

OBITUARY

ROBERT P. BISSELL

Robert Palmer Bissell, 67 years of age, for many years one of the best known business men at the North End, died this morning at his residence, 100 Washington Hospital, following a short illness. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the home of Charles Clancy, 15 Blaine at No. 11 Washington st., where the body will be taken tomorrow morning.

BIG DANCE
Modern and Old
Fashioned Dancing
FONTAINE'S ORCHESTRA
Prof. Beck, Promoter
WEST SIDE REC.
FRIDAY, SEPT. 7.

NEWSY NOTES

Mrs. Annie Curran of Ridge street is spending a vacation at Pleasant View, R. I.

Rudolph Johnson of the Johnson's Electrical Shop and Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Johnson of Waltham left today for a week's vacation in New York. The trip was made by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bellis, and daughter, Irene, and son, Wilfred of 6, Heleck street have returned after spending two weeks with friends in New York and New Jersey. The trip was made by auto.

Miss Mary J. McAdams of Houghton, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Blodin of Belmont street.

John E. Cavigelli of East Center street is breaking in as a metronome on the local lines of the Connecticut Company.

Mrs. S. L. Cheney, who has been in Canada since July, expects to return to New England this evening. Mr. Cheney, who has been at Chenevoe, Que., during the summer arrived home last Saturday.

Louis Hennegar of Charleroi, Penn., has returned for a few weeks to his mother and father at 28 cottage street.

COLLINS-HARROUIN

Ernest George Collins, son of Mrs. Warren A. Collier of Columbus, Ohio, and Miss Mildred Harroouin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Harroouin of Willimantic, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, 223 North street, on Saturday at 4 p.m. by Rev. Harry S. McCrory, pastor of the First Congregational Church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore white flat tress with pearl trimmings and a delicate lace collar, also a tutu. Her maid of honor was a blonde from New Haven. The bride's gown was of crepe de chine and she was a brown coat hat. She was attended by Miss Mae Moulton, Miss Helen of Columbus, as maid of honor, and a light blue crepe gown with silver over-dress and girdle of pink roses, carrying a bouquet of Olympia roses.

The groom was attired in a Radford suit, the best man in a doublet and breeches.

The bride's mother wore golden brown figured georgette with amber trimmings. The groom's mother wore a gown of gray crepe de chine.

The bride was graduated from the Patching and Windham High schools and took a course in domestic science at the Willimantic High School. The groom is a student at the Hartford Electric Light Company for several years.

The house was handsomely decorated, the wedding taking place in a bower of roses and potted plants.

After the ceremony and a luncheon at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Collins left on their honeymoon to New Haven, Hartford, Washington, D. C., Taftville, Bridgeport and Colchester.

They received many hand-made gifts, some presented from New Haven, Hartford, Washington, D. C., Taftville, Bridgeport and Colchester.

ROBERT J. SMITH BOUGHT SKINNER BUSINESS

Announcement is made today in the advertising columns of The News that Mr. J. Smith, the owner, real estate broker at 2209 Main street, in the Bowers block, has bought out the insurance business conducted by the late A. S. Skinner. As Mr. Skinner's business building with offices and in office space, he had been doing the same business for many years before his death. Mr. Skinner's wife, Mrs. Skinner, who had been taken over by Mr. Smith, has a suite of rooms in the same structure and had officials to search the rooms for evidence.

DOUBLE TENEMENT TWO STORES TO BE PLACED ON MAPLE ST. FOR THE J. W. HALE CO.

Work Started This Morning Making Necessary Excavations.

FIND POISON IN BOOZE - SEIZED DOWN STATE

New York, Sept. 6.—Fears that the Salvation Army centers in the stricken area of Japan had been destroyed by fire, with 110 workers today when no word came from Japan. A cablegram from the international headquarters in Japan indicates that General Bramwell Booth has lost his life.

"Our headquarters, I fear, the hospital and other institutions may probably most of the soldiers houses are gone," the telegraph said. "More sorrow and lamentation than joy can any day worth the price to any family who might see fit to do so."

