WISCONSIN VOTERS DECIDE TO BUILD $100,000 SCHOOL

Wise and Upon Company of Hartford Given Contract For $92,275 At Tuesday Night's Meeting—Dr. Dolan Warns Against Future High Taxes.

The voters of the Eighth School District, at a meeting held last Tuesday evening in the school hall, have decided to build a new school building for $100,000. The contract for the building was given to the Wise and Upon Company of Hartford, Conn., for $92,275. Dr. Dolan, who presided at the meeting, warned against future high taxes.

BASSETT IS STILL IN SERIOUS CONDITION AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

AFTER FALL FROM FIRE TRUCK

George W. Bassett, of No. 220 Hartford street, who was seriously injured on Thursday evening when he fell from a fire truck, is still in serious condition at the local hospital. The accident occurred on Tuesday night when the truck was backing up on a narrow street. Bassett was thrown from the truck and landed on the ground. He was taken to the hospital and is now recovering.

POSTMASTER TOP PROTESTS CONTING LOCAL SERVICES

South Manchester Office to Lose From Sixty to Ninety Percent of Allowance For Auxiliary Clerical, Parcel Post and Collection Work.

Postmaster Oliver F. Top of the South Manchester post office has protested against the proposed elimination of local services. He stated that the office would lose from sixty to ninety percent of its allowance for auxiliary clerical, parcel post, and collection work. Top has written to the Post Office Department in Washington, D. C., and is now waiting for a response.
