Than the monarch of a nation In his high and lofty seat
Taking empty adoration
From the subjects at his feet.

I would rather own their kisses As at night to me they run Than to be the king who misses All the simpler forms of fun. When the dreary day is ending He is dismally alone.

But when my sun is descending He may ride to horns and drumming, I must walk a quiet street,

But when once they see me coming Then on joyous flying feet They come racing to me madly And I catch them with a swing And I say it proudly, gladly, That I'm happier than a king.

You may talk of lofty places You may boast of pomp and power, fen may turn their eager faces To the glory of an hour, But give me the humble station With its joys that long survive.