Following Mrs. Stow's address, Mrs. H. A. Netterfield spoke on current events and her paper was interested in with much interest.

C. E. Schnell of the Standard COAL STRIKE CAN BE BROKEN
(Continued From Page One)

Oil Co. Charles Russell, the oldest foreign resident in Yokohama, Mrs. Holyoak Box, Milliner, Yoko-hama.

A daughter of Mrs. Box, Yokohama, of higher class.

The miners "turns" are:

1. Acceptance of "ten per cent for contract labor.

Dr. LeVene, Holmes and Dr. C. Y. Moore will be on duty all day today for emergency calls. Dr. Holmes can be secured by telephone at No. 314-2 or 3; and Dr. Moore's telephone are No. 206-2 or 3.

Among the seriously injured is

Dr. Weil, of the United States.

2. Insistence that labor be given a "dollar and cents" increase in pay.

General Hospital at Yokohama, is missing.

3. 20 per cent of their present wage—nothing between $1.12.

4. A claim of Mrs. Albert Smith is that he is Mrs. L. E. Pricestein of Cleveland, Ohio.

Established as Weekly 1898; Semi-Weekly 1922; Daily 1923

SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1928

WEATHER
Cloudy with showers tonight and Saturday morning; no change in temperature.

TWO CENTS COPY

Manchester Daily News

Disease Spreads In Japan Unburied Dead Polluting Area

REFUGEES ARE NOW FACING DEATH FROM HUNGER THIRST AND DISEASE

RED CROSS ASKS $3,500 OF MANCHESTER FOR JAP RELIEF

Chairman R. K. Anderson Notified by Telegram Today to Organize Immediately as For War Funds—Executive Committee to Meet at Local Headquarters To-night—Contributions to Date Total $525.

Manchester, in line with all the other cities and towns throughout the United States is making preparations to aid in the Red Cross drive for help the Japanese.

Anderson, chairman of the Executive Committee for the Relief Fund, called a meeting of the executive committee for the purpose of laying out a program to secure $3,500, the amount which has been given Manchester as a quota.

Telegram Received by Secretary of State Denby, to Anderson, from the national headquarters in Washington, relative to the local quota.

R. K. Anderson, Chairman of the Executive Committee for the Relief Fund, Manchester, Conn.,

To speed up the distribution of relief funds, the American Red Cross has organized a relief fund in each city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

The following supplies are already needed in the earthquake areas in Japan:

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to your war department for further information.

This will be a remarkable day in Manchester's history.

The cost of relief in Japan is estimated to be $100,000,000.

Atmosphere of despair reigns in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Thousands of refugees are still in the streets of Tokyo, Yokohama and other cities.

Food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, etc., are still in short supply.

Red Cross funds are being collected in every city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

Local Red Crosses are急に需要がある。

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to your war department for further information.

This will be a remarkable day in Manchester's history.

The cost of relief in Japan is estimated to be $100,000,000.

Atmosphere of despair reigns in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Thousands of refugees are still in the streets of Tokyo, Yokohama and other cities.

Food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, etc., are still in short supply.

Red Cross funds are being collected in every city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

Local Red Crosses are急に需要がある。

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to your war department for further information.

This will be a remarkable day in Manchester's history.

The cost of relief in Japan is estimated to be $100,000,000.

Atmosphere of despair reigns in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Thousands of refugees are still in the streets of Tokyo, Yokohama and other cities.

Food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, etc., are still in short supply.

Red Cross funds are being collected in every city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

Local Red Crosses are急に需要がある。

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to your war department for further information.

This will be a remarkable day in Manchester's history.

The cost of relief in Japan is estimated to be $100,000,000.

Atmosphere of despair reigns in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Thousands of refugees are still in the streets of Tokyo, Yokohama and other cities.

Food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, etc., are still in short supply.

Red Cross funds are being collected in every city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

Local Red Crosses are急に需要がある。

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to your war department for further information.

This will be a remarkable day in Manchester's history.

