FOR MARRIAGE MARKET .-In Egypt a quaint wedding custom is the visit paid by the bride and her friends to the bath. The progress to it partakes of the nature of a procession, headed by Arab musicians, with tamourines, flutes and other instruments. The bride is usually seated on a camel and covered with a sort of tepee from the top of which the greatest palm leaves obtainable are projected. Over the door of the bathhouse a handkerchief is hung to denote that only women may enter. After the bride and her friends have bathed, they abandon themselves to the enjoyment of the entertainment provided by the musicians, story tellers and sing-

IIRDERED MOVIE DIRECTOR HAD DAUGHTER

The murder of William Desmond Taylor, director at Pamous Players-Lasky movie studios, at his home in Hollywood, Calif. brought to light hidden chapter in his life. He had been married in 1901 and was the father of a 19-year-old daughter who now lives with her divorced mother in New York. The shooting of Taylor has brought many prominent movie stars into the limelight. Pictures are of Taylor, the wife who divorced him and who is now Mrs. E. L. Robins, and his daughter. Lower picture shows the room in Taylor's Los Angeles home where he was shot. Arrow indicates a desk from which letters were stolen, written by Mabel Normand, famous movie star.
