

ELECT LOCAL MAN CONTROL OF TOWN

At the 19th Annual State Convention of the Spanish War Veterans and the Women's Auxiliary held last Saturday in Stamford, Representative James E. Veitch, the commander of the Spanish War Veterans Camp of Spanish War Veterans of South Manchester was chosen senior vice commander of the state organization and Mrs. Mary Johnson of Bristol street, South Manchester, was chosen president of the Women's Auxiliary.

Commander Veitch has been a member of the Spanish War Veterans practically since the time of its inception. He enlisted in Company G of the First Connecticut Regiment when he was a student at the South Manchester High School in 1898 and went through the entire campaign with the local company. He has been employed by the Aetna Life Insurance Company for the past three years and was elected a representative of the town of Manchester to the legislature two years ago.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, who was elected president of the Women's Auxiliary is the wife of George Johnson of Bristol street who also was a member of Company G during the Spanish War. Mrs. Johnson has been president of Mary Bushnell Cheney Auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans of the town for the past year.

Mrs. Erhel Steiner (top) and Mrs. Jodie Nelson (bottom) attracted national attention by their preceding election in the Cokerille, Wyoming, election when they were the offices of Mayor and Councilman against the men on the platform of "Law Enforcement, but No Blue Laws."

Mrs. Mary W. Tuttle, Iowa's noted woman naturalist, has been honored with membership in a learned societies and scientific bodies. Of the 45,000,000 women in America at least 30,000,000 wear corsets.

Joseph Skonecki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Skonecki of 27 North school street and Miss Helen Blowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Blowski of 65 North street were married at St. Bridget's Church this morning at 9:30 o'clock by Rev. C. T. McCann, pastor of the church.

A Lyons, (Kansas) man has found a cure for a neighbor who habitually lets his chickens roost in other people's gardens. He drilled small holes in many grains of corn and attached threads to them with cards bearing the inscription, "I have been over in your garden, I have come back, but if I go there again I am not coming back. It's up to you."

Both bride and groom are well known in this place, the groom having attended the local grade schools and high school. He also is a member of the local fire department.
