BRIDGES COST HAS BIG YEARLY EXPENSE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The Department of Commerce announces that according to reports from the Bureau of the Census to the state governments, the city of Bridgeport, Conn., for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1922, amounted to $7,146,256, which was per capita cost of $47.31. In 1915, the total amount was $4,38, and in 1916, $22,90. The totals for these years being $5,665, 110 and $7,773,445, respectively. The per capita cost for 1922 can be said of every town in the continental United States, $30.52; payments for interest, $3,70; and for outlays, $6,77.

The total revenue received in 1922 was $10,000,000, or $4,000 per capita. The per capita excess of revenue received over governmental costs was, therefore, $1,099. In Bridgeport property tax revenue reached $3,500 per capita, or 35 per cent, for 1922, $3,83 per cent, for 1918, and 79.1 per cent, for 1915. The increase in the amount of property taxes collected was 66.4 per cent from 1915 to 1922, and 100 per cent from 1910 to 1922. The per capita property taxes for the three specified years were $45.19, $22.93, and $1.24 respectively.

Business and non-business incomes were 0.2 per cent of the total revenue for 1922, 4.9 per cent, for 1918, and 6.4 per cent, for 1915.

The net indebtedness (financed and bearing less sinking fund assets) of Bridgeport was $49,47 per capita for 1922, $8,661 for 1918, and $21,441 for 1915.

The total assessed valuation of property in Bridgeport subject to ad valorem taxation for the city corporation was $240,149,200. The levy for all purposes for 1922 was $7,777,445, this giving a per capita rate of $31.29.

Morning Glories Will Tangle With Colored Collegians Friday Evening

Magnate Colletta Intends to Wipe Mt. Nebo Grounds With John Spillane's Tallahassee Students—Game to Start at 6:30 and Elite Society From East Side Threatens to Be Out in Force.

Friday evening on Mt. Nebo, the "you are!" But what does Manager Colletta care about a change of name? It's a mere "nothing" to Charles, known as the local market, lined up against the famous Tallahassee Collegians from the Connecticut Shubert Tobacco Company plantations in Buckland, and believe us, the game is going to be a hummer from start to finish.

The fate of the initiates, if might be proved to date at this point that the Morning Glory team, in spite of its "Mt. Nebo" name, induces players whose horns and tails are far from the status their Club is playing under according to the card index, and also a valet to Park, the proper name.

As far as I am concerned, why the world is full of names to be wished upon a baseball team! Manager Colletta, first, was well pleased just the same even if it were called "apple-an" or a grape fruit would appear in one's eye though it should be named strawberry. In the second place, he can't put the list of automobiles, such as the Ford's Henry might buy the new uniforms if he wants to be real patriotic he might name his gang after some of the great cities—Paris, Rome, China, Canton, Crete, Flanders, etc., etc. So if Superintendent Spillane thinks he can make Charlie stay by naming him after the name of his school, then he will, and have another thinking coming.

The line-up of Friday evening, which starts at 6:30 will be as follows:

POOT O'POLITICS

ALREADY BOILING

Albion, July 15.—With the arrival of Governor Smith, who intends to stamp the State that he expects to see plenty of him at the Capital, the politicians are more confident; that they will be successful in the polls next fall.

Leaders are that the coming Assembly campaign will be the hottest fought in many years.

Speaker H. Edmund Macbeth has passed along the word to the Democrats that he will be ready to take his place in the campaign started this Fall.

While in this city recently, Senator Macbeth told friends he was not worried about the Democratic victory in the Assembly fights this Fall. He believes the Republicans will have an even larger majority in the 1924 Assembly.

But Governor Smith can, without the others in both parties—there is sure to be "something doing" around the State within the next three months.

The four major political parties in the United States during the 125 years of law making by the rest of the world in 6,000 years; Chief Justice Marshall, the man that the Goliath, the Ten Commandments and the United States Constitution are the most striking examples expounding the principal requirements of constitutionalism and perfection.

He declared that his party, in making new laws should not be placed upon the Government's judiciary department, and said that it believed the campaign will start unusually early this Fall.

It is believed a campaign will be held in the lower house than they had in the 1922 session they will be in complete control of the State Legislature.

It is believed the campaign will start unusually early this Fall.

JUDGES FIGHT OVER JINNEY INJUNCTIONS

Schenectady, N. Y., July 18.—The legal fight over the right of Jinney to operate in this city during the summer of 1928, employees of the Schenectady Railway Company today found judges lined up on each side. They are Supreme Court Justice Edward M. Angell of Albany, Fall Creek, and Schenectady Judge McMillan of Schenectady who vacated it. Answering the attack of Justice Angell, the company's attorney, George H. Judge McMillan announced today that he was entirely within his legal rights. In the meantime the company is continuing to serve the Jinney operators with the injunctions, the legal process will be thrashed out in court as soon as one of them is arrested for violating.

REPORT MORE VIOLENCE

London, July 18.—Further violence was reported today in the dock workers strike.

The members of the Cabinet in formally discussed the possibility of a food shortage unless shipments are resumed forthwith.

The docks are under police guard.

DAWN TO DUNK FLIGHT POSTPONED

Glasgow, Eng., July 18.—With his airplane under repair at the Curtiss plant here, Lieutenant Russell E. Maughan, army aviator, today again postponed his attempt to make the first night flight between England and America.

A leak which developed in the gas line of the plane will require a complete retuning of the power plant, and the flight will be delayed until another week.

PRANCE AFTER U. S. AIR RECORDS

Contingent, July 18.—The British R.A.F. Committee to The Admiralty has completed its investigation of the British military and naval forces.

Contracts for supplies were canceled. Native contributions by the committee are being discharged.

FORMER SOLDIER FAILS TO COLLECT

Paris, July 18.—All dressed up and no place to go—except the police station—was the sad fate of tall, thin-looking, negro friend of the Weavers, who had to sit out the large Paris show last week and deck himself in berrosglumes.

He first found his way to the famous department store of Au Bon Marche, where he was planning to buy a shore dinner, swimming, boating, baseball and other sports, and the old time boy's little boy was found in the Rabin-Machin, via. R. G. Weaving Mill.

The son of the "Sister Blues" was once a member of the band at the West Side playgrounds where the R. G. Weaving aggregation at present sprawls upon the top rung of the ladder will battle the Rabin-Machin, who had to sit out the large Paris show last week and deck himself in berrosglumes.

In the jewelry section he put on a gold watch and chain, a scarf pin, cuff buttons and a fine fountain pen, and finally arrived to pick him up, he was invited to the park seat where thrown into the pond.

Weaving was last seen at the Diva hotel Monday noon. Later in the day he was seen near the Rabin-Machin.

Present further, he admitted that had no money and an inspector hurried him to the police.
