

"Tommy" Sipples to Hurl in Sunday's Game

LOCAL SLAB ARTIST TO BE PITTED AGAINST TORRINGTON IN COME-BACK PERFORMANCE

Wilson, With Lame Arm, Goes to Bench for Rest—King, All-Collegian Star to Cover Second and Halfback Goes to Third

Tommy Sipples, former pitching star for the Manchester baseball team has been selected by Manager Schiedler to pitch in Sunday's game against Torrington at the West Side stadium. Sipples, who often won the title of iron man by his stellar work on the mound, has been out of the pitching business for the last three seasons following an injury to his shoulder. However, in the West Side Community game last week he pitched for Sammy Mawzy's team and appeared to have some time left and control. His comeback was somewhat unexpected but nevertheless he will pitch for the team and they will be glad to know that he will not quit for the local.
