Obituary

Mrs. Isabelle B. Hills, wife of Mr. Charles Hills, died at her home in Manchester, N. H., on Monday, February 26, 1923, at the age of 70 years.

Problems in Will-Making

"SHALL I create trusts in my will? Shall I leave my property outright to my wife and children, or shall I tie it up in trust? These questions you will face when you are planning your will."

Perhaps the following case should cause you to reflect. A woman inherited her husband's estate when she was in middle age. She had been a teacher, and the large amount of insurance money she received was sufficiently ample to enable her to retire.

The widow made loans on personal notes. She leaned on mortgages without having the papers examined by lawyers. She bought promotion stocks. All these, she thought, were "business" investments.

LOCAL MAN SHOT

Was Shot at Last Fall
A peculiar incident in connection with the case of a man who was shot at last fall while driving a wagon through the woods at that time he was engaged in a game of hide-and-seek with a friend. The man, who was named William H. Wilson, was shot in the chest and the bullet entered his lungs. He was taken to the hospital and died last fall. The case has been the subject of much speculation and it is believed that the man was shot by a friend who was playing a practical joke on him.
