This committee is making an appeal to save the lives of the 25,000 children in the Transcaucasian famine zone affected by a 5 percent reduction in Near Eas Relief appropriations. "'Charity begins at home' is an old and hackneyed phrase," says Mrs. Chapin. "Yet where have we in America an appeal so tragic and so heart-rending as comes from twenty-five thousand homeless children, such as those in the bread fines at Tiflis, whom the Near East Relief has been keeping alive on cocoa and a quarter of a pound of bread a day. Should the women of America forsake them, they will re-join the ranks of thousands of chilfon the ranks of thousands of children in scanty rags who are seen begging for bread, wandering the roads seeking for refuse or lying dead in Transcaucasia. Surely we women can afford to make some sacrifice, however small, in order that they shall not perish."

Sponsorship booklets, each representing the life of a child, ($5 a month, $60 a year), have been sent to women's organizations throughout the country.