The cost of relief in Japan is estimated to be $100,000,000.

Atmosphere of despair reigns in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Thousands of refugees are still in the streets of Tokyo, Yokohama and other cities.

Food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, etc., are still in short supply.

Red Cross funds are being collected in every city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

Local Red Crosses are急に需要がある。

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to your war department for further information.

This will be a remarkable day in Manchester's history.

The cost of relief in Japan is estimated to be $100,000,000.

Atmosphere of despair reigns in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Thousands of refugees are still in the streets of Tokyo, Yokohama and other cities.

Food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, etc., are still in short supply.

Red Cross funds are being collected in every city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

Local Red Crosses are急に需要がある。

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to your war department for further information.

This will be a remarkable day in Manchester's history.

The cost of relief in Japan is estimated to be $100,000,000.

Atmosphere of despair reigns in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Thousands of refugees are still in the streets of Tokyo, Yokohama and other cities.

Food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, etc., are still in short supply.

Red Cross funds are being collected in every city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

Local Red Crosses are急に需要がある。

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to your war department for further information.

This will be a remarkable day in Manchester's history.

The cost of relief in Japan is estimated to be $100,000,000.

Atmosphere of despair reigns in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Thousands of refugees are still in the streets of Tokyo, Yokohama and other cities.

Food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, etc., are still in short supply.

Red Cross funds are being collected in every city and town in the country and half of red cross membership urges to raise its quota immediately.

Local Red Crosses are急に需要がある。

Non-perishable groceries, such as beans, rice, tea, sugar, salt, water, medical and surgical supplies, cotton, gauze, bandages, invalid foods and blankets; miscellaneous stores, mosquito and fly netting, heating pads, matches, kerosene, lamp oil, lanterns, matches, etc.

Unparalleled disaster requires unusual efforts of many resources afforded. Telegraph to Matters of Public Entertainment, not exceeding two inches, will be run at the top of "Newsy Notes" at $1.00 per inch each insertion.

BIG DANCE
Modern and Old
Fashioned Dancing
FONTAINE'S ORCHESTRA
Prof. Beebe, Promoter
WEST SIDE REC.
FRIDAY, SEPT. 7.

NEWSY NOTES

Ernest Bartley of Center street has placed an order for a St. Valentine's basket for early delivery.

A family house owned by Morris Zippin, on Main Street, was turned over to the Red Cross through the agency of William Rubow to R. Baggett of Hartford.

The outing of the Men's League of the Center Congregational Church will be held tomorrow, rain or shine. In addition to dinner, music has been arranged to serve dinner at the church and a program of suitable games has been prepared.

The dance given by the Parents Teachers' Association, which was held in the School Hall, on Friday evening was very well attended. Mixed dancing was enjoyed. Promising for the square dance.

The plate glass window for the new store, the William Rubow, is complete. Main street has been installed this morning and the new quarters will soon be ready for occupancy by the Rhode Island Textile Company.

The exterior of the building in present location, Mr. Rubow will start to remodel it also.

Mrs. Alfred Johnson and son Douglas of Maple street are spending the week in Sound View.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schatz of Plainfield are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Schatz of Summer street.

Frank Gardner of Oak street has left the employ of the Lynn Leather Co. and has entered the service of the Gloucester Knitting Co.

Miss Polly Johnson of Wooded street is driving a new Maxwell Sport touring car. The sale was made through the George S. Smith Agency.

It will be a special meeting of the management committee of the South End Lodge of Moose at The News office this evening at eight o'clock to further plans for the Moose anniversary which will be at the Centennial midway during the town's anniversary celebration.

FOUR DEAD IN SO. AMBOY

South Amboy, N. J., Sept. 7.—Four men were killed yesterday, several persons are missing, and 18 others were injured, some fatally, in a series of terrific blasts which wrecked a number of houses and three others in South Amboy with destruction by fire.

The dead: Winton Taylor, James Gilpin, William C. Cram, brother of James Cram, and an unidentified man.

Investigations were under way today to fix the cause and responsibility of the explosion.

