was built. He pointed out that no complaint has been received concerning the way that the concrete is standing up between the rails on North Main street, where the proper type of rails had been laid.

Arthur V. Hutchinson and his father, the Messrs. Hutchinson, are visiting Mr. Hutchinson's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hutchinson and other relatives in town. Both the girls are following the profession of nursing. Miss Lovell is in the City Hospital at Worcester, Mass., and has been here for some time. Miss Hutchinson is in the hospital at Worcester, Mass., and has been here for some time.

The Grange meeting held on Tuesday evening proved a very interesting one. The first five minutes of the meeting were given to the report of the Grange for the past year. The report was read by the Grange Secretary, Mr. J. W. Smith.

Butter Maid Bread

Never fails to meet competition. This does not mean that it meets every price; it meets nobody's price. It means that, no matter how cheaply another bread may be offered, Butter Maid at its price is invariably a better bread value.

Make Profits Grow in Swamp Lands

EVERY acre you've got under water is losing money. You're paying taxes on it and getting nothing in return.

Swamp land is rich, profitable land if you only drain it and use it. The quickest, easiest and cheapest way is the dynamite way.

We're at your service to give you practical help and cost estimates on all ditching and land-clearing work.

ALL-TYME CREPE DRESSES
$8.95
Values to $15.00
All-Tyme Crepe is a soft, lustrous silk fabric that makes up attractively as these dresses will prove. There is such a varied assortment of styles that it is impossible to describe them all here. One especially attractive model has wide insets of paisley in the waist and skirt. The colors are many and beautiful. You will find, Lavine green, cocoa, sand pearl grey, navy, and copen. Sizes 16 to 40.
