a week's vacation in New York.

The work of the moving of St. Mary's Episcopal church to a point in the rear of its old location has been completed and the old edifice is now on jacks waiting for the concrete forms to be built upon which it will be placed. These forms are being constructed now and as soon as they are completed the concrete will be poured in to would the foundation.

The church part of the edifice was sawed away from the Parish house which will remain in its present location and temporary ranfing was placed over the apertures in both buildings. The church has been moved back about 40 feet from its old location. The moving was done under the supervision of Thomas Wright and a number of the men of the parish assisted in the work. Just as soon as the present job is completed, the work of building the new church, for which a campaign to collect funds has been going on for some time past, will be started. In the meantime the