The explosion occurred in a car of a freight train moving slowly over the bridge of the New York and Long Branch railroad and the resultant fire spread to other cars and barges, causing severe explosions.

Three barges sank. Firemen from six cities aided in extinguishing the flames.

GREATER TOKIO PREDICTED BY JAPANESE EMBASSY

Washington, Sept. 7.—One of the greatest capital cities in the world will rise from the charred ruins of Tokio, it was stated today by officials of the Japanese embassy.

The new Tokio will rival even the stately magnificence of America's own capital, Washington, when the work of reconstruction is completed, it was said. A score of government buildings, crumpled like blackened ashes by the earthquakes and fires, will be rebuilt on an inspiring scale.

Fruit Salad College less expensive. Cream, Pagan's

EX-CONVICT SUSPECTED OF CHILD MURDER

Mother of 7 Year Old Howard Rothenberg Who Was Found Strangled Gives Police Clew.

Widower, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Mrs. Florence King Harding was made the principal beneficiary in the will of the late President Warren G. Harding, according to Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty. After her death, the property is to be distributed among his one brother, Senator George H. Rauch, and his wife, George H. Harding, father of the president, income for $50,000 government bonds, Trinity Baptist Church $20,000, the State of Ohio $1,000, to George H. Van Fleet, general manager of the State $1,000 to James Woods, circulation manager of the Star $1,000, wife, in memory of their son, $1,000 to the National Foundation of Government, New Englanders are invited throughout the time of elevation.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Coal companies are continuing to increase their anthracite containing districts in the country and consequently the hardest bit by hard coal strikes are being made more severely, due to conflicts in the anthracite fields of the coal and gas industry.

It is learned that the largest anthracite field in the country is located in the state of Pennsylvania.

September—School Days, Mrs. Kelian, our little girls.

Lillian Suppes.

September—Portrait Maid and Miss.

December—Santa Claus and Mrs. F. Dart.

Dancer—Dorothy Wartella.

December—Helen McCormick.

Miss Louise S. Hart.

The dolls, set for the calendar, say Miss Louise S. Hart.

The doll decorations were bought in Massachusetts, not presented, and Clara Barker, Miss kindly furnished by the Park Hill

MRS. HARDING TO RECEIVE BULK OF ESTATE

Mario, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Florence King Harding was made the principal beneficiary in the will of the late President Warren G. Harding, according to Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty. After her death, the property is to be distributed among his one brother, Senator George H. Harding, father of the president, income for $50,000 government bonds, Trinity Baptist Church $20,000, the State of Ohio $1,000, to George H. Van Fleet, general manager of the State $1,000 to James Woods, circulation manager of the Star $1,000, wife, in memory of their son, $1,000 to the National Foundation of Government, New Englanders are invited throughout the time of elevation.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Coal companies are continuing to increase their anthracite containing districts in the country and consequently the hardest bit by hard coal strikes are being made more severely, due to conflicts in the anthracite fields of the coal and gas industry.

It is learned that the largest anthracite field in the country is located in the state of Pennsylvania.

September—School Days, Mrs. Kelian, our little girls.

Lillian Suppes.

September—Portrait Maid and Miss.

December—Santa Claus and Mrs. F. Dart.

Dancer—Dorothy Wartella.

December—Helen McCormick.

Miss Louise S. Hart.

The dolls, set for the calendar, say Miss Louise S. Hart.

The doll decorations were bought in Massachusetts, not presented, and Clara Barker, Miss kindly furnished by the Park Hill

the time of the Christian Easter, it has never been found expedient and Miss Wolfe, gave interesting facts. Ruth Hashman does not care to produce it, as long as antagonists addresses.

The Hashmans have quite good coal to be had at fair prices, a large Jewish population at present. Rather than be subjected to recurring anthracite shortages, however, it is the custom of new Englanders are with an enthusiastic spirit and enthusiasm services will be largely advertised throughout the time of elevation.

