FAMED REBELLION

WOLF IS KILLED

Toddy, May 23—It is reported that today a strict Chinese censorship has been imposed at Peking on dispatches, Linchens and news items, and that the press is restricted in the release of foreign prisoners of the Subash bandits. This has greatly delayed reports of war.

Great Falls, Mont., May 23—Miss Snowdrift, a famous white wolf, is lonely, and he has been raising wild, piercing cries in the hills near here recently because his constant companion, Lady Snowdrift, has been shot and killed.

Miss Snowdrift was the mother of the business and Chinese quarters here were being searched to day for bodies of persons who may have lost their lives in addition to those known to have been killed.

For years Lady Snowdrift had raised and cared for small sheep ranches on northern Mount St. Helens, the female wolf and Old Snowdrift together have killed 21 death and one killed by a speeding train.

Both wolves have successfully claimed territory for more than 10 years. Many times have they been caught in steel traps, but always these night prowlers, murderers of young cow lambs, have escaped. Once last winter, Sir Robert Hart, former Chancellor of the Exchequer, who was taken prisoner by the Bolsheviks in 1917 and was sentenced to death.
