FLOOD WATERS MELTAGE CITY OF DENVER, COLO.

Series of Cloudbursts Today Cause Torrential Rains Which Threaten to Undermine Dam Holding Back Billions of Gallons of Water—Guards Out Ready to Flash Signs of Danger—Inhabitants of City Take to Nearby Hills.

Denver, Colo., July 17.—Flood waters, pouring over the Castle Wood dam today were threatening to undermine the structure and wipe out the entire Cherry Creek valley. The Colorado and perhaps a large section of the West, is in a state of emergency today. The dam, which holds back billions of gallons of water, is being undermined by the rushing waters. The city of Denver is in a state of alarm, and the inhabitants are taking to the hills. The dam is being guarded by a large force of men, and they are ready to flash signs of danger if the water should break through. The water is so high that it is threatening to overflow the dam. The city is in a state of panic, and the inhabitants are taking to the hills. JOHNSON VICTORY ENTHUSES ADMINISTRATION OPPONENTS

ANTHARDING MAN IS CHOSEN IN MINNESOTA

Washington, July 17.—Opponents of the Harding administration today were jubilant today over the election of Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor candidate, to the seat in the United States Senate which once belonged to the late Senator Nelson. The actual Republican strength, however, will be much less, due to the disaffection of such Senators as La Follette, Borah, and others. The election of Johnson is a victory for the administration opponents. Seven Million Germans Are Slowly Starving To Death Says Dr. Brauns

400,000 Out of Work While Millions Are Victims of Hidden Unemployment—Fatal Plunge of Mark Has Caused Workers to Lose Faith in Future—Nothing Left For Them But Revolution Unless Allies Loosen Screws On Reparations and Stabilize Mark.

Editor's Note: Germany is becoming a nation of starving men, women and children and of paupers, according to opinion expressed by the German Minister of Labor in an exclusive interview with the International News Service. Following is the second installment of the interview, the first having been published yesterday. By S. D. WYLER. International News Service Staff Correspondent. (Copyright 1923 by International News Service.) Berlin, July 17.—"It is conservatively estimated that seven million German men and women are slowly starving to death as a result of the industrial crisis and the fatal plunge in the value of the mark," declared Dr. Heinrich Brauns, German Minister of Labor, in an exclusive statement to International News Service today. 140 LOCAL YOUNG MEN ENTRAIN NEXT SUNDAY FOR TWO WEEKS FIELD DUTY IN NATIONAL GUARD

Next Sunday morning about 140 local young men, all in the National Guard service will leave town for two weeks' field duty at East Haven and Natick. Company G, 169th Infantry, C. N. G., will go with about 75 men while the Howitzer company is expected to have a quota of 70 men by Saturday night. The last drill preparatory to moving out of town next Sunday morning for the annual two weeks' field duty. From now on every evening, the local guardsmen will be busy packing up the baggage and getting their individual packs and equipment to be ready to move off to Sunday morning with the least amount of confusion. Lieutenant William Newman gave the men short talk last evening on the preparations for, and the life in camp. He said that in the old days, Company G of Manchester was always considered the "crack" outfit of the First Regiment. There was no reason why Company G of the present day should not hold the same position in the 169th Regiment. (Continued on Page 2)

BRITISH MORE OPTIMISTIC OVER PARIS VIEW OF REPARATIONS

French Semi-Official Communication Regarding Poincare's Speech at Senlis Last Sunday Allays Alarm—Baldwin in Hard Postion With Pro-French Members of His Cabinet.

London, July 17.—There was more optimistic feeling in British official circles today over the official communication from Paris in which Premier Poincare said that the French Government is in a hard position with regard to reparations.