Prominent in the group are Frank H. Foss, chairman of the Republican State Committee of Connecticut, William M. Butler, another Boston and New Bedford manufacturer; Lieutenant Governor Alvar T. Fuller, Frank G. Allen, president of the State Senate, and Frank L. Dyer, treasurer of the United Fruit Company.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Coal companies are continuing to increase their anthracite containing districts in the country and consequently the hardest bit by hard coal strikes are being made more severely, due to conflicts in the anthracite fields of the coal and gas industry.

It is learned that the largest anthracite field in the country is located in the state of Pennsylvania.

September—School Days, Mrs. Kelian, our little girls.

Lillian Suppes.

September—Portrait Maid and Miss.

December—Santa Claus and Mrs. F. Dart.

Dancer—Dorothy Wartella.

December—Helen McCormick.

Miss Louise S. Hart.

The dolls, set for the calendar, say Miss Louise S. Hart.

The doll decorations were bought in Massachusetts, not presented, and Clara Barker, Miss kindly furnished by the Park Hill

Flower Shop. The local tent was very much was very original as well as interesting. Arms men present. It was by far the largest number that ever visited the tent.

The entertainment though short was very original as well as interesting, especially the tableau.

Princess—Mrs. Gehrmann

Talbott—Father Time's Art

Gallery.

January—Sleigh bells dance

Betty Harvey and Flora Schaeffer

Princess—Valentine, Mrs. Mrs.

Carter.

Maren St. Patrick's Day, Mrs.

Walter Henry and Mrs. Gilman

April—Rainbow, Marion Mc

Laughlin and her Harvey

May—Queen of May, Mary Bailey

July—State of Liberty, Anna

Lewis and Mrs. Garman

August—Batting Girl, Miss Gar

September—School Days, Mrs.

Kelian, our little girls.

Lillian Suppes.

September—Portrait Maid and Miss.

December—Santa Claus and Mrs. F. Dart.

Dancer—Dorothy Wartella.

December—Helen McCormick.

Miss Louise S. Hart.

The dolls, set for the calendar, say Miss Louise S. Hart.

The doll decorations were

bought in Massachusetts, not presented, and Clara Barker, Miss kindly furnished by the Park Hill

DOLLAR DAY SPECIALS

All of our Misses' and Children's Pumpkins and Oxfords for $1.00 per pair

Broken lots of Women's Felt Slippers, regular value $2.00 for $1.00

One dollar off on our regular priced Ladies' Shoes.

Miss Naven

NEW ENGLAND MEN TO WORK BIG PEAT FIELDS

Washington, Sept. 7.—Coal companies are continuing to increase their anthracite containing districts in the country and consequently the hardest bit by hard coal strikes are being made more severely, due to conflicts in the anthracite fields of the coal and gas industry.

It is learned that the largest anthracite field in the country is located in the state of Pennsylvania.

September—School Days, Mrs.

Kelian, our little girls.

Lillian Suppes.

September—Portrait Maid and Miss.

December—Santa Claus and Mrs. F. Dart.

Dancer—Dorothy Wartella.

December—Helen McCormick.

Miss Louise S. Hart.

The dolls, set for the calendar, say Miss Louise S. Hart.

The doll decorations were bought in Massachusetts, not presented, and Clara Barker, Miss kindly furnished by the Park Hill

DOLLAR DAY

When Your Dollar Does Double Duty
Read These Values—They Speak for Themselves

LOCAL HEBREWS WILL USHER IN NEW YEAR

Mosheh Hirsch, who will start the year in the new year, according to the Rabbis, will be followed by the Rev. Dr. David L. Metzger, of New Haven, and for two days until Wednesday, September 12 at noon, the time will be spent in prayer and meditation.

Armenian Jews will be called to conduct services at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Italian community will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Russian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The German Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Spanish Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Portuguese Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Polish Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The French Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Italian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Hungarian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Greek Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Armenian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Russian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Spanish Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Portuguese Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The French Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Italian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Hungarian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Armenian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Greek Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Armenian Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.

The Greek Jews will begin the New Year with a service at 6 P. M. on Friday, Sept. 11, at the Central Synagogue.