give the land upon which to erect a new school building.

TO BORROW $25,000

Under the last section in the call action will be taken upon the question of issuing bonds. This section reads as follows: "To see if the district acting under the authority given in Section 8 of Chapter 380 of the Special Acts and Resolutions of the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut, passed at the session of 1913 and approved June 8th, 1913, entitled, 'An Act Amending the Charter of the Ninth School District of Manchester' for the purpose of deferring the expense authorized under said Section 8 will vote to authorize the issuance of bonds of the district; to fix the rate of interest on said bonds; the time and place of said bonds; the manner in which they shall be issued and sold; and the names of persons by whom they shall

ISSUING BONDS LAYING TAX

The call for the annual meeting of the Ninth school district was posted Wednesday and judging from the several sections in the call the meeting will be one of the most important the district has held in some years. The meeting will be called to order at seven o'clock in the evening at the hall next Monday evening, the starting hour being advanced owing to the large amount of business to be transacted. As has been stated before in these columns the district is in need of more school rooms to meet the growing demands and action will be taken on providing funds for same and also for the purchase of land. The items in the call include the following:

Wont Permit Mutilation of Building. Invokes Aid of Court To Stay Hand of Despoiler. Action Holds Good Until September

William S. Hyde, attorney for E. J. Holl is not taking any chances with the board of selectmen in the matter of the controversy regarding the alleged Main street encroachment case, in which the selectmen contend that the Holl building at Main street and Brainerd place is over the street line.

This section reads as follows: "To see if the district acting under the authority given in Section 8 of Chapter 380 of the Special Acts and Resolutions of the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut, passed at the session of 1913 and approved June 8th, 1913, entitled, 'An Act Amending the Charter of the Ninth School District of Manchester' for the purpose of deferring the expense authorized under said Section 8 will vote to authorize the issuance of bonds of the district; to fix the rate of interest on said bonds; the time and place of said bonds; the manner in which they shall be issued and sold; and the names of persons by whom they shall

Married in Lee, Mass.

Herbert W. Robb, son of Matthew and Mrs. Robb of Center street and Miss Beatrice Roth Packard, daughter of E. C. and Mrs. Packard of Henry street married in Lee, Mass. Wednesday morning and at high noon were married at the parsonage of the Congregational church in that place by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Calderwood. Rev. Mr. Calderwood was formerly pastor of the North Congregational church in this place. He is a particular friend of the bride and groom. The couple were unattended. Following the ceremony the bride and groom left on a wedding trip to be spent in Maine. On their return they will take up housekeeping at 234 Center street where they have a home already furnished. The bride is a graduate of the South Manchester High School and also of the Siskimont School of Arts at Saratoga, N. Y. For the past year she has been the domestic science teacher at the eighth district school. The bridegroom is employed as a bookkeeper for Richter & Company, brokers, Hartford.

For Moose Only

At the meeting of the South End Lodge of Moose Wednesday evening the announcement committee made a report on the plans for the annual outing which will take place at Crystal Lake, Sunday, July 30. Following announcement of the plans there was a social for stockholders. The committee had to decide to limit the affair to Moose only. It was believed that a few friends outside the lodge might be invited but the committee feels that this will be impossible.

ISSUING BONDS LAYING TAX

The call for the annual meeting of the Ninth school district was posted Wednesday and judging from the several sections in the call the meeting will be one of the most important the district has held in some years. The meeting will be called to order at seven o'clock in the evening at the hall next Monday evening, the starting hour being advanced owing to the large amount of business to be transacted. As has been stated before in these columns the district is in need of more school rooms to meet the growing demands and action will be taken on providing funds for same and also for the purchase of land. The items in the call include the following:

Wont Permit Mutilation of Building. Invokes Aid of Court To Stay Hand of Despoiler. Action Holds Good Until September

William S. Hyde, attorney for E. J. Holl is not taking any chances with the board of selectmen in the matter of the controversy regarding the alleged Main street encroachment case, in which the selectmen contend that the Holl building at Main street and Brainerd place is over the street line.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS

To provide accommodations for the present needs of the district additional school rooms are needed and new buildings will be required. The committee will ask for authority to erect a new school building or to make an addition to one of the present buildings. The meeting will be asked to make an appropriation for this purpose and to decide on the site for the additional school construction. Action will be taken by the committee authority to give the land upon which to erect a new school building.
