Do or Go! The world owes none a living, But a living's due to him, And more—aye—fame and riches, For the fellow with the grip; For the man who takes his coat off, And with confidence sets to, Who squares his shoulders boldly, And who says, "I'm here to do it."

Where To Locate a Store A store on the shady side of the street will often do 50 per cent more business than one on the opposite side. Ten per cent of those who pass a drug store will enter and nearly all of them will make a purchase averaging $2. There are men so familiar with the street throngs that they will make a survey of the passersby and tell the store owner how much business you are likely to do in a store which you may be considering.
