

UNCLE SAM BEGINS TODAY PAYING THREE BILLIONS

During New Fiscal Year Treasury Will Be Handing Out Cash at Rate of $8,500,000 Each Day—Budget Bureau's Program Forbids Any Haphazard Payments However—Receipts and Disbursements Figured in Terms of Average Dollar.

Washington, July 2.—Uncle Sam started today, the beginning of the new fiscal year with a little over three billion dollars to spend during the next twelve months.

It has been Mac Donald's plan to have the recent members appointed and to obtain reappointment.

The expenditure of the average dollar, however, matters it over the life of the dollar.

Approximately two thirds of the total year's 222,222,222 cents will be used by the government in meeting certain fixed charges.

To give a better idea of just how this money will be spent, the Budget Bureau has figured out receipts and disbursements in terms of the average dollar.
